

Join others in our community as we give back at these local kid-friendly volunteer/service events on Monday, January 21st when the kids are off of school.

Northbrook Public Library

2:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.

<https://www.northbrook.info/events/martin-luther-king-jr-day-service-caring-community-and-connection>

In the afternoon come enjoy a storytime that will explore both the life of Dr. King and the caring and connection we can create in our own community today. There will be a special craft in honor of Dr. King all day.

Winnetka Community House

620 Lincoln Avenue, Winnetka

Drop in anytime from 1 p.m.-4 p.m.

In honor of the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., volunteers of all ages and abilities can participate in service projects to benefit local nonprofits and the people in need that they serve. The afternoon will also provide a forum for polite, open-mic discussion of civil liberties and service to mankind, and Dr. King's enduring message of tolerance, diversity and service.

Deerfield Village Hall

850 Waukegan Road, Deerfield

12:00 p.m.-2:00 p.m.

<https://www.deerfield.il.us/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=294>

Volunteers will participate in a variety of service projects appropriate for all ages including making care packages for the homeless, collecting and sorting food and related items, making chemo care packages for cancer patients and writing letters and cards of encouragement.
