Make the Most of Your Time at a College Fair

1) Make a list of the schools you are interested in and be sure to visit those tables.

2) Talk to the college representatives.
Find out important information such as:
*Popular majors at their school
*Are SAT /ACT tests used for admissions or placement purposes?
*Are SAT Subject tests required? If so, which tests do they prefer?
*SAT, ACT, SAT subject test admission score range.
*What is the profile of a student typically accepted at their institution?
*What are their admissions options? early decision, early action, single-choice, rolling, regular
*Sports and their division
*Internship opportunities
*Faculty/student ratio
*Average class size
*What are the college/university core requirements?

3) Put your name on the mailing list.
*Bring labels that have your name, address and email address on them.

4) Inquire about visiting the college. Are there upcoming Open House dates?

5) Get a business card from the college representative. Now you have a name to contact directly with any questions you may have.

6) Inquire about the name of the athletic director and/or the name of the coach for a specific sport.

7) Inquire about support services:
tutoring
faculty availability counseling services
services for students with learning disabilities
learning labs

8) Investigate colleges and universities you don't know much about.
Take advantage of the opportunity to learn about different institutions. You may come across an institution that will fit your needs.
