Sticks and Stones (1-2) To encourage the pupils to think about how their words and actions impact on both themselves and others.	1. Work through the power point with your class sharing and discussing issues raised with the pupils 2. Read through the Willie the Wimp book, discuss why he felt he needed to change and what the implications were for himself and others. Did he need to do all those things to change himself – what could or should you change about yourself?	1. Sticks and Stones PPT Red paper and scissors to cut out red heart as described in power-point 2. Willy the Wimp Anthony Browne (in year 2 PSHEE box) 3. Willy and Hugh by Anthony Browne (copy in library) 4. How to be a Friend by Laurie Krasny Brown (copy in library on PSHEEE shelf) 5. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3Kuo6V_ujI8 'Words can Hurt' short YouTube film using lego minifigures.
The Ugly Duckling (1) Read through the story and use it to discuss the differences between different pupils	To provide the pupils with the opportunity to think about the differences and similarities between them and their class mates	The Ugly Duckling
The Likeaballs (up to 5 sessions. Can be combined) Looking at teamwork and fairness.	5 short programs, one lesson each encourage pupils to think about good behaviour, kindness and teamwork	"The Likeaballs" DVD (this is encrypted so not able to be put on the media system, the copy is in the Year 2 PSHEEE box with the HOY, please share around)
Words are not for hurting (2) Introduce the theme of words and how they can be used and abused. Read and discuss the book. Select activities throughout the book that is relevant to your class.	Pupils will be taught the importance of thinking before speaking and the need to take responsibility for the words they use. They will learn about their own and other people's feelings and become aware of the views, needs and rights of children.	1. 'Words are not for hurting' storybook (in Year 2 PSHEEE box) 2. Kind words activity. Pair pupils up. Each child writes 3 positive things about their partner – why are they a good person. Concentrate on personality not things they are good at. (e.g. 'Luke is always smiling and making people happy' rather than 'Luke is good at rugby'. Ask the children how these kind words make them feel.
Personal Best (2)	Use books in PSHEE box to discuss issues 1. Pictures around metaphors for aiming high... 2. Learning how to achieve when we focus on a task	1. Seven Ways to Catch the Moon M.P.
