

Brockton Talent Search Paving the Path to College & Career

Personal Branding & LinkedIn Workshop with Amanda Healy at UMass Boston, April, 2018

About Talent Search

Talent Search is a federally funded TRIO program that has helped millions of young people across the United States achieve their educational and career goals. The Brockton Talent Search Program offers many services.

ASA's College Planning Centers in Brockton and Boston provide educational advice, assistance with admission and financial aid applications, and scholarship searches.

All services are free of charge.

Who May Participate?

Students attending Brockton High School.

How to apply:

Fill out a Talent Search Application and meet with an Educational Advisor.

- Due to federal guidelines, household income and parental information section is required.
- The completed application also requires the student's social security number (and alien registration number if applicable), and parental signatures.

Can Parents Get Involved?

Yes! We encourage parents to get involved and we invite them to attend Talent Search activities. Special parent and family events are scheduled each school year. To learn more, please see the contact information on the back of this brochure.

"OH MY GOSH! Thank you so so so much Talent Search! You guys have continuously helped me this year and it means the world to me! Thanks again for allowing me to go to college for FREE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"
