

DAVIS SCHOOL DISTRICTACADEMIC GOAL*I. Curriculum Area

Communication

II. Courses

CE Communication 2110, 714

III. Goal Summary Statement

CE Communication 2110 students will demonstrate knowledge about interpersonal and small group communication through four scheduled assessments.

IV. Full Goal Description

Becoming a well-educated person requires growing, evolving, enriching and refining oneself as a human being and contributing to a better world. Becoming well-educated involves learning to interact with the world around us as well as preparing for a career.

V. Connection to DESK Standards

Students will

- Address critical thinking, cognitive learning, and problem solving, both individually and in groups.
- Develop knowledge and understanding of key themes and principles, key terminology, and the history, underlying theory and applicable ethical standards in the Communication discipline.
- Improve ability to recognize and appreciate diverse thought and traditions, and forge relationships with other disciplines and breadth areas.

VI. Assessment Tool/Rubric/Evidence

Scheduled exams, as prepared by WSU faculty