DEDICATION

We, the class of 1959, dedicate our Burr Oak to you John Bras, our exchange student. A great challenge was set before you, as you journeyed to Chatfield, Minnesota, from your homeland, Crete, in order to bring about a better understanding between your homeland and ours. We feel that you have fulfilled this challenge, and we truly hope we have assisted you in some way. May all your memories of Chatfield and the United States be very pleasant ones, as we are sure our memories of you will always pay a high tribute to you and to your country.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of September of 1947, 35 anxious boys and girls timidly approached the doors of C.H.S. Under the capable, guiding hand of Miss Elstad the following students were the chartered members of the class of 1959: Jerry Bailey, Joyce Bailey, Kirk Bolles, Jim Buchanan, Rita Butler, Sharon Butler, Sharon Bothum, Ronda Easler, Ronnie Fay, Karen Ferguson, Bridget Fritz, Dorothy Healy, Mic Holets, Teresa Hunfeld, Stan Jervis, Ken Johnson, Rebecca Laumb, Eu Linders, Kay Meunier, Karen Mickelson, Jean Mitchell, Marjorie Pieper, Paul Rasmussen, Gorden Richards, Jeanne Richards, Larry Rogers, Yvette Rogers, Bob Rose, Pat Sanford, Rosemary Scott, Charlene Simpson, Beata Shaw, Laurie Stephens, and Karen Stephens.

The following year we were joined by Donna Scharlberg and Bonnie Stecker. Our teacher, Miss Duane, taught us reading, writing, and arithmetic.

Miss Demmer greeted us at the beginning of our third year at which time no one moved to or away from our class.

Going into the fourth grade we were greeted by Miss Morrisroe and five new students--Dennis Hove, Gary Bernard, Dave Holets, Jerry Richter, and Rosemary Strain.

At the beginning of our fifth grade Mrs. Kruger welcomed us at the door; we neither gained nor lost anyone at this time.

For our sixth grade we were joined by Ronald Schoeppner. who, with the rest of us, listened intentively to Miss Gade before making the transition into high school.

Now the time came when everyone was quite confused, and befuddled, as if we had lost our way, for, at last, we were in high school. Doris Strande, Archie Asleson, Bill Conway, Charlotte Heikes, Carl Dailey, Jerry Olson, Barbara Schrader, Lois Greenlee, Dennis Gunderson, Dave Eggert, Pete Hutton, Gene Horsman, Bob Warner, and Pat O'Niel were additional members of our class. Some members we have lost; others we have gained, but with each one we have had pleasant memories.

Lois King, Jean Williams, Mary Clark, Sharon Dunn, Lyman Grieve, Bob Walker, Bill Warner, Mary Hedberg, Bill Means, Sharon Willie, Shirley Loth, Alice Knutson, Joyce Ahern, Linda Copeman, Richard Severnson, Wayne Gammell, and Wayne Baker increased our ranks as we began a year of more school work and less play for our eighth grade.

The following year we became "green freshmen" and the sophomores had a wonderful time initiating us into Senior High. At this time we were joined by Julie Sutherland, Bob Mort, Arla Olson, Carol Ahern, LaDonna Buss, Kenneth Baier, Sharon Rexford, Marguerite Lucas, Gene Rehling, and Beverly Lindbeck.

As sophomores we had the choice of taking geometry and typing as elective courses. Leonard Colvin, John Julian, and Susan Lowrie joined us for a happy year.

Our junior year we welcomed Lester Galbraith in time to receive our class rings and help with the Prom. Daydreaming was a disease among us as we whiled away the hours anticipating our next big year.

Since time can not be held back our senior days were finally upon us. Additions to our class were; Clair Horsman, Judy Krenzke, Earl Craush, and Peter Hutton; and we were also happy to welcome John Bras, our foreign exchange student from Greece. During the year, activities and school affairs went by all too quickly for most of us. Through the years our number has varied but those that will share our memories of the biggest school affair--graduation--are: Carol Ahern, Archie Asleson, Donna Asleson, Kenneth Baier, Wayne Baker, John Bras, James Buchanan, LaDonna Buss, Rita Butler, Sharon Butler, Leonard Colvin, William Conway, Linda Copeman, Carl Dailey, Ronda Easler, Ronald Fay, Bridget Fritz, Lester Galbraith, Wayne Gammell, Lois Greenlee, Lyman Grieve, Dennis Gunderson, Mary Hedberg, Charlotte Heikes, David Holets, Eugene Horsman, Clair Horsman, Dennis Hove, Teresa Hunfeld, Lois King, Shirley Loth, Susan Lowrie, Marguerite Lucas, William Means, Katherine Meunier, Jean Mitchell, Arla Olson, Gene Rehling, Jerry Richter, Lawrence Rogers, Robert Rose, Ronald Schoeppner, Barbara Schrader, Rosemary Scott, Richard Severson, Beata Shaw, Bonnie Stecker, Karen Stephens, Laurie Stephens, Doris Strande, Robert Walker, Robert Warner, Sharon Willie.

To the seniors--Class of 1959--we extend our best wishes for all the luck and success in the future.

CLASS WILL

This being our last will and testament we, the seniors of "59," being of sound mind and body, bequeath these, our most prized possessions as we pass out into the cold, cruel world, to the Juniors of "60."

Queen Carol Ahern and King Dennis Gunderson leave their homecoming royalty to some lucky junior girl and boy.

Gene Rehling leaves his cowboy boots and uke to Bob Baker.

Kenny Baier leaves his physique to Kenny Lacey.

Archie Asleson leaves!! Thank goodness.

Bob Rose leaves his injuries behind.

Ronda Easler leaves her freckles to Betty Lou Pavlish.

Bob Warner says, "Having nothing to leave, I shall pass on in state."

Jean Mitchell leaves her sleepiness to anybody who's tired enough.

Teresa Hunfeld leaves her soberness to Dean Arnold.

Linda Copeman wills her bashfulness to Jimmy Ellis.

Barbara Schrader wills her night life to Pat Ward.

Ronnie Fay leaves his ease, grace, and getting along with teachers to Don Turner.

Larry Rogers leaves his ability to disturb women to Willis Martin.

To Jack and Judy Denny we, Karen and Laurie Stephens leave our relationship.

Judy Krenzke leaves her cool temper to some sweet little junior girl.

Charlotte Heikes wills her quiet, courteous ways to Karen Johnson. Remember courtesy always pays.

Ronnie Schoeppner wills his sleeping sickness to Orville Matzke. Only one catch, no snoring allowed. LaDonna Buss leaves her editorship of the annual to some ambitious junior.

Donna Asleson leaves her position as clarinet player to Steve Bailey.

Kay Meunier wills her short stature to anyone who wants it.

Doris Strande bequeaths her Senior cheerleading position to Sonova Egge who already has a good start.

John Bras leaves our school and America to go back to his homeland in Greece.

Lester Galbraith wills his sense of humor to Judy Chase.

Bill Means leaves the remainder of his dancing lessons to some energetic Junior.

William Conway leaves his ability to get up at 8:26 and get to school by 8:27 to some Junior boy that needs his sleep.

Bob Walker leaves his height and athletic ability to Dave Stemp.

Lois King leaves her double A-pluses to Larry Apple.

Mary Hedberg leaves her pleasant disposition to Lois Bernard.

Rosemary Scott leaves her office duties to any ambitious junior girl.

Carl Dailey wills his ability to get his lessons done to John Bungum.

Arla Olson wills her talkative personality to Paula Fisher.

Wayne Gammell leaves quietly.

Jerry Richter leaves his jokes to anyone who can stand them.

Bridget Fritz leaves her joke book to Becky Holets.

Sharon Butler bequeaths her masculine charm to Charlotte Finley.

Richard Severson wills his chair in chorus to Wayne Anderson.

Dennis Hove and Marguerite Lucas leave together.

We, Sharon Wille and Shirley Loth, bequeath our techniques for getting our men to all junior girls, hoping they have better luck.

James Buchanan gives to Ruth Barnes his perfect attendance record!

David Holets has decided to leave part of his artistic talent to some fortunate Junior.

Wayne Baker decided to take all he has with him.

Rita Butler wills her giggles to Tom McMahon.

Lois Greenlee wills her wonderful personality and smile to Carole Ober.

Lyman Grieve wills his gas bills to Darrell Richter.

Susan Lowrie wills her red hair to Judy Spelhaug.

Bonnie Stecker bequeaths her timid ways to Judy Strande. This may prove interesting!!!

Beata Shaw wills her friendly manner to Phyllis Borgen.

Eugene Horsman, a member of the football team, wills his ability to have a Charley horse, sprained ankle, and a bloody nose to David Tuohy.

Leonard Colvin and Clair Horsman wills their memberships in the Bachelor's Club to Peter Matousek and Donald Severson.

Juniors, we the Seniors of "59" have sacrificed these, our most prized possessions to you--take good care of them and use them well.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is 1970 and I have just returned from an extended tour of the seven seas. Upon my voyage I have had many harrowing experiences--strange as it may seem while I was marooned in the South Seas one night upon a blood-stained deck, Chief Red Legs prophesied the following features for the Seniors of 1959.

Bill Means is still a bachelor and working on his 2nd million. He missed his first.

Clair Horsman is now engaged in drawing Mutt and Jeff Cartoons.

Wayne Baker is president of the Kaiser-Frazer Auto Factory in Detroit.

Doris Strande owns controlling interest in Toddlers Toy Tops. (baby caps)

Gene Rehling has controlling interest of the Brooklyn Bridge.

LaDonna Buss has just become head nurse at the Chatfield Clinic.

Shirley Loth has recently taken over Tug Boat Annie's place on Lake Superior.

Lester Galbraith is still working his way through college selling Brown's Hair Restorer.

Ronald Fay is in the process of staking out a home-stand in Alaska.

Leonard Colvin has just received fame for his patent of the "Hold the Tail While You Milk" gadget.

Lois Greenlee is home on furlough from her duties with the U. S. Women's Army as physical instructor.

Arla Olson is thinking of starting a secretarial school for underpaid teachers.

Susan Lowrie's new comic strip, "Smilin Sam O'Dell" has met with amazing success.

Archie Asleson is master sergeant in U. S. Army checking rookies pea shooters.

Bob Rose has discovered a new wonder drug which is guaranteed to cure ingrown toenails.

Dennis Gunderson and Lyman Grieve have recently published their book "Ballet Dancing in 10 Easy Lessons."

Bridget Fritz and her husband operate a prosperous cattle ranch in Argentina.

Gene Horsman heads a Rumba Dancing School for "Men Only" in Chicago.

Mary Hedberg is a great success at raising chickens on her homie near Troy.

Sharon Wille is playing Chinese checkers with the chinks in China.

Larry Rogers is head manager of the Tiny Tot Shoe Company of Dover.

David Holets is head of a Lonely Hearts Club.

Ronnie Schoeppner is head interpreter for Navajo Indians in Arizona.

Charlotte Heikes is working on the Bar X Ranch breaking bronchos. "Ouch."

Wayne Gammell, skilled brake liner, has just bought another garage in New York.

Bob Warner is head man at Joey's gym, teaching Chest Expansion.

Karen Stephens is now drivers training teacher at C.H.S.

Carol Ahern is the famous author of "Two Can Live as Cheaply as One."

Judy Krenzke is the roving reporter on "Advice to Lovelorn" for the Chatfield News.

Rita Butler has one of the best "Used Car Lots" this side of the Mississippi.

Richard Severson is head stock buyer for Hormel.

John Bras has just returned to his farm from a lovely trip to Niagara Falls.

Teresa Hunfeld and Linda Copeman recently completed a series of paintings for Esquire boot polish.

Bonnie Stecker and Laurie Stephens are now making a thorough study of all the Smiths in the U. S.

Beata Shaw is running a steak house with specialty, "Well-done" steaks.

Donna Asleson and Ronda Easler are now writing a book entitled "100 Ways to Appear Tall."

Kay Meunier has broken her own record again playing on All-American Women's Basketball Team. She is now up to 55 points per game.

Jim Buchanan is the State Highway Patrolman whose specialty is bringing to justice reckless driving and illegal mufflers.

Bob Walker and his wonder horse, Flyalong, have signed a contract with (GMG) Guido Movie Guild for a new movie entitled "Dead-Eye Dies Again."

Rosemary Scott is the operator of a peanut stand in Coney Island.

Jean Mitchell now owns and operates the "Wilder Wildcat Night Club of Wykoff.

From Chatfield Dairy we hear that Marguerite Lucas and Dennis Hove are working on a new milk product. At last report they were feeding cocoa beans to the cows and getting chocolate milk.

Barbara Schrader is the President of Brooklyn's Women's Wrestling Association.

Bill Conway recently married a hard working woman and retired.

Kenneth Baier is now high up in the world--washing windows in the Empire State Building.

Carl Dailey is a lonesome shepherd in the Lone Star State.

Jerry Richter is Wanted! for robbing old ladies' homes.

Lois King is working for the underground-ticket taker for a subway train.

Sharon Butler raises many children every day--as an elevator girl.

After many years of "knocking about" here I am back again at Chatfield High School to find every portion of Chief Red Leg's prophesy has been fulfilled.

The Student Senate is the representative group of the student body which makes and helps to carry our suggestions that will contribute to the betterment of the school. Members include a boy and girl from each senior-high class, one representative from each junior-high class, and one representative from each of the clubs or organizations of the school.

The profits from the Magazine Drive this year will be used to obtain a Hi-Fi set and to aid in purchasing a wrestling mat for the school. In addition, $100 will be contributed to the Student Foreign Exchange program.

The Student Senate actively supported Homecoming festivities by participating on the Coronation, Pep Fest, and Parade committees. Other activities which the Student Senate sponsor include the Christmas and All School parties.

This year's plans include further study and work on the Teenage Code of Behavior and a Code of Dress. The point system, also, will be reviewed.

Officers for this year are: Marguerite Lucas, president; Donna Asleson, vice-president; and Mic Evans, secretary-treasurer.

We of C.H.S. are proud of the job that our Student Senate is doing, and I am sure it will keep up the good job of representing us.

"The Distinguished Cast"

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"No More Homework" was the junior class presentation for 1958.

Pamela Jones (Betty Lou Pavlish) finds herself in a whirl as acting-principal for a day. Buzzy Bailey (Wayne Anderson) much to Principal Lundquists (John Bungum) disgust, is acting vice-principal. Shalimar (Beck Holets) a trouble maker, takes over Miss Dill's (Carole Ober) place as school secretary. Midge Murphy (Pat Matousek), fond of rumors and bubble gum; slow, sleepy Paversam Lightly (Bob Sullivan) and Tallulah Ploetz (Carman Odegarden), the schools gift to the The-ah-chur, add complication after complication. Mr. Ames, (Jim Lobland) President of the School board, finds over-confident, basketball star Ronald Sassoon (Bill Burnap) in a rather embarrassing situation. Romance kicks up its lovely heels, too, in this merry turn about. Who would have guessed that elderly Miss Goodin (Ruth Barnes) "carried a torch" for the confirmed faculty bachelor, Mr. Harper (Steve Bailey)? Who would even have imagined that "Tick" tak, the Napoleonic janitor (Jim Strande) would eventually dominate the demon scrub lady Mrs. Ratchet (Neva Horsman)? Breezy Coach Guthrie (Willis Martin), sensitive to heat, Mrs. Clendenning (Pat Ward) and last but not least the Drah-ma coach, Miss Ogilvie (Sonova Egge) add to the head-aches of the day.

Miss Radsek directed the play. Lois Bernard assisted as student director.

"Whose room needs heat now?"

"I'm just the secretary here, remember?"

"How dare you!"

"That's my bucket!"

HOMECOMING

"The Big Moment"

Bob Rose crowning
King Dennis and Queen Carol

Homecoming festivities were as exciting as ever this year. They got under way by our fairy god-mother, Judy Severson, crowning our Queen and King, Carol Ahern and Dennis Gunderson. The at-tendants were Phyllis Borgan, as junior attendant, and Jeannette Thieke as sophomore attendant. John Bras, our foreign exchange student from Greece, was honorary Prince.

Following the coronation, the snake dance was led through town by the cheerleaders, after which the bonfire and pep talk were held. We held our parade the day of homecoming with all the grades partici-pating. The eighth grade float won first prize with the senior, junior, and sophomore floats tying for second.

Despite the fact that the Gophers lost the game to Lewiston, the dance which was held afterwards in the gym was enjoyed by all and another successful homecoming had ended.

John Bras, Honorary Prince; Jeannette Thieke, sopho-more attendant; Dennis Gunderson, King; Carol Ahern, Queen; Phyllis Borgan, junior attendant.

C. Manahan, J. Judd, Dennis Gunderson, King; Carol Ahern, Queen; C. Campion, R. Bergstrom.

A-TEAM FOOTBALL

The 1958 football season found the Chatfield Gophers very short in experience. Because of the great loss of the seniors of the year before, the team finished with a 3-4-2 record.

They opened the season with a 6-6 tie with Caledonia in the mud and rain. Then the Gophers traveled to Farmington and played to a 7-7 tie. The next two games found the Gophers on the short end by losing to Stewartville 13-0 and to Plainview 18-0. Chatfield finally found the winning way by dumping St. Charles 20-6. They went down to a hard 19-6 loss to Lewiston in our annual homecoming game. The team found the winning way again by downing Wabasha 27-0. Plagued by a great number of injuries the Gophers traveled to Wykoff and were defeated 13-0. The Gophers finished with flying colors by running away with Preston 27-6.

The Gophers placed three players on the all conference team. They were: Dennis Gunderson, John Bungum, and Jim Buchanan.

Graduating from this year's team are the following boys: Dennis Gunderson, Bob Walker, Jim Buchanan, Eugene Horsman, Leonard Colvin, and Gene Rehling.
