

How to Send Test Scores

	SAT	ACT	SAT Subject Test	AP
UC	Go to collegeboard.org and send your scores to one UC campus. That campus will share your scores with other campuses to which you apply.	Go to actstudent.org and send your scores to one UC campus. That campus will share your scores with other campuses to which you apply.	Go to collegeboard.org and send your scores to one UC campus. That campus will share your scores with other campuses which you apply.	AP exam scores must be sent directly to the college from collegeboard.org. This is usually done after the student has been accepted and is planning on attending the university.
CSU	Go to collegeboard.org and list CSU Institution as a score recipient (#3594). This will send your scores to all CSU campuses to which you apply. We also recommend you to send to your preferred CSU campus.	Go to actstudent.org and send your score to one CSU campus. CSU will release your score to all campuses to which you apply.	Go to collegeboard.org and list CSU Institution as a score recipient (#3594). This will send your scores to all CSU campuses to which you apply. We also recommend you to send to your preferred CSU campus.	AP exam scores must be sent directly to the college from collegeboard.org. This is usually done after the student has been accepted and is planning on attending the university.
Private/Out of state	Go to collegeboard.org and request that each private or out of state campus that you apply to receive your official scores.	Go to actstudent.org and request that each private or out of state campus that you apply to receive your official scores.	Go to collegeboard.org and request that each private or out of state campus that you apply to receive your official scores.	AP exam scores must be sent directly to the college from collegeboard.org. This is usually done after the student has been accepted and is planning on attending the university.