

(APA 6th)

List your sources in alphabetical order (by author or title, whichever comes first).

Reference—Websites

In general, include the same elements, in the same order as you would for a reference for a printed media source and add as much electronic retrieval information as needed for others to locate the source.

Authors: Ahtonen, A. [Use Hanging indent i.e. indent line 2]

[If no author is named, place the title of the document in the author position]

Date of publication: (2012, March 12). [If no date, use: (n.d).]

Title or description of document: Healthy and active aging: Turning the 'silver' economy into gold [In italics]

Address:

http://www.healthyageing.eu/sites/www.healthyageing.eu/files/resources/pub_1426_healthy_and_active_ageing.pdf [Full address] No retrieval date is needed. No period is used at the end of the entry.

If you have accessed a technical or research report online, identify the publisher as part of the retrieval information. i.e. Retrieved from(agency name)website: <http://www.xxxxxxxx>

_____, _____. (_____.). _____.

When citing information from websites, treat them the same as in printed resources. Refer to the Publication manual of the American Psychological Association 6th Edition pages 198 – 206 for specific examples.

Example:

Ahtonen, A. (2012, March 12). Healthy and active aging: Turning the 'silver' economy into gold.
