

Start

your teaching and develop your senior career path in an exciting, supportive and job satisfying environment across all phases.

Slough Learning Partnership is working with the schools in offering this exciting opportunity. People new to teaching and experienced teachers are offered a comprehensive range of support, training and career opportunities. Slough Learning Partnership also provides ongoing school to school support, CPD and advice and guidance on all issues relating to teaching and learning as a strategic partner to the Slough Teaching Schools Alliance.

Slough has the advantage of being close to London and all that London can offer, yet far enough away to make it affordable in terms of living standards. It is close to many tourist destinations such as Windsor and Eton, and famed for being a major location for the Olympics rowing events.

Slough needs You!

Slough has a vibrant mix of cultures that would give anyone coming here to teach a breadth of experience that would embellish their knowledge and understanding, opening up more opportunities and developing a more interesting résumé for future career prospects.
