May 28-31, 9 a.m.-12 noon

Rising K-8th

Beginner, intermediate and advanced chess players welcome. Come and enjoy learning the game of chess if you have never played or honing new skills for those who are more advanced. What better way to enjoy playing the strategic game of chess than with a camp full of other chess lovers. We will have puzzle contests, crafts, tournaments and prizes. It will be a blast!

Girls Basketball

Cost: $110

Director: Ed Smith

May 28-31, 9 a.m.-12 noon

Rising 2nd-8th

The Stratford Girls Basketball Camp provides fundamental instruction to the younger players and advanced instruction to the older players as they prepare for middle school tryouts. The Stratford Girls Basketball Camp is a great time to meet the Eaglette coaches and players. The Eaglettes have a rich history of 10 state championships and eight state runners-up. They made a Final Four appearance in their first year in the GHSA in 2015 and were Region Champions in 2016, 2017, and 2018.

Boys Basketball

Cost: $110

Director: Sean Sweeney

May 28-31, 1-4 p.m.

Rising 1st-8th

Join the Stratford coaching staff for a week of basketball. In addition to fundamental instruction, campers receive specialized instruction in ball-handling, passing, shooting, and defense, as well as help in developing an understanding of playing team basketball.

There will be a Hot Shot Challenge and Free Throw Challenge to add a competitive spirit to the camp.

Advanced Boys Basketball

Cost: $50

Director: Sean Sweeney

May 28 and 30, 4:30-6:30 p.m.

Rising 4th-8th – Limit 30

This will be a fast-paced shooting clinic. Participants will work hard on catching and shooting, shooting off the dribble and shooting off the move. Attention will be given to the basics of shooting, proper footwork and follow through. This will be your roadmap to becoming a great shooter. Campers will learn how great shooters think, shoot and practice. Following camp participants will be able to come up with a shooting workout to do on your own at home.

Week 2 – Week of June 3

Knit 1 Code 2

Cost: $100 + $35 materials fee

Director Lindsey Morse

June 3-7, 9-11 a.m.

Rising 6th-9th – Limit 15

Do you know that coding and knitting are very similar? Knitting is a tangible way of coding- following a written set of directions that include patterns, repeats, and functions. For those who are kinetic learners, knitting can be a way to help them understand the concepts behind coding before they move into the digital world, in a way that reading text on a screen might not connect with them. In this camp we will use learning to knit to learn the basic terms associated with coding. At the end of the week, you will take home your own pair of knitting needles, as well as a scarf and washcloth designed by you!

Fastpitch Softball

Cost: $105

Directors: Shelli Wall and Amanda Brown

June 3-6, 9-11:30 a.m.

Rising 1st-7th Grades

Fastpitch Softball Camp covers all aspects of softball, including the fundamentals of hitting, throwing and fielding. Each day includes drills to enhance these skills, contests to test these skills and live games. Campers leave camp with the ability to continue working on their own to become better softball players. Staff will include members of the Eaglette Varsity Team.

Baseball Camp

Cost: $105

Director: Tyler Brown

June 3-6, 9-11:30 a.m.

Rising 1st-8th

Campers will get instruction from the Stratford coaching staff and players on basic and advanced skills. They will also take part in daily group competitions. The last two days of the camp will end with a simulated game. This allows the campers to use their skills in a game like situation.

Babysitting Basics

Director: Mary Reid Carter

June 3-7, 9:30-11:30 a.m.

Rising 7th-12th – Limit 25

Join Mrs. Carter for a week of fun learning all the tips and tricks of babysitting. Each student will obtain an Pediatric CPR Certificate (ages birth-12 years old) from an official American Red Cross instructor. On this TBD day of camp, the course will last 3.5 hours. CPR certification can be listed on both job applications and resumes! From feeding, diapering, and infant CPR to how to handle emergencies, you will leave camp ready to babysit and earn money having fun with kids!

Cardboard Camp

Cost: $130 + $20 materials fee

Directors: Katy Burton and Holly Leskovics

June 3-7, 9 a.m.-12 noon

Rising K-5th

Camp Cardboard! Come design and build a cardboard city. We will start by making wearable adornments, houses, cafes, complete with a cash register, silverware, a toaster, pizza oven, blender, and a full menu, including tacos, pizza, an orange, hamburgers, cupcakes, pie, bread, tea and condiments. Then we will shift gears to focus on moving vehicles, building our own axles and wheels, all kinds of moving vessels: a hot dog bus, roller coaster, flying machine, submarine, pickle sled, party bus, food truck, bob sled, boats, a Lamborghini, and more. We will end the week with a pool party as we try to keep our cardboard boats afloat.
