

Winona Area Public Schools
Title I Parent & Family Engagement Policy
Jefferson Elementary School
Goodview Elementary School
Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School
2018-2019

Winona Area Public Schools, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School are committed to the goal of providing quality education for every child in this district. To this end, we want to establish partnerships with parents and with the community. Everyone gains if school and home work together to promote high achievement by our children. Neither home nor school can do this job alone. Parents and families play an extremely important role as child's first teachers. Their support for their child and for the school is critical to their child's success at every step along the way. Included in this document is implementation and dates of the individual Title I buildings family engagement activities.

The Winona Area Public School's mission is:

Expect excellence, grounded in compassion, to meet the needs of all learners.

Part I. District Expectations

Each school district must establish the district's expectations for parent engagement. Section 118(a), (2), ESEA.

The Winona Area Public Schools agree to implement the following requirements:

1. The Winona Area Public Schools will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the engagement of parents and family members, in all of its schools with Title I, Part A programs, consistent with section 1116 of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). Those programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.

2. Consistent with section 1116, The Winona Area Public Schools will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan meets the Title I requirements of section 1116 (b) of the ESSA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with section 1116(d) of the ESSA.

3. In carrying out the Title I, Part A Parent and Family Engagement requirements, to the extent practicable, the Winona Area Public Schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents of children with limited English proficiency, limited literacy, parents of children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, who are economically disadvantaged, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background, including providing information and school reports required under section 1111 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

4. The Winona Area Public Schools will incorporate this district wide Parent and Family Engagement Policy into its district plan developed under section 1112 of the ESSA.

5. If the Winona Area Public Schools' plan for Title I, Part A found in the State Educational Record View and Submission (SERVS), developed under section 1112 of the ESSA is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school district submits the plan to the Minnesota Department of Education.

6. The Winona Area Public Schools with a Title I, Part A allocation of over 500,000, will involve the parents of children served in the Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how 1% of the Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 90% of the 1 percent reserved goes directly to the schools.

7. The Winona Area Public Schools will be governed by the following definition of the term “parent” includes legal guardian or other person standing in place of a parent (such as a grandparent or stepparent with whom the child lives, or a person who is legally responsible for the child’s welfare).

8. Parent involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:

- a. that parents play an integral role in assisting their child’s learning;
- b. that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child’s education at school;
- c. that parents are full partners in their child’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;
- d. that other activities are carried out, such as those described in section 1116 of the ESEA.

Part II. District Parent Engagement Plan Required Components

1. The Winona Area Public Schools, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will take the following actions to engage parents and families in the joint developing/revising the district and school engagement policy:

Parents will be included in the development of the parent and family engagement plan through the Parent Advisory Team, and after reviewing the annual Title I Parent Survey (May 2018) and other surveys throughout the year.

2. The Winona Area Public Schools will take the following actions to engage the parents and families in jointly developing the district Title I plan (section 1112) which is in the SERVS application and the development and review of the Title I Targeted Assistance Plan. [Section 1111(D) (1) (2)]

It is the policy of the Winona Public School District to plan and implement, with meaningful consultation with parents and families of participating children, programs, activities, and procedures for the engagement of those parents in its Title I Programs. This is accomplished through our Title I Parent Advisory group which meets three times per year. Parents are surveyed multiple times a year and parent comments and questions are addressed throughout the school year through phone calls, emails, and parent conferences.

The Winona Area Public Schools will inform parents of the school report card through the Winona Daily News, the WAPS website, and local radio, and the district's Instant Alert System.

The district will conduct staff development for implementing effective strategies for parental engagement through the following activities:

Ideas for parent engagement will be provided for staff through Professional Learning Communities and staff development opportunities.

Title I parents will be invited to visit their child's Title I class where parents will learn about what takes place during Title I instructional time and learn methods and strategies to help them work with their child at home.

The Title I Parent Advisory Leadership Team will provide feedback and ideas which will generate ideas for needed staff development for teachers.

District parents have an open invitation to comment on how the WAPS staff can better serve parents through district email.

EL Interpreters will assist the Title I Program in working with parents by providing translation during Title I meetings and activities.

3. The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will coordinate technical assistance and other support that is necessary to build the capacity of staff in planning and implementing effective parent and family engagement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance.

Title I Parent Advisory Team will plan parent engagement activities for the 2018-2019 school year at the October and May meetings.

The Winona Area Public Schools have provided laptop computers to all licensed staff which allows for communication to and from parents throughout the day.

Upon request, parents are shown how to navigate the Winona Area Public School website, how to contact staff, and use the resources available that will help parents learn about the curriculum and resources that support it.

The Ready Alert System contacts all affected parents by phone for emergency use as well as informing parents of conferences, and other important events.

4. The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will coordinate and integrate with federal, state and local programs, including public preschool programs, to implement effective parent and family engagement strategies that improve student achievement and school performance, through the following activities specifically described below:

MN state's academic content standards provided on District Website.

MN state's student academic achievement standards provided on District Website and shared at Title I Annual meeting and during conferences in October/November

MN state and local academic assessments including alternative assessments listed on District Website

The requirements of Title I discussed at Annual Title I Meeting

How to monitor their child's progress and how to work with educators

At Open House, parents attend with their child, meet the school staff, and learn about parent expectations for the school year

Resources are available through Ready Set School and Winona Volunteer Services

The school district will, with the assistance of its Title I schools, provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve academic achievement, such as literacy and math ideas and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parent involvement by:

Providing adult literacy training through Community Education classes such as GED, Basic Skills, ESL and Family School with scholarships provided.

Community Kids Preschool and School Readiness

Early Childhood Screening

Early Childhood Education Classes

5. The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will take the following actions to conduct, with the engagement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy in improving the academic achievement of Title I students and the schools.

Reviewing and evaluating the parent and family engagement activities/programs:

- a. Identify barriers and the needs of parents and family members that keep them from participating in their child's education especially the economically disadvantaged, disabled, limited English proficiency or any racial or ethnic minority.
- b. Identify the needs of the Title I parents and family members to assist the learning of their children and the teachers and school staff.
- c. Identify strategies to support successful school and family interactions.

Title I information related to the school and parents programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to parents of participating children in an understanding and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable in a language the parents can understand.

Several different forms of the same information will be sent home with children in their goal notebooks, through announcements, and other print materials, and through telephone calls to EL parents from an interpreter.

6. The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will use the findings of the evaluation to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parent and family engagement as necessary and to revise the parent and family engagement policy as necessary.

The Winona Area Public Schools will, with the assistance of its Title I schools and parents, educate its teachers, pupil services personnel, principals and other staff, in how to reach out to communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools by:

Encouraging participation at school sponsored activities such as PTA, Family Fun Night, etc. through phone calls (from an interpreter if necessary), notes home, school Newsletters and Title I teacher contacts.

The parent and family engagement plan will be accessible online for all district parents.

The parent and family engagement plan will be accessible at the annual Title I meeting and at Parent Advisory Meetings.

Title I Annual Parent Survey Results will be shared with Title I parents in the Fall of 2018 via email, paper copy and/or at the Title I Annual Meeting and Parent Advisory Meeting in October.

Parent Teacher Conferences (October/November/March)

7. The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will involve parents in activities at the Winona Area Public School District, including

Jefferson Elementary School , Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School. The district will explore establishing a parent advisory board that represents the population of Title I parents and family members, that develops, evaluates and reviews or revises the parent and family engagement policy.

Explore establishing a Title I District Parent Advisory Team to provide advice on all matters related to the parent engagement plan in Title I, Part A programs. We meet three times per year, October, February, May.

Input is also gathered at Parent Teacher Conferences in October/November and March as well as informal communication with parents throughout the year via email or paper copy.

8. Jefferson Elementary School , Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, when the parents of participating children are available to attend. The Title I annual meeting will inform parents about the Title I program, explain the requirements of parent and family engagement and the rights and responsibilities of the parents to be involved.

Title I annual meeting will be held in October of 2018.

Title I annual meeting will be held at a central location of all the elementary schools, which is Jefferson Elementary.

9. Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will offer flexible meeting times during morning, evening or weekends and may provide transportation, child care or home visits.

WSU education students, as well as National Honor Society students and Community Service students from the Winona Senior High School assist with activities and daycare during parent engagement activities.

Childcare and transportation are offered for parent engagement activities.

In order to maximize parent engagement and participation in their children's education, school meetings are held at a variety of times. In-home conferences between teachers and parents are arranged for those parents who are unable to attend conferences at school. Often times, the school counselor, social worker or principal will attend these conferences.

10. Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will involve parents in the planning and review of the school improvement plan and the joint development of the schoolwide plan when applicable. If the schoolwide plan is not satisfactory to the parents, submit comments on the plan when submitted to the district. [Section 1114(b)]

Not a school-wide program plan. We are Targeted Title 1 K-4. Parent comments will be submitted to the District Title I Director for review.

11. Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will provide assistance to parents of Title I students:

- a. Timely information about programs offered to engage in their child's education.
- b. An explanation of the curriculum, state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments, and the achievement levels of the state academic standards.
- c. If they request, opportunities for regular meetings to hear their suggestions and participate in decisions related to their child's education.

Information can be accessed on District Website and/or Ready Alert Systems.

Information regarding programs and curriculum and assessment will be shared at conferences in October/November and March.

Parents are given explanation on how to interpret the F.A.S.T. results.

Programs are offered and shared at Title I Annual Meeting in October.

Title I and classroom teachers provide parent email and correspondence regarding progress and interventions.

Title I and classroom teachers provide contact information in the fall.

Invite parents to engage in the process through district website, via email, notes, conferences and meetings.

Part III. Description of the Shared Responsibilities for High Student Academic Achievement

Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will jointly develop with Title I parents a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement to meet the state academic standards. The compact should:

1. Describe the curriculum and instruction that help their student meet the state standards, identify where their child is performing and discuss ways the parent can support their child's education at home and at school.
2. Talk about the importance of the teachers and parents communicating on an ongoing basis at a minimum:

- a. Conduct a parent-teacher conference in elementary schools, at least annually, during which time the compact is discussed as it relates to the individual child.
- b. Provide frequent reports to parents on their children's progress.
- c. Provide information on how parents can contact staff and staff can best contact parents, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and observation of classroom activities.

Part IV. Accessibility

The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will meet the requirements of parent and family engagement of Title I, to the extent practicable, we will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with children with limited English proficiency, parents with children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including information and school reports in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents can understand.

Title I Information related to the school and parents programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to parents of participating children in an understanding and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable in a language the parents can understand.

Several different forms of the same information will be sent home with children in their goal notebooks, through announcements, and other print materials, and through telephone calls to EL parents from an interpreter.

Part IV. Adoption

The Winona Area Public School District, including Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School

Parent and Family Engagement Policy has been developed jointly with, and agreed on with, parents of children participating in the Title I programs, as evidenced by meeting minutes and sign in sheets.

This Parent and Family Engagement Policy was developed by the Winona Area Public Schools, along with Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School in May 2018 and will be in effect for the period of school year 2018-2019.

The Winona Area Public School District , along with Jefferson Elementary School, Goodview Elementary School and Washington-Kosciusko Elementary School will distribute this policy to all parents of participating Title I children and make it available to the community.
