BURR OAK

Chatfield High School

1947

Dedication

The class of 1947 dedicates the Burr Oak to "Mom and Dad." We hope to show in a small way our appreciation for the sacrifices which you have made in order that we might acquire an education. We have tried to be good sons and daughters to you; and despite what is said about this "younger" generation, we shall endeavor to continue on the road of success.

Thanks, "Mom and Dad." We think you're "tops"!

Class Will

We, the students of Chatfield High School, being strong in body and weak in mind, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

Wally Amundson leaves to Larry Ferguson his position as football captain, with lots of luck for the coming year.

Lavonne Cunningham bequeaths to Joan Marum her good marks and quiet manner also her power to jitterbug. This can only be done while giving a book report in front of the class.

Vivian Barnfleth gives her art of chewing gum to Hazel Thompson with the hope she has as much success.

Mary Lou Walsh leaves her ability to talk for hours without stopping to Marian Kadlec.

Bill David wills his Pin-ball ability and knack of shoving people around to Kenny Arsers.

Mary Pot is now the sole possessor of Gerry Brown's cheerleading outfit, with lots of success for the coming season.

Jean Keefe wills her giggles to Mary Darliene which she already has.

Marjorie Baker leaves her shyness to Matt M. Can't you just feature Matt as a bashful little boy.

Ruby Trogstad's long hair goes to Doris S. What a difference it will make.

Lorraine Ferguson leaves to Beverly Bolles her position in the cornet section.

Jean Olson wills to Joanne Mattern her piano bench wherever it might be.

Dan Leas wills his art of love-making to Duane Jacobson.

Glen Bandel wills his class ring to Virginia Kester who already has it.

Jamie Sorenson sadly leaves his baritone horn to anyone who wants it.

Lewis Balcome leaves his school police position to Morris Baker.

Gordan Crowson bequeaths to Ray Marshall his extreme height.

Bernie Brogan's art of studying goes to Tom McKeown.

Sturgiss Banker gives to Mike Bernard his ability of getting along in class.

Genny Haas gives her dimples and her one downfall, fright of all boys, to Janie Peterson. She's so shy.

William Reese bequeaths his job of running the movie projector to Dick Engel.

Charles Haven wills his high vocabulary to Merlin Asleson.

Mike Shimer gives his great basketball ability to Dooley.

Joanne Kester wills her red shoes to Ruth Finseth. (I hope they fit.)

Theresa Manahan gives her name to Teresa Manahan. (confusing, isn't it.)

Gladi gives her 100 word certificate in shorthand to Darlene Bothun.

Betty Mae leaves to Beverly Kester her blonde hair and blue eyes.

Elaine Kester leaves to Betty Dunn her artistic ability.

Marie Wehrenberg bequeaths to Mary Jo Stakes her interest in St. Charles.

To Verna Hemker goes Yvonne Bicknese's charming personality.

Jean King leaves her scientific mind to her sister Joyce.

Lawrence Peterson and Joe Manahan will to Mike and Matt their ability to get along so well together.

To Peggy Busher goes Margaret Bradt's ability to talk like a negress.

We, the seniors, leave to the faculty peace and quiet, which is so badly needed for the beginning of a new year.

Class History

Early spring of 1935, eleven brilliant cherubs took the vital plunge, they started to school. We filed in, plunked ourselves into the first choir available, and that was the extent of our learning the first day. We finally started substituting other things for grinning which made the teacher quit.

After receiving diplomas from Mr. Potter, we were full-fledged first graders, where we broke in a brand new teacher, Miss Pfeffer. From Stillwater, come Jean Olson to add to the little bond of pilgrims that were to "lond" in the second grade the next fall. After she was firmly established, we rolled on to second grade where Miss Hahn took over completely. That year we made a greenhouse and a post office. We had so much fun playing with it—in fact many of us come to school ten minutes early just to see if we had any mail. At the end of the year she handed us our report cards, that is if our dues were paid, and each of us shook and trembled until we found that we had passed into the third grade. (An F was a very rare thing in those days.)

This year we undertook to build a library, which we thought to be the best ever. Also a little life was added by two new members, Lorraine Ferguson and Lovonne Cunningham.

So sailed the pilgrims onward into the fourth grade. Here we acquired an artistic talent by keeping our bulletin boards well covered with pictures. Work proved too much for Lovonne one day, so she just fainted in the wastebasket.

The pilgrims filed sedately into the fifth grade the next fall. Here come our first big disappointment: our class picnic was held indoors because of rain.

Miss Bushaw, with a stern hand, guided us through a unit on the Middle Ages in the sixth grade. Our accomplishment for this year was perfecting a beautiful castle and dining hall with knights and ladies.

We crossed the channel and found ourselves in junior high. In seventh grade all idle hours were spent writing 1,000 word themes for Miss Schuh on courtesies.

In eighth grade Miss Gallagher taught us our English essentials and tried vainly to get us all to win Palmer penmanship certificates.

Finally we worked our way into the freshman class, and there we were met by all the little lads and losses from the country. After meeting each one in turn, we all settled down to enjoy our first year together. We were put to work making bird houses for science. Boys and girls alike pounded away until finally the finished products started coming in. Our efforts were well worth on "A"—we thought.

A freshman party was held, and we chose to have it right after the prom. The juniors were very kind, so we used the prom decorations. Most of the boys were very bashful that year, and so the girl had to drag her date out onto the floor to teach him to dance. Most of those same boys can dance a mean rhumba now.

Most of the girls took home economics but Lois Gehrke, Ann Sharpe, and Jean Olson just had to be different and took civics with Mr. Stephens in the industrial arts room. How they used to brag about the fun they had, and how green we would turn with envy.

We entered the sophomore year as the "babies" of senior high. Although we were considered "infants," we seemed to hold our own without any help.

That was the year of presidential elections, and we were kept busy figuring out who would win. Mike Shimer and Miss Sawyer were continually in controversy.

The senior high conducted a popularity poll and two of the sophomores were voted in. Gladys took honors as prettiest and cutest girl combined, and Lovonne was elected the "cut-up" of C.H.S.

The girls served as waitresses at the junior and senior prom, and that seemed as sort of a teaser because all the little ones walked around for days sighing and swooning and wishing that next year would roll around.

"A junior, my how you've grown!" A fitting tribute to the juniors who filed in grinning at Mrs. Cole. We spent a very enjoyable year as juniors despite certain hardships, such as election of class officers. We finally flipped a coin, and it came out Jean, president; Mike, vice president; Lawrence, secretary; and Gladys, treasurer.

Our football team was very successful that year. They went in fighting and came out untied, unbeaten and unscored upon.

Our class play was a big success; it was rated as one of the best in the last few years. We were even going to send in our hero as a possibility for an Academy Award, but someone stopped us.

Gerry Brown turned in a "superior" performance on "The Woltz," a humorous selection for declamation. The play "Antic Spring" also received a superior rating.

The prom was a big surprise as well as success. We carried out the theme of "Showboat," and most of us prayed all night that it wouldn't soil away. All in all everyone seemed to have a good time.

In June we staggered home, report cards in hand, to rest up for the next fall when we would be olmighty seniors at last!

The first task to confront us was to organize the class and elect officers.

Four paper-staff members and Miss Heinen journeyed to Albert Leo to a newspaper convention. They come back with their joints creaking, their hair hanging, their make-up on crooked—but if any of you are acquainted with conventions, you'll agree that we should be glad they come back at all. They said they learned many ideas on how to improve our paper—see any improvements?

The football and basketball team did first rate this year and we are mighty proud of them. Of course Wally, Mike, and Don, our glowing seniors, were in there with all they had and they really added a fitting tribute to the senior class.

The class play come next, and you'll have to admit we've really got some good actors and actresses in our class.

Then come the biggest and brightest event of the whole year, the prom. It seemed good to go to the prom and not worry about it at all. It was perfect and each senior had a little lump in his throat when the night was over.

Decoration day brought the climax to our twelve hard years of study when diplomas were presented to us. It's going to seem peculiar next year when that school bell rings, and we are doing something else; I'll bet each and everyone of us will be just a little lost next fall.

Class Prophecy

This year, 1957, brings many changes and check-ups. One check-up we would like to make is to find the whereabouts of the members of the 1947 graduation class of Chatfield High School. From newspaper articles all over the world we have collected facts about those graduates whom we sent off so proudly in 1947.

New York Herald—If you will glance in the railroad section you will see the names of all the employees who have worked there for more than five years. Bernie Bragan has been station master for almost ten years, and given faithful service.

New York Times—This paper carries the story of a Chatfield farm boy who made good. New York's largest bank, the Second-to-the-Last National, has appointed Lewis Balcome, the youngest financial genius, president. He will begin work on Monday.

Washington Post—Influential in the passing of the Immigration-to-the-Antarctic Bill is Margaret Bradt, Senator from Minnesota. Miss Bradt is Minnesota's first woman senator.

Bermuda Monthly—From the gossip column of this paper we surmise that Mrs. Bill David, formerly Gerry Brown, and Bill David are not getting along so well. Gerry has just broken her twenty-third set of dishes over Bill's head.

Panama Weekly—On the front page of this paper is a large picture of one of our seniors of 1947. He is Glen Bandel, the successful ditch digger for the Panama outlet.

The Chronicle announces the arrival of Donald Leas and his wife, the former Jean King, in Rio de Janeiro. Mr. Leas has been appointed U. S. Ambassador to Brazil. With this diplomatic couple here our troubles with Brazil are over.

In the Chronicle we also see that America's leading aviatrix, Miss Eloine Kester, is now touring South America doing stunts in all of the large cities. Her wonderful flying is thrilling the crowds all over the world.

Continuing, we find in The London Times that William Reese, the operator of a grocery store in Cockney, London, has just married a Cockney girl and is now on his honeymoon in Stratford-on-Avon, England.

Norway Sentinel—Mary Lou Walsh has just signed two more contracts to sing opera in Norway. Mary Lou has been singing in all the great operas for five years.

Russian News—Ruby Trostad has been using her knowledge of home economics. She has just obtained the job of scrubbing the great Stalin's floors.

Berlin Bugle—One of Berlin's best and fastest reporters, Sturgiss Banker, has just finished a job on one of Berlin's biggest stories. His genius at interviewing and his ability to get around people has been noted for some time in Berlin. Four other papers are trying to secure his services.

Paris Palace—Vivian Bornfleth is another member of the class who became interested in music. Vivian has just signed a contract to play at concerts in Paris. Vivian is America's most accomplished pianist.

Rome Weekly—Our most brilliant senior of 1947 has just taken the position she has wanted for years. Yes, Lavonne Cunningham has just been transferred to Rome to teach English subjects.

Bulgarian—Countess Zinnia, formerly Betty Moe Pease of Chatfield, has been entertaining Baron and Baroness Germ Manich and Count and Countess Benito Musso. Countess Zinnia has been doing much traveling and entertaining lately. Could she be looking for another Count since Count Zinnia was killed?

A news flash from Algiers reveals that the Haven and Herrick Flea Circus is starting its eighth month at the Ajar theater. Joanne Herrick and Bo Haven have finally clicked at last in the most amazing flea circus of the century. They use only purebred Algerian fleas. The show has increased in popularity ever since it first started. The managers are contemplating another show featuring ants.

From Listen magazine, published exclusively in Arabia, we have found some of the best pictures ever taken. The pictures of Shieks, Arabian princesses, and other camera shy people were taken by Jamie Sorenson, top photographer, in fact the only photographer for that magazine.

Indian News—As you know Therese Monahan has been interested in snake charming for many years. Soon after her graduation from high school she went to India to study snake charming. She has married a snake charmer and says she would rather wear snakes than furs.

With the information smuggled out of Tibet we are led to believe that Stub Crowson, the toll man of the Larymax and Yodelly Road Show, who attained his great height by eating Wheaties, is making a good will tour of Tibet and is now at the Green Moon Lamasary. Some reports say he will attempt to climb Mount Everest.

In the Japan News—we see that the Shakespearean plays are very popular in Japan. Shakespearean Joe, formerly Joe Monahan, has become a friend to all the Japanese people because of his great skill as an actor.

In the remote parts of Australia we see in the Smalltown Gazette that two of the worst bandits, comparing only with the United States own Jesse James gang, are on the loose again. These two, Jean Olson and Jean Keefe, have been terrorizing half of Australia.

Because of the cold weather in Antarctica, Lawrence Petersen has been very busy. Lawrence is an undertaker and more people freeze there.

Hula Weekly—It seems that Hawaii's most famous hula teacher, Wally Amundson, has many new pupils. One of his most astonishing members is Miss Marie Wehrenberg. Wally says that Marie is doing wonderful and soon will be on her own.

As we were looking through the Screen Guide we discovered that Yvonne Bicknese has just been named "Miss Cass Daly of 1957."

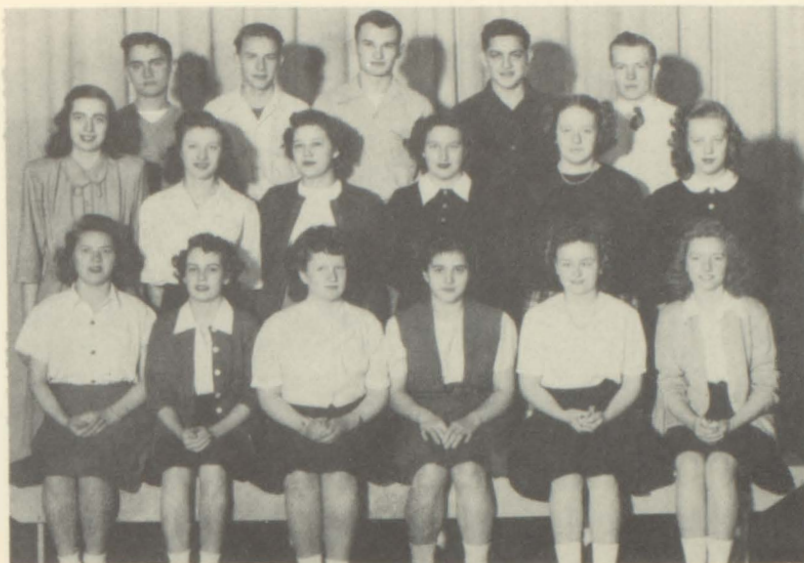

Frank Shimer has just been employed as a veterinarian on a dude ranch. The thing Frank knows most about is how to cure for a broken leg.

Back in the Ozark hills we see in the Moonshine Bulletin that the feud between Hodd Todd and Steve has now developed into a hair pulling contest between their wives, Gladys Todd, formerly Gladys Asleson, and Lorraine Tolliver, formerly Lorraine Ferguson. These faithful wives are saving much gunpowder for their husband.

Rochester Post Bulletin—Marjorie Baker, who played in the Chatfield band, is now playing square dances at the Rochester State Hospital. Marjorie has been there since right after graduation.

Now let's look in the want ads in our own Chatfield News. Here's one that will interest everyone. "Wanted: More men for my lonely hearts club.—Genny Haas."

VALENTINE'S DAY

Tomorrow is Valentine's Day. This gala event is usually celebrated with a party of some kind. We needn't, however, think we were the only ones who started it because it is one of the oldest of customs. The custom of exchanging valentines is not that new. It was an old habit of the Romans to make that Valentine's Day. Women used to exchange them. Common sense would suggest that a lady should not be so common. There are no more now. The custom is beautiful. It is also a very nice effect. There is a love letter with a love verse which is his best gift.

LINCOLN

Abraham Lincoln, a simple country boy was born February 12, 1809 in Virginia. He later moved with his parents to Indiana. Most of his education he received from reading. He was a hard working boy and well-liked by all the people. He took charge of a store at New Salem, Ill., where he studied law. Later he was elected to the Legislature and Congress. He now had a chance to express his views of his hatred for slavery. The year, 1858, brought about the historic debates with Stephen Douglas. In 1860 he became the President of the United States. He is said to be a self-made man. He was a very informal man and often received very distinguished guests just as he would members of the family.

Lincoln's assassination was a great loss to the people as he understood the common people, as well as the aristocrats. The Gettysburg Address is remembered by all as his greatest piece of literature.

As modern sidelight Lincoln's son turned over to the Congressional Library a group of papers, a letter belonging to his father to be opened to public after 21 years. This year in June the 21st year will have passed and the papers will be turned over to the public. They probably will explain many reasons why Lincoln did what he did about some things. It might be well for us to follow up these things, as many things that Abraham Lincoln did greatly affects the lives of each one of us.

REVIEW

Chatfield vs. Wykoff. On their home floor. Chatfield lost to Wykoff 43-41. "Up and down" Gophers pulling into the lead. Then having the Wykoff ever. The Fielders had Wykoff team previous home floor for a conference. Thus, however, was a non-competitive game.

The high point men for both teams looped through fifteen points. Hoist starred for the Fielders, and Christopher starred for Wykoff. Wykoff's Edman showed expert marksmanship when he made seven field goals. Amundson and Gross tied for eleven points. Lees and Harwood, forward and guard respectively, shared six points apiece.

PREFVIEW

In a non-competitive game on our home floor, Chatfield will try to get the Wykoff Wildcat which ended in a good defeat. Our boys will be in a conference game to be played on our home floor, Feb. 21. In a non-competitive game at Rushford, the Gophers were defeated, and are hoping that this defeat will not be repeated. In the first game, several of the Chatfield players were unable to play, and with the regular team back in action the Gophers shall endeavor to be the victors.

JOE MANAHAN

Seventeen years ago on January 21, 1830, Joe Manahan made his appearance into this world. He attended grade school four miles east of Chatfield at District 76. He then enrolled in C.H.S. as a freshman, making him a member of the class of '47.

Joe has been a member of the school police and football squad for two years.

Among his favorite sports and amusements are football and riding. He is a member of the school band. Roast pork or cream pie will satisfy Joe's appetite for any meal. Staying after school is his pet peeve.

King is his pet peeve. Joe plans to get a job in Minnesota. Were he of luck, Joe!

I do not think I could have endured the worries and hardships that Billy had in the story, "The Adventure of Billy Topcat." This little boy got into many strange predicaments but usually he came through them with good luck.

I recommend the book to anyone who would like an interesting story. It will seem a peasant girl who has the opportunity to dance.

Junior Class Play

The junior class play, "Shiny Nose" by Christopher Sergel was presented on November 22. George Anderson (D. Hoiseth) slips the ring on Janey's (M. McConnell) finger as Allen Rogers (K. Arsers) helps Helen (D. Bailey) with her coat. The director, Miss Wall, and Madge Grant (M. Wurtzler) have little trouble making Paul Garry look like Coach Brown. Peggy (M. Busher) helps Mr. Marble (M. Asleson) with his game of solitaire while Zip (M. Stokes) keeps her mother (R. Finseth) entertained.

Senior Class Play

On May 9 the seniors gave "Girl-Shy" by Katherine Kavanaugh as their class play. Aunt Caroline (G. Brown) is working hard to make an impression on Dean Marlowe (F. Shimer). Mr. Arsdale (L. Petersen) prefers reading to being interrupted by Asma (M. Bradt). Tom Arsdale (D. Leas) and Barbara Sanford (G. Asleson) cuddle up while Peaches Carter (J. Herrick) makes a big impression by straightening Oke Stimson's (J. Sorenson) tie. Alfred Tennyson Murgatoyd (B. Brogan) thrills Birdie Laverne (G. Haas) and Sylvia Webster (B. Pease) with his poetry. Chuck Mayo (G. Crowson) seems to prefer the radio.

The Chatfield band of 1947 was one of the most complimented and best bands that Chatfield has had since Mr. Arsers began directing in 1932. The high spot of the year was a trip to the University of Minnesota where a thirty-minute concert was given to the members of the M.M.E.A. (Minnesota Music Educators' Association). The band was highly praised for this performance. It was a high honor to play there, since only one band in the state was allowed to participate in this event.

On April 19 the district music contest was held at Chatfield, and on May 3 the state contest was held at Owatonna.

Two members, F. Shimer and J. Sorenson, who have played since 1942 are graduating. Other seniors include M. Baker, J. Olson, L. Ferguson and G. Asleson.

Chatfield's football team of '46 successfully defended their district title, tying with Caledonia for the championship.

The team, led by captain Wally Amundson, opened the season with a decisive 21-0 victory over Harmony. The Gophers then downed Mabel by a 31-0 score. Preston proved stubborn, but fell, 12-0. Having a good passing attack which netted 2 touchdowns, the Gophers defeated Lanesboro 25-12. The Gophers edged Spring Grove 13-6 to cinch a tie for the title, but lost Frank Shimer, the ace tailback, with a knee injury for the rest of the season.

In a torrent of rain and a sea of mud, Caledonia defeated Chatfield 32-0, to finish in a tie for the district championship.

The season closed with a 0-0 tie with the hard-fighting St. Charles eleven on Armistice Day.

Chatfield placed two men, Wally Amundson, an end, and Merlin Asleson, a guard, on the all-conference team. Paul Garry at tackle, and Dooley Hoiseth at quarterback, were chosen on the 2nd all-conference team. The Gophers amassed 102 points to their opponents 50 points. Seniors playing their last game were: Wally Amundson, Don Leas, Frank Shimer, Joe Monahan, Benton Wimmer, and Sturgiss Banker. Eleven lettermen led by '47's co-captains, Paul Garry and Larry Ferguson, will return to defend the title.

Coach W. Stephen's basketball charges ended their 1947 season with an impressive conference record of 8 wins against 3 losses, which gained them third place in the conference standing.

With five lettermen on hand from previous years, the team got off to a fast conference start with well-earned victories over Lanesboro, Wykoff, Harmony, Houston and Peterson. Chatfield's first conference loss came at the hands of a hard-fighting Caledonia club which cut off a late Gopher rally to win by the scant margin of 30-28. Following this the Gophers defeated Spring Grove, Rushford and Preston, and dropped close contests to Mabel and Canton.

Highlights of the season included a four-minute successful stall at Preston, see-saw battle with Houston, black-out at Mabel which delayed the game, overtime struggle with St. Charles, and the unforgettable Canton game.

Leading the Gopher's scoring attack were Don Hoiseth and Wally Amundson who collected a season's total of 243 and 196 points respectively.

Throughout the season Chatfield was continually hit with sickness and injuries resulting in a constant change in the starting lineup. Don Leas, who had scored exactly 100 points, was lost to the team shortly before the tournament.
