

What you can expect from the coaching staff:

To be a role model of values and character for each young man in the program

To have a great work ethic

To have a burning desire to increase our knowledge of the game

To instill discipline within the program

We understand that everyone is different so therefore everyone will not be treated the same but however everyone will be treated fairly

To be very organized

To push each player to be the best he can be

To be available and approachable

To show sportsmanship

To be totally honest

To provide the leadership and training necessary to achieve our goals

To assist each player in any way possible now and after graduation

To make all the decisions predicated on what is best for the team and then what is best for the individual

To do everything we can to improve our facility. To make our field a great place to practice and play a baseball game.

To help each player reach his goals
