SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT Dr. Washer reported on the success Live Oak School's Math Night, which was conducted in English and Spanish and was well attended.

She reported that the Stockton and Lodi Police Departments spoke to administrators at the January Leadership Team Meeting. Administrators were given direction on active shooter scenarios. The law enforcement officials will review our policies, procedures and drills to assure that we are conducting best practices in the event of an emergency. Dr. Washer reported on LUSD's collaboration with the Lodi Chamber of Commerce's Partners In Education (PIE) Committee. The purpose of the joint committee is to help businesses become involved in the schools. The most recent collaboration is the Career Expo that is starting this week at Lodi Middle and Millswood Schools. Each week of the four-week program will focus on a different career direction, including building trades, health careers, law enforcement and automotive industries. Activities will include publication of a Job Journal, showcasing career information for each career, bulletin boards and live presentations from each participating group. Dr. Washer added that if all goes well, the District expects the program to expand next year. She reported that there will be a meeting with representatives from Illuminate later during the week. Staff is planning an in-depth review of our technology system regarding both short and long term solutions as to how we can best use our limited resources.

COMMUNICA-TIONS
Comments from Student Reps.

Student representatives' Ms. Crystal Nguyentan, Bear Creek High School and Ms. Ella Phlai, McNair High School, reported on activities and events at their respective schools.

Comments
from Board Members

Mr. Nava announced that he would like the 8th grade program strengthened for articulation with the comprehensive high schools. He commented on the addition of the five instructional days to the school calendar.

Mrs. Davis attended Lakewood School's Muffins for Moms function. She wanted to thank all the staff at Lakewood for making the event a great success.

Mr. Freitas thanked those in attendance at the meeting. He reflected on a recent conference he attended with area board members. He commented that although at times Board Members vote differently on issues, they all have the best interests of the students - that of all students getting the best education possible. He congratulated Mr. Hern on a successful Lodi News-Sentinel article and congratulated Mr. Nava on the Coach Nava Invitational at Staff High School.

Mrs. Cassel spoke of her attendance at the Martin Luther King celebration and of her visit to Live Oak School for their Math Night. She commented that she enjoyed reading Mr. Hern's Fiscal Focus.

Mr. Womack stated he appreciated the teachers and staff that were at the Board Meeting last week. His week's activities included attending the McNair/Bear Creek safety meeting, attending the San Joaquin School Boards meeting, the new board president training in Sacramento, representing the District at a Lodi Police Department program, visiting Independence School, Math Night and visiting the 6th grade at Wagner Holt School, where he read to the students about Air Force One. He also attended the GOT Kids Foundation meeting.

Mr. Neely announced that he was glad to hear that technology issues are being worked on. He wanted to make it clear that the state did not restore the five instructional days to school. Mr. Neely asked Mr. McKilligan to provide him with a report on the teacher transfer process.

Comments from the Superintendent Dr. Washer assured Mr. Neely that his comments have not gone unnoticed. She noted the visit to Liberty High School and was excited that they had resurrected a course entitled, English Through Film. She noted that staff is being very creative.

Comments from the Public Mrs. Susan Heberle thanked the Board for restoring school days back to the instructional calendar to benefit our students.

Ms. Catherine Campbell, Teacher, Independence School, asked the Board to look in to the number of teachers that are scheduled to be eliminated from Independence School next year.

Ms. Kristine Leach, Teacher, Independence School, asked the Board to address Independence School staff being cut by an estimated 26 percent.

Ms. Nana Roschede, a former student of Independence School, related to the Board that due to previous attendance at Independence, she can now graduate ahead of her classmates at Staff High School.

Ms. Alexandra Robinson, student at Independence School, spoke regarding her academic success at Independence School.

Ms. Joyce (no last name given), student at Independence School, spoke regarding her academic success at Independence School.

Ms. Roshiima Airie, parent, spoke of the success her son has had by attending Independence School.

Comments from Employee Group Reps. Mr. Jeff Johnston, President, Lodi Education Association (LEA), thanked Board and staff for reinstating the five instruction days to the calendar and urged Board and staff to consider restoring non-instructional days also. Mr. Johnston announced that LEA has allocated funds to send 52 teachers to a conference to enhance their teaching skills. He also acknowledged the Personnel Department for their diligence in their careful monitoring of back-fill positions, which will help during the transfer season. Mr. Johnston closed by urging Board to consider resuming routine and deferred maintenance at the school sites.

Mr. John Hunt, Representative, Lodi Pupil Personnel Association (LPPA), asked that the District remember LPPA when restoring days to employee groups.

REPORTS
Measure K Bond
Oversight
Committee

Mr. Gary Reiff, Chairperson for the Measure K Bond Oversight Committee, presented the annual report, covering the period of July 1, 2011, through June 30, 2011. Mr. Reiff reported that the work of the committee has come to conclusion. He stated that the District and Board should be commended on the amount of projects that were completed. Mr. Reiff thanked the committee members for their service.

Several members of the Board thanked Mr. Reiff and the work that he and the Measure K Bond Oversight Committee completed.

Aspire Public Schools
