

RABUN COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION SEEKS NEW SUPERINTENDENT

The Rabun County Board of Education, Clayton, Georgia, is seeking a new superintendent. The system enrollment is approximately 2,200 students (K-12) with four schools. The Board seeks a visionary and innovative leader who has a broad base of experience in all areas of school and system operation.

King-Cooper and Associates will assist the Board of Education with the search for the new superintendent. Interested applicants should contact Dr. Sandy Addis (864-934-8572), Frank King (706-647-0686), or Henry L. Cooper (478-397-1976), or visit www.kingcooper.com.

For an application package to be considered, it must include the following documents:

- Formal letter of application
- A copy of a current resume
- A copy of the Georgia leadership certificate (Georgia candidates only)
- A list of four references to include names, addresses, and two telephone numbers (office and home or cell).

Completed application packages for this position must be emailed to sandyaddis@gmail.com by the close of the business day, Monday, December 31, 2018.
