CALIFORNIA'S DEFINITION OF RESIDENCY

Students in California wishing to attend public school are required to do so based upon the residency of their parent(s) or legal guardian(s). For the purpose of attending public school, a parent's residency is based upon California Education Code and Court Decisions (case law).

Please inform yourself of the law. Simply owning a residence in the district does not guarantee residency. Some people rent or buy an apartment/home in a district and believe this guarantees their right to attend school in that district.

CALIFORNIA COURT CASES (CASE LAW)

Case law, developed over many years, emphasizes intent as a crucial factor in the legal definition of residency.

In Eriksen v. Eriksen (1943) 57 Cal.App.2d 532, 534-535, the court stated:

"In order to affect a change of residence, there must be a concurrence in the act of abandonment of one residence with the intent to establish a new residence elsewhere."

Similarly, in the case of Michelman v. Frye (1965) 238 Cal.App.2d 698, 704, the court stated:

"Absence from one's permanent residence, if all the while he intends the absence only for a special temporary purpose and to be followed by resumption of the former residence, constitutes neither abandonment thereof nor a change of residence."

CALIFORNIA EDUCATION CODE - SECTIONS 68060 - 68062

- 68060. Every person has, in law, a residence.
- 68061. Every person who is married or 18 years of age, or older, and under no legal disability to do so, may establish residence.
- 68062. In determining the place of residence the following rules are to be observed:
- (a) There can only be one residence.
 - (b) A residence is the place where one remains when not called elsewhere for labor or other special or temporary purpose, and to which he or she returns in seasons of repose.
 - (c) A residence cannot be lost until another is gained.
 - (d) The residence can be changed only by the union of act and intent.
 - (e) A man or woman may establish his or her residence. A woman's residence shall not be derivative from that of her husband.
 - (f) The residence of the parent with whom an unmarried minor child maintains his or her place of abode is the residence of the unmarried minor child. When the minor lives with neither parent his or her residence is that of the parent with whom he or she maintained his or her last place of abode...
 - (g) The residence of an unmarried minor who has a parent living cannot be changed by his or her own act, by the appointment of a legal guardian, or by relinquishment of a parent's right of control.
 - (h) An alien, including an unmarried minor alien, may establish his or her residence, unless precluded by the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101, et seq.) from establishing domicile in the United States.
 - (i) The residence of an unmarried minor alien shall be derived from his or her parents pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions (f) and (g).

There are several sections of California Education code that regulate residency for special circumstances, such as Foster Youth and Homeless Youth. Please refer to California Education Code for more details.
