We Are All One Gala

What a fun night at Southridge! On behalf of the entire Southridge community, I would like to thank everyone who attended our annual gala this year. A special warm thank you goes out to our gala committee, Jackie Christofferson, Shelley Carse, Stephanie Schmidt, Megan Hunter, Y.Y. Skleryk, Kimi Schellenberg-Cavaleri, Heidi Luking, Shaida Nanji and Angela Clarke for all of their individual and collective talents, their hard work and their dedication to the creation of this wonderful event.

A number of years ago when we were engaged in our branding research, we developed our “we are all one” tag line. Along with it, four key “one” statements and associated questions helped reflect the focus points of our community, what we used to call our pillars.

- One idea can influence the world, what do you have in mind? (Academics)
- One voice can connect a community, what will your voice share? (Arts)
- One spirit can inspire others, who will you inspire? (Athletics)
- One act can change lives, what will we contribute to the world? (Service)

The proceeds from our gala evenings over the past two decades have provided our teachers and students with valuable equipment, outstanding learning resources and wonderful educational opportunities to help inspire ideas, develop voices, elevate spirits and encourage action. Together, these have helped enable us to provide an excellent education for our current students as well as the many alumni who have graduated from Southridge. Contribution is at the heart of what we inherit and what we pass on. Your stewardship in helping to create a school environment that is beneficial for the students who are here now and for those who are still to come is greatly appreciated.

Whether you came to the We Are All One Gala as a parent, a teacher or a special guest, I would like to thank you for supporting the Southridge community. I would also like to thank all of those businesses and individuals who supported the gala through their generous donations and sponsorships. Finally, all of the members of the Gala Committee deserve a special acknowledgement for their dedication. Well done Southridge!

Learning Under Construction...

This week as I walked through classrooms I noticed how much hands on learning is taking place - students were literally constructing meaning to make sense of their inquiries and new understandings.

In Grade 1, communities literally sprung up out of the floor as students applied their understanding of what a community needs as they planned, constructed and engineered the places and spaces their communities would need. In Grade 3 students were in the planning phases of a helpful invention, using the design cycle to ensure that their invention was both innovative and purposeful. In Grade 4, students were using recycled materials to build prototypes as they applied their understanding of renewable energy, and in their art classes students were also playing with found materials as they engaged in preliminary sculpture work. In Grade 6, students explored materials and fibres by examining them through digital microscopes.

These are just some snapshots of what learning looked like over the last week. As I observed students engaging in their learning it was highly evident that they were enjoying themselves as they were challenged to construct meaning in new and novel ways. In each example I've described, a common element is the notion that learning can and should be playful. When meaning is constructed through hands on, playful learning we invite and provoke students to be curious with their ideas and thinking, and we empower them to be able to communicate about the process of learning.

In each classroom that I visited, the students couldn't help but want to show me and tell me about their ideas, decisions, processes, challenges and successes. A learning environment that invites playfulness and inquiry provides the fertile ground for problem solving, innovation, and creativity to grow, while also placing students at the center of constructing their own meaning as they build the skills needed to make sense of their world.

Temperatures are changing...

The weather is becoming more consistently chilly as December approaches. Please ensure that your child is coming to school wearing appropriate outerwear. Students should have a coat that will keep them warm and dry as they engage in outdoor play.

Upcoming Christmas Concerts – Save the Date!

While December is not yet upon us, we are mindful of what a busy month it can be for families. As such, we would like to share the dates of our Junior School Christmas concerts so that you can plan to attend one of them:

- Matinee performance - Tuesday, December 13th at 1:30 pm
- Evening performance - Wednesday, December 14th at 6:30 pm.

We look forward to celebrating the festive season with you!

Dismissal for Christmas Holidays and Return for Monday, January 9th - Late Start

On Friday, December 16, 2016, all students will be dismissed at 12:00 noon. At this time, all students will also receive their Term One Report Card. Christmas break is three weeks long with a return to school date of Monday, January 9, 2017 (Day 3). Please mark your calendars accordingly. Please also note that Monday, January 9, 2017 is also a late start day, and students need to arrive between 10:10 and 10:20 for a start time of 10:25 a.m. Please do not bring students any earlier than 10:10 a.m. as all teachers are in meetings and no supervision is provided.

AR Reading Cut Off Date – Friday, November 25 – Grade 3-7

Just a reminder to all students from Grades Three to Seven that the last day for writing AR tests for term one is on Friday, November 25th. All tests completed from Monday, November 28th will count for Term 2. It is helpful to know that this deadline is looming in order to avoid a last minute rush on test-writing. Ideally, students set realistic goals in consultation with their teachers, and the AR goal is manageable and attainable; we are just supporting good reading habits. However, we are mindful that lives get busy, and knowledge of deadlines is very helpful.

After School Library Use – Supervision Required

I am thrilled that we have such a great community of readers and that the Library is such a busy place after school. Students can come by to find and return books, take AR quizzes and read, but I would like to remind all families that students using the Junior Library must be accompanied by a parent or guardian as the library is considered an unsupervised area after school. Although I am often present, I am also in and out of the Library throughout the afternoon – preparing lessons, in meetings, or talking to teachers – and therefore cannot be a designated supervisor for your child. Any Junior School students waiting for siblings or parents after school must be in the Great Hall where there will always be supervision in the front reception area.

Annual Christmas Hampers

As the holiday season approaches we empathize with those less fortunate than we are and help them to enjoy a more comfortable time. Through a local organization, OPTIONS, we have been linked to many needy people in the Surrey area. To start, this Casual Day on Friday, November 25th, we will support mentally-challenged single clients from Options, who, because of their single status, are not eligible for Christmas Bureau or other sponsoring opportunities. Please send $5 with your child this Friday for this part of the overall project.

As well, we are sponsoring sixteen refugee families. Each class, from Kindergarten to Grade 7, will adopt one family and fill a hamper with gifts and non-perishable supplies. Please look for detailed information from your child's teacher or class parent about the sponsored family. If you have any strong boxes that may be useful, please offer them to your child's teacher(s) or me, as we always seem to need more. The Hampers will then be picked up and delivered by the case workers during the week before the break. Thank you so much for your generosity and support. Giving to others is a rewarding and important experience for children, as they learn to be caring and respectful community members.

What do you need to do as a parent?

1. Sign up on the list outside of your child's classroom to bring food or to help with set up and clean up

Late Arrival to School

As a school administrator, one of my primary mandates is to ensure that your son or daughter has a safe experience while at school. One way we do that is to take attendance in an advisory block between 8:00 am and 8:08 am each day. If students miss advisory, or arrive late, they will likely be marked absent. Every day, Kristy MacKinnon, our Senior School receptionist, spends a good part of her morning looking for students who are unaccounted for. An email goes out that says something like, "looking for the following students..." Teachers are busy teaching their classes and often do not see Kristy's email, so Kristy has to get up from her desk and physically go looking for students who have been marked absent, but for whom we have not received any indication from home that the student would be away. This is a daily occurrence for Ms. MacKinnon that keeps her from doing the myriad other things she has to do in a day.

How can you help? When your son or daughter is going to be away, please phone the school or email attendance@southernridge.bc.ca with details on the absence.

Many students arrive late to school and there are many reasons for this, including: they slept in, traffic was bad, it took 10 minutes to get from the front gates of the school to the Senior School drop-off area (consider having them get out of the car closer to the gates and walk!), and many other excuses. In fact, Monday morning this week, 44 students arrived late to school! This is simply way too many. When students arrive to class late it disrupts the activities happening in class and negatively impacts learning. Please consider leaving home a few minutes earlier, but when arriving late to school is unavoidable, and students arrive after 8:05, please ensure that your son or daughter signs in at the front desk. This will help Ms. MacKinnon immensely and allow her to get to the other very important tasks that she is responsible for throughout the day.

Thank you to all the parents who make a point of informing the school of absences, and who strive to get their kids here on time!

Student Marks and reporting them to Post Secondary Institutions.

Grade 12 can be an anxious time for both students and their parents. Ms. Livingston, Ms. Becker and I have been talking to our grade 12 students to advise them of the best procedure for ensuring that their marks are reported in an accurate and timely manner.

The criteria and deadlines for applying to different institutions and programs have become much more varied and complex, as institutions vie for the very best students, and we need to help our students advocate for themselves in an appropriate manner. To this end I have clarified what is, and is not, appropriate in discussing marks with their teachers. Students should not approach teachers directly for additional marks, or ask for extra assignments to generate better marks. They can, and should, ask for help in developing their skills and understanding, attend additional tutorials, work with a peer tutor – all of which may lead to the desired improvement in performance.

I have advised students that if they need to advocate for an increased mark – they are just shy of an average for a competitive program or a major scholarship for example - then the correct pathway would be to go directly to Ms. Becker or Ms. Livingston. Similarly, we would ask that parents follow the same procedure and approach the University Counsellors with any specific requests. Together Ms. Becker, Ms. Livingston and I would discuss the legitimacy of the request and approach the teachers concerned. Please be assured that, though we must maintain our integrity as an academic institution, we will always work for the optimum benefit of our students.

Cinderella Project is looking for volunteers!

Every year the Cinderella Project helps to collect used formal wear for both male and female grade 12 students in the lower mainland who are unable to purchase their own outfits for their graduation celebrations. This is a grade 12 project, but we always have a couple of grade 11 students learning about the project and the fundraising initiatives so that they can lead it in their grade 12 year.

This year we are also looking for a new parent volunteer to help with this project in the future as our current parent has helped with this project for many years; ideally, the parent would assist this year and lead next year. If you are interested in helping with this project,

Senior School Christmas Concerts, 7pm, December 6th and 7th

It is hard to believe that the Senior School Christmas Concerts are right around the corner! The students are busy preparing music to perform and AUWH!, the small ensemble audition evening, is set for November 17th. We have made a few adjustments to the Christmas Concerts for this year, most notably that the Grade 8 Concert and Jazz Bands will perform the first night and the Grade 9 Concert and Jazz Bands plus the Grade 9 Jazz Support the Grads of 2017 Studies class will perform on the second evening.

The senior ensembles, including the choirs, will perform on both nights. In order for each group to give their best performance, we need all of our musicians in attendance. Please mark your calendars and make the necessary arrangements for your child to participate in the show. We would also love for families to join us in the audience to celebrate the sounds of these developing musicians.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Parker at jparker@southridge.bc.ca.

The Making of Southridge School's New Video

I love storytelling. Sharing the Southridge story with the world is truly the best part of my job, and I'm always striving to find compelling ways to tell it. There's no question that video is a powerful tool, so I was excited when, earlier this Fall, with the help of some colleagues and collaborators, I had the opportunity to develop a fresh, new promotional video for our school.

Working with local production company, Capitol Media House, we set out to create a light-hearted and inspiring video that authentically captured the Southridge experience and shared who we are as a community. The approach we took was to showcase our students – their talents, their passions, their hopes and their dreams. Our goal was to tell the story of Southridge through their eyes – to see and hear about what they're learning, why they feel inspired by their teachers and peers, what they hope to accomplish in their lives, and how they hope to make a difference.

To achieve this, we decided to take a somewhat "risky" approach. Rather than writing a script and providing our students with details about what we wanted them to say, which would have ensured a predictable outcome, we decided we preferred raw, truthful, candid responses. We would work with whatever we got! So, we developed a list of questions, which were not provided to students in advance of filming. The responses you see from our students in the video are honest, in-the-moment, and from the heart.

Additionally, we gave our faculty very little notice for filming and did not set out a plan for which activities would be recorded across the school or in the classrooms. The broad diversity of footage you see is what we captured over a two-day period – this is just “two days at Southridge” – and it’s pretty awesome! Amazing things happen here everyday.

I am incredibly grateful to everyone who supported this project – teachers who opened their classrooms, students who took time out of their busy schedules to be interviewed, families who allowed their kids to be featured in this way, and our incredible our film crew who truly captured that “special something” about Southridge – you really helped bring our vision to life!

Please enjoy the video and help us to ensure it’s seen within our community and beyond, by SHARING it on Facebook or RETWEETING it on Twitter. You can also visit us on YouTube to view, share, or subscribe.
