

HONORS in Entrepreneurial Studies

A student interested in pursuing HONORS in Entrepreneurial Studies must be attend Guest Speaker presentations hosted by Ron Rubin School for the Entrepreneur during their Junior/Second Class or Senior/First Class year. To be eligible for Honors, a Rubin student must be enrolled in the Honors in Entrepreneurial Studies course during all four terms of the Senior/First Class year.

Prerequisites

Candidates will:

- Successfully complete the Rubin Curriculum: ES1: Introduction to the Practice of Innovation, ES2: Application of the Practice of Innovation, ES3: Corporate Challenge by the end the candidate's 11th grade year.
- Beginning in the 2019-2020 school year, students must also complete either a one term course, Economics, or AP Macro & Micro Economics course. Students can satisfy the Economics (or AP Macro & Micro Economics) while enrolled in the Honors Seminar their Senior or First Class year.

Honors Seminar

The senior-year Honors Course is a four-term academic non-solid (3 days per week) for students hired to manage the Rubin Café, Eagle Outfitters and/or the Social Media account. This class period is designed exclusively for the student teams to manage and further develop the businesses, and will meet three times per week, all year long. Each student will belong to a team responsible for one of the business disciplines: personnel, marketing, accounting, finance product and program development and operations.
