

What could you do if someone joined your game without asking and now the teams are uneven?

During lunch, kids make fun of what you're eating. What could you do to solve this?

What would you do if all your friends were playing a game, and you were getting tired of it, but none of them wanted to change games?

What would you do if someone joined your game and then made everyone play a different game?

There is only one ball left at morning recess. Your friends want to use it and so does another group. What could you do?

What would you do if you and someone else both want to sit by the same person but there is not enough room for all three of you?

What could you do if someone was complaining while playing tag and it was taking away all the fun?

If someone was blaming you for cheating at a game when you knew you were not, what could you do?

What Kelso Choice could you use if you were rushing to recess after lunch and bumped into someone, making them drop their milk?

What could you use if you just got on the swings and someone came up to say "It's my turn now!"?