Little Notes

Happy New Year! I hope everyone had a wonderful break. I really missed the kids and am excited to get back to learning! It's Scantron time again! We start first thing Monday morning with Reading. Please make sure your child is in school on time as we will begin testing soon after we get settled. I also recommend a good night sleep and a substantial breakfast to help with the stamina needed for the tests.

Our Learning

Religion – We will continue learning about the parts of the Mass.
Reading – We will cover the literary element of compare/contrast.
English – We will start our Adverbs chapter.
Social Studies – We will continue our studies of Asia.
Math (Jones) – The students will continue learning about fractions.
Science – The students will continue learning about cells.

Thank You

Thank you for your extreme generosity! I was overwhelmed by all of the Christmas gifts. The best gift I have is the opportunity to teach your children! Thank you!
