SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

Despite being plagued by injuries, the JV Soccer team moves to 11-2-1 after taking down the Bulldogs of FZS 3-2. Goals came from Drew Meyers (Brennon Schulz), Justin Grabenhorst (Drew Harper), and Henry Staebell (Kevin Kortkamp). Congrats on another great win, boys!

Girls' varsity volleyball took a huge win last night from Borgia. This win has us tied for first in the AAA. These girls fought hard through three sets and 2 hours of play. Great match ladies!

The freshman boys' soccer team defeated FZS last night by the score of 3-1. Down 1-0 with 12 minutes to play, the boys rallied with 3 goals for the victory. Josh Prost scored two and Grant Merritt added the third. Congrats fellas!

The Softball Crusaders beat Warrenton in nail-biter fashion 3-2 yesterday evening. In the 1st Tori Forbeck got a hit moved to second on a Nat Schellert hit, stole third and scored on a Baylee Schneider sac fly. Warrenton tied it in the 2nd and it stayed that way until the 5th. Darby Duncan led off the inning with a double down the left field line. Cati Welby laid down a perfect bunt and Darby never stopped, scoring from 2nd on Cati's bunt and giving the Crusaders a 2-1 lead. But in the top of the 6th, Warrenton tied it back up 2-2. Neely Edwards led off the bottom of the 6th with a hit and then Carly Bloomfield delivered a monstrous hit to center that on a warmer day would have left the ball park but her double was enough to score Neely from first and put the Crusaders back in the lead 3-2. This time they got Warrenton 1,2,3 in the top of the 7th to send SDHS to the District Championship. Our pitchers were also great as Carly started, going 5 1/3 and Morgan Luetkenhaus came on in relief to get the last five outs and the win. The District Championship is at 1 on Saturday against Hannibal in Hannibal. If your up for a nice fall drive, the Crusaders would love the support!!
