

Lower School Third Grade Associate Substitute

Pace Academy, one of Atlanta's top Independent Schools, seeks a highly energetic and excellent teacher as a Third Grade Associate long-term substitute teacher beginning December 2018 through March 2019. Joining one of Atlanta's finest Lower School faculties, the teacher will become part of educating the whole child. The teacher must demonstrate enjoyment in working with lower elementary age students.

Responsibilities:

Assists in teaching the core curricula subjects

Follows course objectives and outline for course of study in conjunction with other Lower School Faculty, following curriculum as set by the current teacher.

Participates in faculty and professional meetings

Will attend parent meetings and assist with school sponsored trips.

May perform supervisory duties, which include early morning duty and/or instruction in a specific learning area.

Requirements:

Bachelor's degree required.

1-2 years experience teaching children ages 7-9 strongly preferred.

Private school experience preferred.

Applicants can learn more about the Lower School at <http://www.paceacademy.org/academics/lower-school>

Qualified applicants should email a resume, cover letter, educational philosophy, and references to Jobs@PaceAcademy.org.

Equal Employment Opportunity Employer