

African American History

Length: Semester

Credits: 0.5

Lincoln Empowered™ African American History is a survey course that spans the history of America, including ancient African society and culture through the presidency of Barack Obama. Students examine the African American struggle to secure their constitutional rights. This course explores the powerful and influential role of African Americans in U.S. history.

- Triangle Trade
- Significant Figures
- Effects of the Great Depression
- Important Amendments
- Jim Crow Laws
- Noteworthy Court Cases