January 10, 2018

TODAY IS AN "E" DAY

ANNOUNCEMENTS for Students:

Geography Bee Club will meet today in room 183 with Mrs. Dix, our first competition will take place. This preliminary school competition will narrow the field to ten students.

Young Women's Leadership Club Members...We meet today in room 139, Mrs. Gordon's room. Bring all your great ideas as we plan out the rest of our year. You don't want to miss this meeting. Have you thought about joining YWLC? Today's meeting would be a great meeting to attend. See you there.

Attention 8th Graders...Have you ever considered a career in conservation, criminal justice, education, health professions, electrical, auto trades OR cosmetology – just to name a few? If so, you have an opportunity to tour 2 programs offered at the Finger Lakes Technical and Career Center. A group will be visiting the center from 11am-2pm on Friday, January 25th. If you are interested, please pick up a permission slip in the Counseling Center today!

A Message from the Library...Thanks to everyone who came to watch or play quidditch yesterday. It was a lot of fun and the High School has invited us back to play another time this year. Magic: The Gathering meets this afternoon in Mrs. Ross's room. That's room 185. New members are always welcome. Check the due dates on your Library books. Overdue notices will be distributed next week. Return or renew your Library books.

Attention Mrs. Bolger's 1st, 2nd period 7th grade students...Please hand in your signed permission slips AS SOON AS POSSIBLE so you can participate in the class field trip. Signed permission slips may be placed in the envelope outside your Home and Careers Skills classroom. Please hand them in today!
