RECOGNITION

FCCLA National Winners

York Community High School was represented by graduate Kevin Homan and Joseph Cornell, now a senior, at the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) national leadership conference, held June 28-July 2 in Atlanta, Georgia. Kevin and Joseph were among the 4,500 STAR Event competitors who competed in 30 different Family and Consumer Sciences related competitive events.

Joseph earned a silver medal in the Culinary Arts competition, and Kevin earned a gold medal in the Say Yes to FCS Education competition.

York Family and Consumer Sciences Department teachers include Wendy Albert (Division Chair for Career and Technical Education), Laurie Foss, Lindsey Goldsmith, Sarah Marik, Rachael Marten and Ashley McDonough.

SkillsUSA Finalists

Ken Ross, York Industrial Technology Department Leader, announced that Joseph Gemini represented York High School as a SkillsUSA National Finalist, placing second in Technical Drafting/CAD at the Skills conference held June 25-29th in Louisville, Kentucky. This followed his first-place medal at the state competition earlier this spring.

Under the leadership of Wendy Albert, Division Chair for Technology & Applied Arts, faculty of the Industrial Technology Department also include Dan Calenberg, Ron Robak and Joe Stolz.

Statement from the Board

Following public comment, Board President Kara Caforio read a statement on behalf of the Board, delaying the scheduled vote on the resolution for a November referendum. The vote has been rescheduled as a Special Board Meeting on Monday, Aug. 20, 2018. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public.
