Welcome:

Minutes of Prior Meeting: Meetings were approved from February.

PTA News:

- Valentine's Dance was successful.
- White Ribbon Week-questions during lunch and NetzSmart Assembly
- Teacher dinner was provided for Parent/Teacher Conferences.
- Student of the Month Breakfast and Student Recognition is coming up in April and May.
- Rhonda Perkes attended a PTA day at the legislature.
- Envelope Fundraiser raised over $2,000. This will pay for almost 50% of the PTA budget for next year. It was suggested to hold the fundraiser at a time after parent's have been paid for the month.
- PTA Board for 2017-2018 is full.

Counselors' Corner:

- Registration forms are submitted for grades 7-9.
- Career Day was successful. We had mock job interviews, resume writing, job applications, and scholarship presentation.
- Career Speakers on Mondays and Wednesdays.
- 8th Grade Personality Lesson
- U of U field trip for First Generation college students.
- Hope Squad: Random Acts of Kindness Days and HOPE Day St. Patrick's Day activities.

SNAP Update: Safe Neighborhood Access Program for the school has been updated and is on the website.

- It was brought up that 500 South should have a crossing guard at 200 East. It would also be helpful if there was a crosswalk with flags or flashing lights before and after school.
- Add painted cross walks on 100 E and 1000 E to the SNAP plan.

Digital Citizenship:

“Focus on Learning”
