DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Employer ("Company") may obtain a consumer report about you from a consumer reporting agency for employment purposes (including contract or volunteer services) and if you are hired, or if you already work for the Company, may obtain additional consumer reports on you for employment purposes.

The Company may order an "investigative consumer report." Such reports typically include information from personal interviews, most commonly from an applicant's prior employers and references.

The report may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living (lifestyle). Information may be obtained from private and public record sources. These reports may contain information regarding your criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ('driving records'), verification of your education or employment history (including income), or other background checks.

You have the right to request more information about the nature and scope of a consumer report, if any, by contacting Hire Image LLC, located at 6 Alcazar Avenue, Johnston, RI 02919, telephone 888-433-0090, Fax: 866-494-7191.

I have read and understand the DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION above.

(ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AUTHORIZATION)

[IMPORTANT -- PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING]

I acknowledge receipt of the DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION and A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT and certify that I have read and understand both documents. I hereby authorize procurement of "consumer reports" and/or "investigative consumer reports" at any time after receipt of this authorization and, if I am hired (including volunteer services), throughout my employment (volunteer services), as allowed by law. To this end, I hereby authorize, as allowed by law, any law enforcement agency, administrator, state or federal agency, institution, school or university (public or private), information service bureau, employer, or insurance company to furnish any and all background information requested by Hire Image LLC, 6 Alcazar Ave., Johnston, RI 02919, www.hireimage.com, tel. 1-888-433-0090, fax 866-494-7191, another outside organization acting on behalf of Company, and/or Company itself. I authorize these agencies to provide you with consumer and investigative consumer reports. I agree that a facsimile ("fax"), electronic or photographic copy of this Acknowledgment and Authorization shall be as valid as the original.

The scope of this authorization is all-encompassing, however, allowing the Company to obtain from any outside organization all manner of consumer reports and investigative consumer reports now and, if you are hired (including volunteer services), throughout the course of your employment (volunteer services) to the extent permitted by law. As a result, you should carefully consider whether to exercise your right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report. Hire Image's privacy policy can be found at www.hireimage.com.

My authorization is conditional upon the following representation of my rights: You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time after receipt of this notice, to ask the Company to disclose the nature and scope of any consumer report. You may also request a copy of that report from the Company. You also may request a copy of that report from Hire Image LLC. If anyone other than Hire Image LLC furnishes an investigative consumer report, the Company will provide relevant contact information within five business days of your request. An "investigative consumer report" is a background report that includes information from personal interviews (except in California, where that term includes background reports with or without personal interviews). Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report obtained with regard to applicants for employment is an investigation into your education and/or employment history conducted by Hire Image LLC via interviews with past employers, neighbors, friends or associates.

I understand that by signing and dating below:

- I am authorizing Hire Image LLC to conduct the consumer report described above;
- I authorize the Company to share reports with third party companies for whom I may be placed to work (volunteer);
- I have read and understand the Disclosure Regarding Background Investigation;
- I have read and understand the State Specific Rights of Applicants or Employees Regarding Background Investigation;
- I have read and understand the Acknowledgment and Authorization above.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:
