

Guidelines for Underwriting and Sponsorship on KEOM-FM 88.5

Underwriting on noncommercial, educational radio stations such as KEOM-FM 88.5 is regulated by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The FCC has specific guidelines for non-commercial, educational radio stations. Non-commercial radio programming can be underwritten or sponsored by local businesses and/or individuals through financial support. In return for this support KEOM-FM 88.5 broadcasts underwriter/sponsor spots on the station.

KEOM-FM aims to provide the greatest amount of exposure and identification to program underwriters/sponsors without compromising the educational, non-commercial license of KEOM-FM 88.5. Underwriting/sponsorship on-air spots are intended to thank and identify sponsors. KEOM will offer the greatest amount of identification possible without compromising the ethics, integrity and reputation of KEOM-FM 88.5's noncommercial, educationally unique character or the ethics, integrity, reputation and character of the Mesquite Independent School District.

KEOM-FM 88.5 will approve all underwriting copy prior to air by station staff management.

KEOM-FM 88.5 reserves the right to edit enhanced underwriting announcements in order to meet FCC standards. KEOM-FM 88.5 reserves the right to review and approve all messages and sponsorship material.

KEOM-FM 88.5 retains the right to decline any sponsorship if it violates station guidelines, FCC guidelines, the Texas Education Agency guidelines or is not consistent with the station environment, sound, unique character and relationship to the community.

KEOM-FM 88.5 reserves the right to remove previously approved material if the station later determines that the material is not consistent with or does not comply with guidelines and legal regulations. The decision to continue underwriting credit is at the discretion of station management and is based on such management's interpretation of underwriting guidelines and FCC policy.
