When you teach kids, you have a moral obligation to work to see the best in them. The kids will see themselves by what is reflected in your eyes.

- Chris Lehmann

Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself.

- John Dewey

If we teach today's students as we taught yesterday's, we rob them of tomorrow.

- John Dewey

Teachers affect eternity; no one can tell where their influence stops.

– Henry Brooke Adams

It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge.

- Albert Einstein

Students don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.

- Anonymous

*The mediocre teacher tells.
The good teacher explains.
The superior teacher demonstrates.
The great teacher inspires.*

-William A. Ward

The best teachers are those who show you where to look, but don't tell you what to see.

- Alexandra K. Trenfor

If a child can't learn the way we teach, maybe we should teach the way they learn.

- Ignacio 'Nacho' Estrada

As a general rule, teachers teach more by what they are than by what they say.

- Unknown

Some men see things as they are and say why? I dream things that never were and say 'Why not?'

- Robert F. Kennedy

The life and work of the school should contribute, in every possible way, to the physical, mental and emotional health of every student.

- Wilford Aikin

*“Sticks and stones may break my bones
But words could never hurt me.”
And this I knew was surely true
And truth could not desert me.*

*But now I know it is not so.
I’ve changed the latter part;
For sticks and stones may break the bones
But words can break the heart.*

*Sticks and stones may break the bones
But leave the spirit whole,
But simple words can break the heart
Or silence crush the soul.*

- Herb Warren
