

The METROWEST DAILY NEWS

Schools: Keefe Tech earns share of CAL Small title.

Jun 1, 2018 at 11:16 PM

Jun 1, 2018 at 11:16 PM

Damian Robledo drove in four runs on two hits as Keefe Tech defeated Monty Tech 7-6 to win a share of the Colonial Athletic League Small baseball title.

Senior Damian Robledo struck out three in 5 2/3 innings and drove in four runs on two hits as Keefe Tech (8-12, 6-2 CAL Small) defeated Monty Tech 7-6 in a Colonial Athletic League Small baseball matchup on Friday.

The win ties the Broncos for the first place in the CAL Small.

Junior infielder Andy Santos rapped a single and a double and knocked in two runs in the win.

Softball

WEST BRIDGEWATER 9, TRI-COUNTY 2: Senior captain Trinity Ragusa went 1-for-3 and drove in a run but Tri-County softball (8-10) lost in the final game of its season to non-league opponent West Bridgewater.

Sophomore shortstop Kendra Whelan went 2-for-3 with a run and sophomore designated hitter Averil Ayre went 2-for-3 in the loss.

"We're a young squad and we lost a couple of games this year that we should have won," said Tri-County coach Stephanie Caffery. "But those were good learning experiences for next year."

Sports

Schools: Keefe Tech earns share of CAL Small title.

Posted Jun 1, 2018 at 11:16 PM

Updated Jun 1, 2018 at 11:16 PM

Damian Robledo drove in four runs on two hits as Keefe Tech defeated Monty Tech 7-6 to win a share of the Colonial Athletic League Small baseball title.

Senior Damian Robledo struck out three in 5 2/3 innings and drove in four runs on two hits as Keefe Tech (8-12, 6-2 CAL Small) defeated Monty Tech 7-6 in a Colonial Athletic League Small baseball matchup on Friday.

The win ties the Broncos for the first place in the CAL Small.

Junior infielder Andy Santos rapped a single and a double and knocked in two runs in the win.

Softball

WEST BRIDGEWATER 9, TRI-COUNTY 2: Senior captain Trinity Ragusa went 1-for-3 and drove in a run but Tri-County softball (8-10) lost in the final game of its season to non-league opponent West Bridgewater.

Sophomore shortstop Kendra Whelan went 2-for-3 with a run and sophomore designated hitter Averi Ayre went 2-for-3 in the loss.

"We're a young squad and we lost a couple of games this year that we should have won," said Tri-County coach Stephanie Caffery. "But those were good learning experiences for next year."