6	Class Ranking	Mary Banaszak, Director of Guidance spoke about the trend of high schools nationwide not to use academic ranking. After attending a conference of highly selective college admissions counselors, Mary sent out an email survey to 27 college/universities to obtain feedback on their policies/procedures in relation to the use of class ranking. To date, every responding school said that rank is not a key determining factor. Instead they analyze the complete student including the rigor of the coursework taken in high school. The committee discussed what would be necessary to change current policy.

7	District Social-Emotional Goals	Yvonne O'Shea shared with the group the experience of "The Human Library" that faculty/staff participated in on October 6 th . She asked the group for input in adapting the program for high school schools and how to find appropriate age-level speakers. Building Council also discussed ideas on an appropriate social event for only 10 th graders.
