Parent Alerts for Low Grades

At this time, parents are already receiving alerts via email or a phone call for student attendance (daily) and lunch balances (Fridays) through our auto alert system. Starting this week, parents will be also receiving Low Grade Alerts, as needed. If your child's average in any class falls into the failing range or becomes an F, you will receive an email to notify you of this (Wednesdays). This should allow you to have a conversation with your student. Students may have opportunities for retakes to improve scores so have a conversation and expect them to share the info. If needed, contact the teacher for support.

Getting Grading Right

Have you noticed a drop in your student's academic grades for assessments? Teachers are adjusting grading practices to be more in line with state assessment cut scores. Students have opportunities for retakes and are adjusting to this adjusted grading scale. We know these adjustments will provide more accurate information to our learners. Support your students in adjusting by ramping up study time at home!
