Little Notes

We finally had a full week of classes! At least we had some nice weather to complement what seemed like a long week. 😊
Thursday is our class party. The children are welcome to bring in Valentines for their classmates. If they bring Valentines in, please remember to bring one for everyone in the class. The kids may also dress down on Thursday – following the guidelines that were put out in the Wildcat Weekly - red, pink, white.
Have a wonderful weekend!
