PYP Musical a Big Hit

Congratulations to the cast and crew of our PYP musical. Their production of Rainbird was a real treat, and I would like to express our community's appreciation for the effort and dedication that went into such a wonderful series of performances. Tackled just as the March break was fast approaching, the teaching team, of Mrs. Winterburn and Dr. Bespflug did a masterful job of orchestrating and directing the energy of our students in Kindergarten to Grade 4. A big thank you goes out to everyone – teachers, staff and parents alike – who supported our dynamic music team, and our excellent students. The success of the performances was a true team effort! You can watch the video of Rainbird here.

Math at Southridge – It's Not Just About the Numbers

A few weeks ago an article was published in the Globe and Mail titled, Why the War Over Math is Distracting and Futile. In it, the author divided the math camp war into two areas – basic skills versus conceptual understanding (or “drill for skill” and “drill and kill”). It was interesting to note that the furor over math education is receiving national attention.

The instigator that caused the math debate to surface with such strength relates to international standardized test results that saw Canadian students in Grade 9 fall out of the top ten – for the first time ever. Interestingly, our Canadian students did very well in the basic skills components of the math portion of the test but not so well on the higher level conceptual math. Most math experts agree that math education should include both skills practice and problem solving applications, but the debate heats-up when discussion turns to how much of each is needed.

In the end, the best mathematicians are not the ones who can successfully fill-in the blanks of a problem solving model their teachers show them how to use. The best mathematicians are the ones who can ask themselves questions like, “Does this makes sense?” and “Am I on the right track?” This is where our approach to teaching math at Southridge helps our students become good mathematical thinkers.

Of course, we pay close attention to skill development and our curriculum is well articulated and spiraled, which means that topics are revisited throughout a given grade and then again between grades as skills become gradually more sophisticated and challenging. In addition, our teachers also understand the importance of developing conceptual understanding, and they guide our students through an inquiry process that goes well-beyond rote application of formulas and problem solving methods. Students interact with one another, struggle through challenges and discuss multiple ways of solving problems.

In upcoming editions of the Southridge Wednesday, Mr. Seib, our Curriculum Leader for math in the Senior School, will be writing a series of articles pertaining to the myths of math. In this week's publication, Mr. Seib presents an orientation of what topics will be discussed.

Have a wonderful week!

Mr. Drew Stephens
Head of School

Has An Appreciation of and Desire For Life-long Physical Activity and Fitness...

I love spring at Southridge School - the fields are brimming and filled with activity. I watched from my window today as Tyrel, our grounds maintenance expert, carefully painted the lines on our Junior School field, ready for our track and field practices. At our first practice, we had almost 100 students, all keen to try the different events, and experience this unique sport. Certainly with numbers like that, you can appreciate that this sport utilizes many of our faculty as coaches. It is a significant time commitment, but we believe in providing these students with this unique opportunity, so it is well worth it. I watch the boys from our senior school, all in matching rugby attire, head out for long practices on both fields, and our Junior School boys working so hard each Wednesday and Friday as they prep for upcoming games. Rugby is a unique sport that provides a role for everyone - whether you are fast, strong, big, small, slower or steady - we can use everyone. Practicing and working hard together is a really unique part of school life at Southridge - it builds character, connections, and fosters the school spirit.

Today, our Grade 5, 6, and 7 girls' soccer practices commence and our fields will be brimming yet again. This year, girls' soccer was moved from the fall to the spring, so this is our first season with the girls on our spring fields. Soccer is another sport which can use many types of players, and in the Junior School, everyone makes the team. and is part of representing our school.

We believe so much in sport involvement and physical activity at Southridge - it is actually part of our mission statement - 'has an appreciation of, and a desire for life-long physical activity and fitness'. However, involvement in sport does more than just build an appreciation for sport - it creates connection to your peers, your coaches and your school, assists in building character, but most of all - it is fun. Enjoy it out there, and have a great week,

Mrs. Laurel Middelaer
Head of Junior School/
Deputy Head of School

The Grade 12s are coming to cheer on their buddies and everyone is invited to come and see our amazing transportation creations! Please be mindful that there will be no driving through the Commons Area at this time.

Welcome Back!

It was wonderful to see the school full of excited faces during Monday's late start – many tanned from the sun of exotic places or with the “raccoon eyes” of skiing! Lots of greetings and hugs and stories of time spent away and the adventures they brought. The new term also brings an excitement and ‘freshness’ for students to delve into the opportunities and challenges that are coming.

As I mentioned in the Southridge Wednesday just before the break, we had four different trips taking place over the holiday and they have all returned and were a huge success! I am excited to hear about the amazing experiences that the students and faculty were able to enjoy in these unique locales and the culture and connections that they brought. I have no doubt that for some of the participants these will be literally life-changing in their impact and rank as some off the most meaningful learning that they will take away from their Southridge careers. I am reminded of this fact each year as I have the privilege of reading each Grade 12 “graduation bio” as they make their way across the stage to receive their certificate. Most often, these trips and tours are included as very memorable and meaningful.

This doesn't just occur by chance as there is a great deal of effort, thought and dedication that is put into the planning of each trip and the care and commitment that the faculty dedicated to the success in chaperoning.

Our Italy Band Trip returned in the midst of the break and, having the opportunity to speak with the leaders and a few students already, the trip was fantastic! Many thanks to Mr. Steve Burrage, Ms. Jenna Parker, Mr. Chris Mitchell and Ms. Brenda Becker for chaperoning and planning of this successful venture!

As I write this, our three service trips have arrived home safe and sound and from the initial reports, as well as hearing about the trips as they were occurring, they were also a wonderful success. I do encourage you to seek out a participant of one of these trips and ask them about their experience. As you do this, watch their eyes closely. They will become energized and alive and you will literally “see” the impact that the experience has afforded them. The learning can be transformative. Again, many thanks to Mr. Daryl Weaver who leads these opportunities and participated on one of the Kenyan trips, along with Ms. Elma Lai. Our other Kenyan trip was led by Mr. Larry Geddert and Ms. Myrna Lew. Finally our Service Trip to Ecuador was led by Ms. Cecilia Rodriguez-Lang and Mr. Max Sterelyukhin. We acknowledge their efforts and commitment during their own break and valuable family time.

To begin the term, I asked the students to “Start Strong”! Term 3 is always a very busy one with so many events, year-end ceremonies and important assessments that include Advance Placement, Provincial and Southridge exams. It is also quite brief in terms of length with only April and May and then end of year exams, celebrations and events in June. So my advice of a strong, positive start will help set up success for the rest of the term.

I reminded them that starting strong meant arriving to school on time (early even!) and being on time for each period. A strong start translated into being prepared for class, whether that was ensuring they worked on an assignment, studied for an evaluation, collaborated with a peer or read a novel.

Finally, I asked them to start strong by ensuring they were kind to one another and treated each other with respect, empathy and compassion.

Finally, to our Grade 12 class I reminded them to “Finish Strong”! It is their final term in their Southridge career and I encouraged them to make the best of it. This year’s Grads have set such a fantastic example in the Senior School with their efforts, commitment, talent and character and I asked them to do it right until the very last day – not to let up on their efforts and success that got them to this point. It is a difficult task not to feel a bit like “coasting”, often with conditional acceptance to university and the feeling that things are set to go for next year. Personally, I think this group is really special (each class is in their own unique way). They have set the tone from their first day of the year and I am betting my money that they will continue to impress us all right up until Commencement in June.

Best wishes to each student, faculty, staff and parent for a successful and memorable final term of 2013-2014!

Head of the Senior School

An Evening of Jazz and Cuba Information Night

Please join us for An Evening of Jazz on Thursday, April 3rd at 7:00 p.m. in the Alan Brown Great Hall. The Grade 9, Grade 10 and Senior Jazz Bands will perform some of their festival repertoire from last term. In addition, we will spend a few minutes giving parents and students information about the proposed Cuba Jazz Tour for spring break 2015. Our jazz bands and vocal groups have travelled to Cuba four times in the past; each trip has been a wonderfully enriching and bonding, not to mention musically, invigorating adventure. Hasta luego todos,

El maestro Burrage

Authors’ Week from April 7th – 11th

We have a number of exciting events lined up for our annual Authors’ Week this year to showcase some local talent and to inspire our students as both readers and writers.

We have four local authors who will be running interactive workshops and making presentations in our English classes. Along with contests and opportunities for creative expression, Black Bond Books will once again be in the Senior Library for a book sale, and we will be having a student-led book swap to finish off our week. Here are the highlights of what to expect:

- Monday - Annakana Schofield: Ms. Schofield’s debut novel Malarky won the 37th Annual Amazon.ca first novel award in 2013. It has been nominated for the Ethel Wilson fiction prize and Ms. Schofield was included in CBC’s 2012 list of writers to watch. Originally from Dublin, Ireland, she is an author with a theater background who currently lives in Vancouver with her partner and son.
- Tuesday - Danika Dinsmore: Ms. Dinsmore is a spokenword artist and the author of the Faerie Tales from the White Forest series for middle grades as well as a featured author at Southridge in 2013 for Authors’ Week. She is returning to be our Writer in Residence this year, sharing her expertise on creative writing and speculative fiction.
- Tuesday - Black Bond Books Book Sale: Our local Black Bond Books will be in the Senior Library all day. Students can charge all purchases to their accounts.
- Wednesday – Caroline Adderson: Ms. Adderson is the author of three novels, two collections of short stories and multiple children’s books. Her work has received many prize nominations including the Scotiabank Giller Prize and the Governor General’s Literary Award. She is the winner of two Ethel Wilson Fiction Prizes and three CBC literary awards. Middle of Nowhere is her novel for middle grades, and her most recent novel for adults is The Sky is Falling.
- Wednesday and Thursday - Chris Humphreys: The author of eight historical novels and four young adult novels including the Runestone Saga, Mr. Humphrey’s new adult novel Shakespeare’s Rebel is about Shakespeare’s fight choreographer. Born in Toronto and raised in the UK, Chris is also an actor and playwright. He currently lives on Salt Spring Island with his wife and son.

- Friday: Book Swap in the Senior Library (running concurrently with the Junior School Book Swap) - students can bring in their gently used books starting on April 7th and we will be running the book swap on April 11th at lunch in the library. Students can exchange one for one, and all remaining books will be donated to the Country Fair.

We are looking forward to hosting this interactive week.

Ms. Yee
Senior School Teacher Librarian

Senior School Mathematics - Five Myths

Over the next six weeks I will present a series of articles intended to debunk “Five Myths” related to the teaching and learning of mathematics that are sometimes held by parents. Whenever I tell someone I meet that I am a mathematics teacher, the first thing they usually tell me is how much they loved or hated mathematics in high school, and/or how “good” or “bad” they were in the subject. Sadly, it is often the negative reply that I hear. This is due in large part to the bad experiences they had learning mathematics in school and/or to their lack of understanding of what it actually takes to be learn and be successful in the discipline.

I can tell you that mathematics teaching and learning has changed a lot in the past 30 years, and most of it for the better. Despite that, many people hold onto old ideas, practices, memories and myths in guiding their thinking, discussions and decision making about mathematics education for their children. Education is the key to understanding and moving forward in a better way, and so in the coming weeks, these “Five Mathematical Myths” will be addressed:

1. I’m Bad At Math
2. Southridge Mathematics is Overly Difficult
3. My Child Needs a Private Tutor to be Successful in Mathematics
4. Collaborative, Discussion Based Learning (Harkness approach) Doesn’t Work in Teaching/Learning Mathematics
5. Higher Level Mathematics Isn’t Important or Relevant in the Real World

As always, our teachers are dedicated to helping your child maximize his/her success and confidence in mathematics. Your feedback and questions are welcomed at any time at cseib@southridge.bc.ca as we continue to work together to provide the best mathematics education possible for our students.

Mr. Cameron Seib
Curriculum Leader for Mathematics

Summer Camp Volunteer Applications Now Open

Applications are open for those Senior School students who are looking for a volunteer opportunity this summer. Forms can be picked up at the Senior School reception desk. Priority is given to those who volunteer for two weeks or more and by the order the applications are handed in. We’ve got more camps this summer so we will need lots of volunteers.

Mrs. Debbie MacDougall
Summer Camp Director

US University Evening

Are you interested in how we prepare your child for the United States university application process? Step into their shoes for an evening and join us in the Senior School library, Tuesday, April 23rd at 7:00 p.m. We ask you to bring along your child’s laptop, as we will be simulating various steps along the way, including developing your profile, choosing from the many universities and program’s available, dealing with the Common App, and prepping for testing.

This evening is focused on parents of Grade 9, 10, and 11 students, but other parents are more than welcome to attend. Please RSVP Mr. Daryl Weaver at dweaver@southridge.bc.ca or 604-542-1796, so we are ready to get you set up to be a successful US university applicant!

News for Both Schools

Start Collecting for the Country Fair!

Now is the time to start setting aside your gently used toys, household items, clothes, furniture, etc. for our annual Country Fair! We advertise the Country Fair as a 450-family garage sale, so we need each family's support to keep the crowds coming year after year!

If you didn't notice the signs in front of the schools when you returned from spring break, our collection week starts on Saturday, April 26th! Plan to do some major housecleaning that weekend! We are accepting the following:

- Clothing: We welcome all men's, women's, children's, baby clothing and accessories that are clean and new or gently used. Please send in all clothing on hangers (the exception being casual pants, shorts and baby clothes). It really saves the volunteers hours of time if clothes come in on hangers. There will be a display with hangers to take home in the Junior School great hall very shortly!
- Books: Please set aside all types of children's, adult fiction and non-fiction books, as well as good quality magazines, comics, and music books.
- Loonie Bags: Please start collecting your gently used small toys, such as McDonald's toys, loot bag items, hockey cards, etc. These are all great items for our loonie bags.
- Dollar Store: Many of the smaller recycled treasures will be sold in bulk at the Dollar Store. Items such as stationary, small party supplies, seasonal items, small stuffies, etc. All would be great donations for the dollar store.
- Toys: We are looking for a wide variety of good quality toys, including Lego, Barbie, games, collectibles, outdoor toys, and even larger items like play kitchens. Please ensure the items are CLEAN and all small pieces are bagged together.
- Recycled Treasures: Now is your chance to recycle any used household items such as linens, small appliances, home décor items, sporting goods, hardware, arts and crafts supplies, seasonal decorations, baby items, and furniture.

Sorry, we will not accept the following:

- Anything that is broken or in need of repair
- Large appliances (fridges, freezers, stoves or microwaves)
- Old skis
- Window blinds
- Children's car seats (boosters and infant seats)
- Monitors and Televisions
- Helmets
- Mattresses

It costs the school to dispose of damaged and unsellable items, so please be considerate when you drop off your donations. Thank you.

Country Fair Lawn Signs

Beginning Thursday, April 3rd the lawn signs for Country Fair will be available for pick-up in front of both the Junior and Senior Schools. This is an excellent advertising opportunity for the Country Fair, so please be sure to take one sign per family and display it in a visible location on your home property from now until May 3rd. Also, we ask that all families return their sign the week after the Fair so that they can be reused next year.

PLEASE NOTE - The City of Surrey has informed us that they will be strictly enforcing the ruling for signage displayed on public property, so please DO NOT put signs on any boulevards, parks or other public areas, as this could put our event license in jeopardy.

We are looking forward to another great fair this year - thank you for all your support!

Country Fair Committee

Country Fair Volunteering

Get out your calendars and look at the week of April 25th to May 4th! Country Fair is here again and it is time to sign up to lend a hand. ### Flower Sales

The grad committee has taken over the flower sales for the first time this year! We are excited to be given this opportunity to raise funds for our dinner/dance and offer some beautiful flower options to our school community. All orders are due on April 18th and our pick up dates are May 8th and May 9th (just in time for Mother's Day!). # Avocado

Holy Guacamole!

The avocado is one of the most nutrient packed foods with an impressive list of nourishing contents. This buttery, green fruit is loaded with vitamins, minerals, fibre and antioxidants, as well as large dose of healthy monounsaturated fat. Enjoy different varieties of avocados in your cuisine all year round!

Mushrooms

The Ultimate Fun-Guy

Mushrooms have been celebrated as a powerful source of health promoting nutrients for thousands of years. Mushrooms are often classified as a vegetable or an herb, but they are actually fungi and contain many of the same beneficial nutrients typically found in vegetables. Mushrooms can bring a low calorie, low fat "meaty" flavour and texture to a variety of dishes.
