

FUQUA SCHOOL

2012-2013 Annual Report

GREETINGS FROM OUR PRESIDENT

With each new Annual Report, I am reminded of what a unique institution Fuqua School really is. From its student-centered environment to the breadth of its programs, Fuqua stands as an example of what can be accomplished through the efforts of a talented faculty and staff, dedicated Board of Directors, supportive parent community, and steadfast contributors - all of whom share in the School's many successes and achievements.

Our students shine!

We are proud of our students' many accomplishments! First and foremost, the graduating class of 2013, comprised of 39 students, was offered collectively over $5.2 million in academic scholarships to various colleges and universities, exceeding the amount offered any previous class. Eighth grader, Carson Johnson, participated as a semifinalist in the 2013 Virginia National Geographic Bee, and two seniors, Pranay Bonagiri and Caroline Wiles, were named Commended Students in the 2013 National Merit Scholarship Program, placing them among the top five percent of more than 105 million students who entered the competition.

Our students continued to play key leadership roles in Virginia's Model General Assembly (MGA) in which over 470 students from 40 schools across Virginia participate. Caroline Wiles was elected House Speaker Pro Tempore, and three students served in appointed positions: Tara Bauer as Clerk of the Senate; Heather Hicks as Chairwoman of the Education Committee in the Senate; Buck Wellman as Sergeant at Arms in the Senate. Whitney Forlines was elected to serve as the 2014 MGA Lieutenant Governor/President of the Senate, the second highest ranking office in the state government.

As part of her honors independent study on leadership, Fuqua senior, Emmalee Klein, planned and implemented a Leadership Summit on the Hill in collaboration with Hampden-Sydney College. Students from nine area public and private schools attended this impressive event. Our Battle of the Brains team qualified for the fourth straight year to compete as one of thirty-six teams in the televised academic tournament, defeating Hermitage High School, which enrolls approximately 2,000 students.

Strategic planning: Developing boundless individual potential

In November, we embarked on the development of a new long-range strategic plan. All faculty and staff participated in a retreat held at Longwood University to begin the process with emphasis on identifying key strategic priorities, followed by a Board of Directors planning session in January. Both meetings provided time to discuss strengths, challenges, and issues vital to ensuring that Fuqua School continues to offer the highest quality education possible and helped lay the framework for the School's future direction.

International program

Fuqua School places high priority on exposing students to other cultures. A primary avenue has been our foreign exchange program whereby students from other countries spend a year at Fuqua School. We have been fortunate to host students from countries ranging from Holland to Taiwan, all of whom deeply enriched our program.

In 2012, we expanded our global focus by entering into a partnership with The Cambridge Institute of International Education, an organization located in Boston dedicated to promoting cultural exchanges. Through this program, international students enroll at Fuqua for up to four years with the hope of entering an American University following graduation. We anticipate that this expanded program will provide the opportunity for our international students to become more actively involved in the life of the school.

"Lights Go On" project

Thanks to the generous support of several donors and the expertise and tireless efforts of Mr. Jerry O'Connor, the sound and lighting systems in Gilmer Gymnasium have been renovated. Mr. O'Connor's expertise stems from his work at Madison Square Garden and other production locations and proved to be invaluable to this exciting project.

Several of our old lights were salvaged and refurbished with today's technology, and additional new lights and a light board were purchased. Lights for the stage, "orchestra" area, and center court are now available. The new sound system offers "surround sound" which dramatically improves our former capacity. Microphones - cordless, lavalier, choir - were purchased as part of the system. Two screens were installed for use in multi-media productions. One screen is rear projection which enables pictures and videos to be shown behind the students who are performing on stage. A larger screen was installed at the front of the stage for use with a new state-of-the art projector mounted to the ceiling.

The possibilities this project presents are endless! From band performances to theatre productions to guest speakers, we can now truly showcase the talents of our students and dramatically expand the quality of our programs and special events.

These are but a few highlights of the 2012-2013 academic year. They only touch upon the many accomplishments of our wonderful students and the unique opportunities Fuqua School offers throughout the year. We extend our deepest appreciation to the many supporters who believe strongly in our mission to develop the "boundless individual potential" that lies within each student, making it possible for us to provide the kind of education that will enable our graduates to pursue their dreams.

As with previous generations, the population from which Fuqua School draws is economically and socially diverse. Parents still work multiple jobs to pay tuition, recognizing that it is an investment for a lifetime. For them, Fuqua School not only provides the opportunity for their children to pursue an academic program which opens the door to top colleges and universities but, perhaps more importantly, equips them with the qualities and skills to pursue their dreams. Your donations make all the difference. Thank you for supporting annual giving. A gift of any size directly supports our students and demonstrates that you believe in the work that we do. Your participation matters - thank you again for your continuing support!

This report recognizes gifts made to the School between August 1, 2012 and July 31, 2013. Gifts made after that time will be acknowledged in the 2013–2014 Honor Roll. Every effort has been made to compile as accurate a report of donors as possible. If, however, you discover an error or an omission, please accept our apologies and bring it to our attention by contacting us at:

BAG THE FIVE GRAND FALCON

In keeping with Fuqua School tradition, the Christmas season began with the Bag the Five Grand Falcon fundraiser. The decorations, festive spirits, and generous giving set the tone for a great holiday season. This event generated $39,000 in proceeds to our school.

The night kicked off with excitement as David Foster announced the ticket numbers as drawn. The silent auction allowed plenty of browsing and bidding, while the live auction created excitement and friendly competition. Assisted by Shawn Haney, auctioneers Jimmy Carwile and Tom Jones, with Carwile Auctions, once again gave their best to Fuqua School, and we are so thankful to them for donating their time, energy and expertise again this year. The outstanding food, provided by John Ellington and his amazing staff, was a delight for many.

All the success of the evening is due to the generosity of the many donors and sponsors, the hard work of the volunteers, and the community that came out to support Fuqua School. We thank you all so much!

WAYS TO GIVE

JEFF ROBERTS,
DIRECTOR of DEVELOPMENT
as of August 1, 2013

As Director of Development, Mr. Roberts will oversee the development program, including annual giving, major gifts, planned giving, and special fundraising events and serve as a member of the administrative team.

Roberts comes to Fuqua School with extensive experience in the areas of development and fundraising. He began his career as the annual fund director at James Madison University and went on to serve as the Director of Development at the Valentine Museum and the Art Museum of Western Virginia before accepting the Director of Development position at Benedictine High School. Roberts was promoted to Vice President of Advancement and went on to conduct a successful capital campaign exceeding $3.5 million, the largest campaign in Benedictine's history. Most recently, he served as Vice President/Fundraising Consultant for The Sheridan Group based in Arlington, VA and Director of Development for Seven Hills School in Richmond, VA.

"I have enjoyed meeting the students, parents, faculty, and Board members at Fuqua School," said Roberts. "The school offers so much to the region and I am excited to be part of the team." Roberts went on to say, "I'm also really looking forward to working with the community; together we can accomplish so much." To contact Jeff Roberts, please call (434) 392-4131 or email robertsjj@fuquaschool.com.

There are many ways to make a gift to Fuqua School, including gifts of cash, stock, real estate, and life insurance as well as bequests or charitable trusts. Gifts are tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. We will be glad to discuss giving options with you. For more information please contact the Director of Development, at 434-392-4131, ext. 223.

Matching Gifts

Often your gift to Fuqua School can be doubled or tripled by matching funds from your employer. Please contact your employer's Human Resource Department for more information.

Credit Card

Paying by credit card provides several potential benefits including extending your payment over a period of time and receiving promotional benefits from your credit card company. We accept Visa, MasterCard and Discover.

Securities

When making a gift of appreciated securities, you may receive a charitable deduction for the market value of the gift and save the capital gains tax which would otherwise be payable upon the sale of the assets. To receive these benefits, securities must be transferred to Fuqua School prior to the sale. Our Director of Development can assist you in these transmittals.

School Program Support

When you shop, keep Fuqua School in mind. Many businesses such as Campbell's, Food Lion, General Mills Boxtops for Education, Kroger, and Target have school support programs. At www.onecause.com, register Fuqua School as your recipient; you can turn everyday shopping into dollars for Fuqua School.

Gifts-in-Kind

Gifts-in-kind are non-monetary contributions, including goods and services.

Gifts of Real Estate

Making a gift of property can benefit both Fuqua School and you. Because your residence, vacation home, timeshare, or acreage have appreciated in value through the years, a sizable capital gains tax would be assessed on any sale. A gift to Fuqua School would avoid the capital gains tax, and you would receive a charitable tax deduction for the full market value of the property.

The only gift too small is no gift at all.

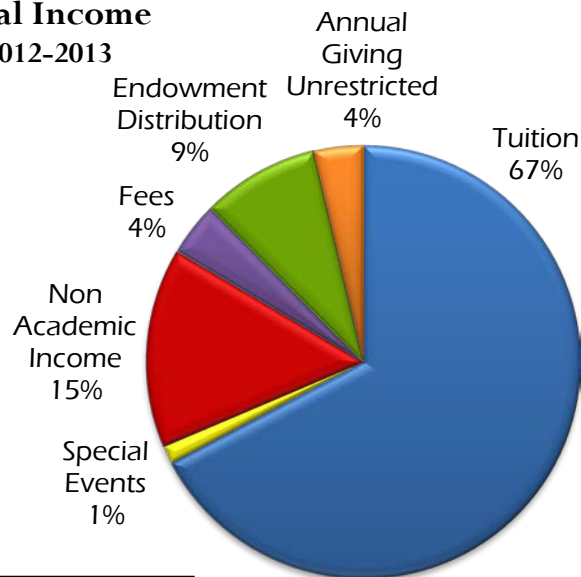

WHY DOES FUQUA SCHOOL NEED ANNUAL GIVING?

Fuqua School's tuition covers only 67% of the cost of educating its students; therefore, the tuition of every Fuqua School student is supplemented.

With the support of alumni, parents, faculty and staff, grandparents, and friends, we can keep tuition as affordable as possible and, together, ensure that our kindergarten students have the same opportunity to graduate from this excellent school as children have had for more than 50 years.

There are many ways to make a gift to Fuqua School, including volunteering, in-kind, gifts of cash, stock, real estate, and life insurance as well as bequests or charitable trusts. Each is equally important to the success of our school!

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

2012 – 2013 Athletics Hall of Fame Inductees

Jim Saunders '72
 William "WC" Sprouse Jr. '72
 Scott Andrews '83
 Cristy Wilson Larkin '92
 Autumn Barton Harbour '95

Established in 1999, the Athletics Hall of Fame honors those who have made lasting contributions through their outstanding achievement in athletics or service to the athletics program. The Hall of Fame inducts not only former athletes, but also coaches, administrators, and others who have contributed to the rich athletics history. In addition, "Special Citations" are awarded to recognize individuals making similar contributions in support roles.

To be eligible for selection, the candidate's most recent contribution in high school athletics must have occurred five or more years prior to his/her induction. Consideration is given to All-State, All-Conference, MVP, and other similar awards, as well as team captaincy, how the individual compared to other athletes of the era, and leadership.

Nomination forms are available through Fuqua School's Office of Alumni Affairs or www.fuquaschool.com.

2013 ALUMNI RECOGNITION AWARD

CAROL ANN CARWILE REYNOLDS '64

The Alumni Recognition Award is given by the Prince Edward Academy/Fuqua School Alumni Association to an alumnus/a who demonstrates enthusiasm, devotion, and dedication toward his/her career, community or to Fuqua School. The standards for recognition include one or more of the following: outstanding recognition in his/her career or field of work, commendable service to others, or significant commitment to Fuqua School.

While a student at Prince Edward Academy, this year's recipient was very active in the F.H.A. and 4-H, serving as the 4-H Club's Song Leader. Additionally, she served as President of her class for her Junior Year and was a staff member for the school yearbook and the school newspaper.

After graduating from Prince Edward Academy in 1964, she pursued a career in the insurance field, continuing to serve her community. A cancer survivor of 30-plus years, she raised two children, who also are alumni. Today, she spends her days cooking, running after her three beloved grandchildren, and actively serving her church and church family.

This year's Alumni Recognition award recipient is, without a doubt, well known for her cooking and baking: ham biscuits and chicken salad for the faculty or a fundraising bake sale; orange cupcakes, made for Band Bingo yearly without having to be asked; a basket overflowing with delightful treats, made with love, and auctioned off at the 5 Grand Falcon. Perhaps you were on campus to enjoy the cake she made to honor the School's 25th anniversary, or found a little treat in your car, just to make your day special. There is so much more to this alumna than her baking though—she is always ready to lend a hand, never fails to be here when needed, and has a heart that is overflowing with kindness, graciousness and compassion.

We honor someone who has given countless hours to many of us as individuals, and to us as a school family. We are all better off for having her in our lives. This year's Alumni Recognition Award is presented to Carol Ann Carwile Reynolds.

OUR NEWEST ALUMNI ~ CLASS OF 2013

Fuqua School held its commencement exercises on May 24, 2013 on the lawn of the upper school. Keeping with the longstanding tradition of inviting alumni to deliver the commencement address, the guest speaker was Mr. J. Morgan Anderson. Morgan is a member of the Class of 1983 and a 1987 graduate of the University of Richmond. Morgan is a Senior Director of Operations for Menlo Worldwide Logistics, a division of Con-Way Inc. based in Charlotte, North Carolina. Morgan is the son of Mrs. Nancy Haga and the late Mr. Claude Wood Anderson. He resides in Huntersville, North Carolina with his wife Karen and their two daughters. Morgan shared three points with the class of 2013: if you can travel, go see the world; that's time and place for everything; seek riches but remember that there is more to life than money. The presentation of diplomas by President Ruth S. Murphy and Sandra F. Moss, Vice-Chair, Rural Education Foundation Board of Directors, followed. All thirty-nine graduates will attend a college or university. There are six Summa Cum Laude (4.0+) graduates, 10 Magna Cum Laude (3.6-4.0) and eight Cum Laude (3.2-3.5). Collectively, the graduates have been offered over $5.2 million in academic scholarships. Fuqua School 2013 graduates were offered admission to the following colleges and universities:

Averett University	Hampden-Sydney College	Radford University
Bridgewater College	Hood College	Randolph -Macon College
Bluefield College	High Point University	University of Richmond
Campbell University	James Madison University	Richard Bland College
Converse College	John Tyler Community College	Queens University of Charlotte

You know you're a Fuqua Falcon when...

- ◆ all your t-shirts are red, gold and black.
- ◆ your backpack can be left safely on the sidewalk.
- ◆ everybody knows you, your parents, your grandparents, your pets...
- ◆ you welcome new students like old friends.
- ◆ some of your battles end up on TV (Battle of the Brains).
- ◆ you are a member of an award-winning marching band.
- ◆ you can pick from 13 sports.
- ◆ your teacher is one of your biggest cheerleaders.
- ◆ Homecoming Week is your favorite week of the year.
- ◆ you tuck your shirt in even when you don't need to.
- ◆ your friends live in 12 different counties and many countries too.
- ◆ your SAT scores are used by NASA to calculate distances to other galaxies.
- ◆ you can get back more in college scholarships than what you've spent on tuition.
- ◆ alumni always feel at home "on the hill".
- ◆ your friends become your family.
- ◆ it's OK to be yourself.
