

Robert Canuto Rodríguez

EDUCATION

| | | | |
|--------|---------------------------|--|------|
| M.S. | Counseling | Texas A & M – Commerce | 2008 |
| M.P.A. | Public Administration | New York University | 1999 |
| M.A. | Latin American Studies | Vanderbilt University | 1994 |
| B.A. | Spanish/Political Science | University of Missouri-Columbia | 1992 |

PROFESSIONAL (SALARIED) EXPERIENCE

- 8/14-Now: Spanish and Government Teacher: North Garland HS. I teach a plethora of on level and dual credit/AP courses.
- 8/12-8/14: Department Chair, Spanish Teacher, LOTE Coordinator: Crandall ISD. I taught Spanish Pre-AP, Spanish AP, served as Department Chair and as unofficial translator.
- 8/02-8/12: Guidance Counselor: Dallas ISD (DISD). I was responsible for guidance, counseling, testing, parent education, special projects and data analysis.
- 8/98-8/02: Spanish Teacher, Naaman Forest High School (Garland Independent School District). I taught Spanish I & II to all high school grades.
- 7/97-7/98: Director of Research: Garland Economic Development Partnership (GEDP). I assisted with GEDP's business attraction and retention efforts. I was responsible for providing strategic information on taxes, demographics, real estate, local government issues, marketing materials, newsletters, and presentations.
- 8/96-7/97: Civics Teacher: New York City Public Schools. I taught government, economics, and Spanish courses to inner-city children in Brooklyn, New York. Also worked with after school programs, curriculum development, and testing.
- 8/94-10/95: Homeownership Director: Neighbors Helping Neighbors (NHN). Coordinated the homeownership program with the New York Mortgage Coalition, the City of New York, FannieMae, and area banks.

ADJUNCT COLLEGE TEACHING

- 7/15-Now: Adjunct Professor of Government, Richland College (DCCCD). I offer courses on the Federal Government as well as Texas State Government.
- 6/98-8/00: Adjunct Professor of Economics Trinity Valley Community College
I taught courses on Macroeconomics and Microeconomics.

HONORS

Harry S. Truman Scholar, NYU Dean's Fellow, Department of Education Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellow (FLAS), Department of State Fellow