One Week left!!

Reflections Contest

"Heroes Around Me"

Grab your cape and goggles and be on the lookout for the "heroes around you!" How can you creatively portray the hero or heroes around you in a drawing, painting, sketch, 3D art, picture you take, music composition, poem, play, short story, or other piece of literature?

Entries are due on or before Monday, October 22, at 9:00 AM.

We cannot accept any late entries because judging will occur that morning, so please make sure they're all ready to go! It would be even better to get your entries in next week so you don't have to worry about it over Fall Break! Just bring them to the office where there will be a drop box. Be sure to check out the Utah PTA Reflections website here for a list of rules for each category, the consent form (needed if you have other visible people in your art project), and the entry form (if you don't have the one that went home a few weeks ago). Remember the parent and the student need to sign the entry form!

Please make sure to have your students write a thoughtful artist statement, as this will account for half of their score! Their statement should be between 10-100 words, and explain how their project reflects the theme "Heroes Around Me" and their interpretation of it. We hope your children have a fun time expressing their creativity and creating a work of art that celebrates the heroes around them! All participants will be recognized and receive prizes at our Awards Night on Monday, November 12. We will announce that night up to 6 winners in each category who will move on to the Council level, so we hope you'll plan to attend.
