

WILSHIRE BOULEVARD TEMPLE COMPREHENSIVE FAMILY EMERGENCY PLAN

Get a Kit. Make a Plan. Be Prepared.

After you've purchased emergency kits for your home, vehicles, and workplace, the next step in getting prepared is making a family emergency plan. Fill out the information below, discuss it with your family, and keep a printed copy with each of your emergency kits. Be sure to update it annually.

Note: During emergencies, texts, emails, and some social media such as Twitter may be more reliable and faster forms of communication than a phone call.

OUT-OF-STATE CONTACT

Communication within a disaster area can be difficult and unreliable. Designate a family member or friend who lives out of state or away from your area and notify your loved ones that this person will be the point of contact to share information with your family.

MEETING PLACE

Consider where you and your family spend time: School, work, home, and other places you may find yourself in the event of an emergency.

Note: It may not be realistic to travel large distances after an emergency. Have a backup plan and consider that you may be separated from your family for some time.
