Middle School Steering Committee Report

Pawcatuck Middle School Principal, Tim Smith gave an update on the progress of the middle school consolidation. Mr. Smith reported that all sub committees met on Friday, April 13 and shared some of the items discussed. Some of the topics discussed in the Programs subcommittee were social and emotional learning strategies, increase interdisciplinary opportunities, high school readiness, develop a community service model, student and parent involvement, curriculum, team structure and late start on Wednesdays to give an opportunity for teams to meet. The Operations group main focus was to create a handbook for the middle schools, plan a parent event in May to tour the school, share their concerns and what new experiences they would like for their students, and discussed school mascot. The Communications subcommittee discussed announcing the colors and mascot in mid-May. The Facilities subcommittee looked at different parking issues, a new traffic pattern, policy for student pick up, color code and stripped parking areas to assist with traffic flow and crossing guards for safety. The Technology subcommittee discussed Chromebook handling, standard classroom technology, integration with technology and student led conferences. Mr. Smith added that Special Services Director, Ms. Allison Van Etten would be touring the building with staff from the School Health Based program to look at placement of the clinic in the building.

Communications and Recognitions

Mark Friese, Stonington High School Principal, recognized teacher Kaitlin Johnson, who received the 2018 Funds for Teachers Grant. She will be going to Costa Rica to become certified yoga instructor and her goal is to use this skill in her science classes and in other classrooms.

Tim Smith, Pawcatuck Middle School Principal, recognized the Fund for Teachers Grant award winners, Elaine Temel, Grade 5 teacher who will be going to Ireland and UK. Her field of study is using place as part of the writing process and will bring this back to the classroom. Diane Gallo, art teacher was awarded a Fulbright Award, will spend a week in San Francisco with teachers from Japan, and in July will be going to Japan to work with those teachers as part of an exchange program. Tim Flanagan is also a Fund for Teacher award winner, and as part of the Transatlantic Outreach Program, he will be taking a trip to Cuba to learn photography skills and come back and teach a photography class. Mr. Smith also mentioned that on May 3, Mr. Flanagan will be presenting his photographs taken during his journey to Southeast Asia at the Westerly Public Library at 6pm. Mr. Smith recognized both middle schools for receiving the Michaels Cup Award for Unified Sports and applauded teachers Duffy Grace and Emilie Cravinho for doing a great job with the unified sports program.

Jack Morehouse recognized those who were responsible for the Beatlemania event and added it was nice to see the community come together, it was a really nice time.

Dr. Van Riley recognized and thanked Mark Friese, Margo Crowley, and Neale Curland who went to the hospital with one of our students to visit their ill parent and present the student with her diploma, since we are unsure the parent will make it to the regular graduation. Dr. Riley thanked administration for doing this caring gesture.
