What does this scholarship mean to you?

It has provided me opportunities that I simply could not have fathomed having at public school, such as traveling to Chile/China, and receiving a full ride to college.

What is the best advice you have received at Culver?

"You are in charge of your own education; no one can work for you except you."

Unit: Band

Leadership Position:

Operations Sergeant

What is your dream job?

Navy maritime lawyer

Three words that describe you:

Funny. Caring. Leader.

What does this scholarship mean to you?

It is what changed my life forever. Without it, I could not have come to Culver and my life would have taken a completely different path. Culver has given me the skills and connections that I will value and use for the rest of my life. I could not have received the kind of training Culver has given me anywhere else. In a way, this scholarship helped determine my future.

Michael Huffington '65

A lifetime of Culver community support

Michael Huffington earned degrees in economics and engineering from Stanford University and an MBA in finance from Harvard Business School.

Mr. Huffington is a philanthropist who founded the Archangel Michael Foundation, which supports charitable work around the world. He also is a co-founder with Loyola Marymount University of the Huffington Ecumenical Institute at LMU in Los Angeles. He also has two film companies.

From 1993-1995, Mr. Huffington served as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from California's 22nd District. Prior to that, he was appointed Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Negotiations Policy by President Reagan. He is a trustee emeritus of The Culver Educational Foundation.

From learning the important values of a successful citizen, practicing in some of the best athletic facilities, and receiving an excellent education, Culver has done so much for me.
