MRS. ALYCE M. BERNATZ

DEDICATION

A memory is a lovely thing
To be cherished and treasured,
To be kept 'for a chilly day
That it might bring warmth to our hearts.

When the last of these twelve years has passed by,
We will gather our memories and hold them
Fondly to our hearts.

Among these memories, as precious as fine jewels,
Are thoughts of those dear ones whom
We have walked beside through these years,
Of those individuals who, with a kind and
Steady hand, have guided us through these
Years of learning, preparing us for the world
Which awaits us.

Among these devoted ones, the image of one
Stands out from the rest;
The image of one who, with untiring efforts
And devotion, has given a part of herself
In order that we might benefit.

To this individual, Mrs. Alyce M. Bernatz,
We, the Class of 1963, proudly dedicate
Our Burr Oak.

CLASS PROPHECY

After ten years of useless wandering I returned to dear ole Chatfield to see how my comrads had faired. This is an exact account of my findings.

Lynn Asher and Vince Tuohy struck gold in the Yukon and are making a fortune.

Carol Sullivan is still out at the bridge.

Becky Miller is writing the "Peanuts" comic strip.

Dave Harwood and Lyle Grieve own and operate a successful distillery in the Kentucky hills.

Larry Strande is playing basketball with the Lakers.

Bob Ferguson is the leader of a new Confederate Movement.

Nancy Amundson is a Spanish-English translator at Tiawana Jail.

The first girls football team was formed by Miss Doris Shaw, a prominent physical education teacher.

Ace Asleson is still riding around--wonder if he'll ever run out of gas!

Dick Tuohy is still riding around with him.

Sharon and Karen Hanson are running a charm school in the East.

Gary Krull still has that look in his eye; his theme song is "The Little Black Book."

Keith Lacey has developed a new method for splitting the atom.

Bettle Bailey is one of the ten most wanted men. He steals candy from babies.

Gerald Bamlet is chief owner of a large chain of hot dog stands on Coney Island.

Marletta Martin has won fame as a lady stock car racer.

John Emunu has given up his job as a science teacher and is now devoting all his time to the task of teaching the people in Uganda how to bowl.

Jim Birch and Gary Narveson have organized Minnesota's first home for delinquent parents.

Liz Metzger has just completed a tour of the United States. She has been giving a series of speeches on the subject of love.

Donna Borgen is now head waitress at "Bert's Beer Garden" near Preston.

Sharon Worden has become known from coast to coast as a famous lady calf roper.

Donnie Pease is driving a "409."

Dennis Stephens is still picking up the lead sink stoppers in the physics lab.
 Mike Richer is president of the Harvey White fan club.
 Arnie Skrukud is playing left-out wing for the Montreal Canadians of the National Hockey League.
 Dick Bradt has won fame as Hollywood's number one lover.
 Gary Hoffman is attending an agricultural institute specializing in the growing of split peas.
 Gretchen Stemp's recording of "Thumbelina" has sold in the millions. It's expected to equal the sales of Bing Crosby's "White Christmas."
 Skip Herrick is running a filling station on the outskirts of Troy called "Skip's 66."
 Marcia Amundson is the first woman president of the Boy Scouts of America.
 Chuck Whitcomb is the first male president of the Women's Temperance Union.
 Betty Lynch and Janet Keefe are the nation's top promoters of Alcoholics Anonymous.
 Ian Hervey and his car are still at the school parking lot. He can't get the darn thing started!
 Tom Schroeder operates a gambling casino in Reno.
 Denny Hanson has won fame as Hard-Boiled Hanson, a well-known professional wrestler.
 Joe Burnap is Hard-Boiled Hanson's tag team partner.
 Don Horman has won great fame as an engineer. He is the best man at the throttle for the Santa Fe.
 Everett Wright is the first American astronaut to land on Venus. Wonder if he found anything interesting there!
 Io Meland is now head of West Point Military Academy.
 Pam Jacobson is playing the part of Daisy Mae in the refilming of the movie "Lil Abner."
 Dale Horsman is relaxing on a sunny beach in Florida. He married a millionaire's daughter and retired immediately.
 Earl Button is still a bachelor.
 Geraldine Sorum and Wanda Anderson sing first soprano for the Metropolitan Opera.
 Sandra Horsman now has a job with NBC-TV. She scrubs floors at the KROC television studio.
 On graduation day Fred Strain was chased up the flagpole by a mad dog, and he has never come down. He has set a record for flagpole sitting that will never be equaled.
 Bob Nelson is owner of a large manufacturing concern--"Bobby's Baby Booties."
 Sharon Horsman is still trying to figure out how she passed solid; aren't we all?!

Kenny Olson has spent the last ten years trying to figure out a mathematical solution to the problem of how all the king's horses and all the king's men could have put Humpty Dumpty together again.
 Marlene Horsman is the first professional woman boxer in the state of Minnesota.
 Tob Heroff has recently been kicked off the nursing staff at Methodist Hospital. She was caught kicking patients out of bed so she could get some sleep herself for a change.
 Colleen Bemard is now elementary school principal at Troy, Minnesota.
 Leonard Kruegar is a commercial fisherman off the Coast of Siberia.
 Bill Rowen is owner of "Rowen's Root Beer Inc." at Saratoga.
 Rose Smock and Marilyn Rudlong certainly have had their ups and downs in life--they are employed at testing ski lifts in various resorts around the country.
 Linda Arnold and Judy Salter are members of an underworld gang. They take tickets on the Chicago subways.
 Geraldine Colvin is driver's training teacher at CVHS.
 Carl Goldsmith is on special duty for the Minneapolis Police Force. His job is to investigate a recent outburst of bean shooter and squirt gun robbers.
 Sonja Crowson has raised several hundred children in the last few years. She is employed as an elevator operator.
 Bob Brogan has finally reached the top. He washed the windows of New York skyscrapers.
 Wendell Anderson's new TV programs "Whistle Along with Wendell" precedes Ross Goldsmith's program, "Hop Along with Cassidy."
 Charlotte Kohlmeier this year won the Pillsbury's Best Award for her recipes for "Gooseberry Goo."
 Lois Hoiseth has just completed a series of abstract paintings. The most famous is called "The Blob."
 This has been a complete account of my findings. Let's hope the next ten years are much more profitable.

CLASS WILL

CLASS WILL:

We, the members of the class of "63," being of rather weak minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath these, our most prized (and only) possessions to the more fortunate and deserving members of the junior class as we pass from the halls of CVHS forever.

To Mickey Stokes, Bill Rowen wills his combination of brains and brawn.

Sharon Worden wills her daintiness to Joyce Strande.

Judy Salter wills her position in the physics class to some lucky junior girl.

Bob Ferguson leaves his crazy sense of humor to Mike Jefferis.

Karen Hanson and Linda Arnold leave in search of husbands.

Nancy Amundson leaves her homemaking abilities to Mary Chase.

Dale Horsman leaves in hope of never returning.

Lynn Asher wills his collection of overdue make-up slips and unmatched shoes to John Copeman.

Lyle Grieve leaves for the Pla-Mor.

Dave Harwood leaves with him.
 Becky Miller leaves her cowbell to Bemice Fenske.
 Ace Aselson leaves his gas bill to Craig Fisher.
 Vince Tuohy wills his ability to get along with girls to Glenn Bernard.
 Dennis Stephens wills his ability to always be first in the lunch line to Pete Manahan.
 Wendell Anderson leaves his musical ability to Steve Strange.
 Donnie Pease leaves his driving ability, including tickets, to Duane Halvorson.
 Fred Strain leaves! ! !
 Io Meland, Colleen Bernard, and Tob Heroff leave their distinction as the trio to Bonnie Johnson, Sue Jacobson, and Susie Brogan.
 Lenny Krueger leaves his love for hunting to Gary Street.
 Doris Shaw wills her ability to speak and write fluent Spanish to Mike Busian.
 Liz Metzger leaves her ability to make people laugh in speech class to Cheryl Mundell.
 Beetle Bailey leaves his collection of bugs and butterflies to Jerome Easler.
 Carl Goldsmith wills his ability to do the chicken reel to Reid Trulson.
 Jim Birch takes everything he has with him.
 Donna Borgen wills her night life to Dee Dee Olson.
 Carol Sullivan wills her ambition to Rick Theike.
 Gerald Bamlet leaves the remainder of his cha cha lessons to Wayne King.
 Everett Wright leaves to go roller skating.
 Lois Hoiseth wills her giggles to Charlotte McMahon.
 Keith Lacey leaves his sliderule to Larry Krenske.
 Gary Krull leaves to take his new position as editor of an advice-to-the-lovelorn column.
 Gary Hoffman leaves his collection of welding rods to Mr. Seha.
 Dick Bradt leaves his ball carrying ability in football to Jim Fritz.
 Skip Herrick wills his shyness to Mike Walker.
 John Emunu wills his bowling ability to anyone that wants it.
 Don Horman leaves his ability to read books in Mrs. Bernatz's English class to any junior who thinks he can get away with it.
 Ross Goldsmith leaves his apple chucking to anyone that can smuggle the apples out of the lunchroom.
 Mike Richer leaves, unless Mr. Fossum can catch him.
 Dick Tuohy leaves his love for the common man to Lou Ann Julian.
 Pam Jacobson wills her inability to make up her mind to Sue Ellis.
 Marletta Martin leaves her study-hall behavior to Tom Odegarten.
 Ian Hervey wills his red hair and freckles to Joe Gardner.
 Sharon Hanson leaves her walk to Carolyn Batt.
 Gretchen Stemp wills her reserved ways to Phyllis Olness.
 Tom Schroeder wills his devilishness to Mark Bungum.
 Joe Burnap wills his physique to Charles Horsman.
 Denny Hanson wills his strict diet for wrestling to anyone who wants to starve to death.
 Charlotte Kohlmeyer leaves her disorderly conduct to Reagan Miller.
 Rose Smock leaves her ability to get along with Mr. Shileney to all of next year's chorus members.
 To some member of next year's chorus, Geraldine Sorum wills her soprano voice.
 Gary Narveson leaves his hunting hat to anyone that will take it.
 Wanda Andersen leaves her notebook dictionary to someone that needs it.
 To Mona Novotny, Earl Button leaves his seriousness.
 Marcia Amundson wills her politeness to Donna Cummings.
 Marilyn Rudlong leaves her love of bookkeeping and Miss Bryant to some member of next year's bookkeeping class.
 Marlene Horsman leaves for a boxing match.
 Kenny Olson wills his smart pills to John Giehtbrock.
 Bob Brogen leaves his nickname of Chow to anyone that wants it.
 Chuck Whitcomb leaves to become a minister.
 Betty Lynch leaves for lunch.
 Janet Keefe wills her blushing ability to some red-faced junior.
 Sandra Horsman wills her love of life to Sharon Sample.
 Amie Skrukud leaves his beautiful penmanship to some lucky junior.
 Sharon Horsman leaves solid and trig. behind.
 Geraldine Colvin leaves all her earthly possessions to the members of the junior class.
 Bob Nelson leaves his romantic ways to Louie Schoppers.
 Sonja Crowson leaves forever.
 To the freshmen we leave our ability to abide by and obey the rules and regulations of this institution.
 To the sophomores we leave our ability to cooperate with all the members of the faculty.
 To the juniors we leave a psychiatrist to help them overcome their superiority complex.
 To the faculty we, the graduating class of 1963, extend our deepest sympathy for the grave loss they are about to suffer.

STUDENT SENATE

The Student Senate is the representative group of the student body which consist of two elected officials from each senior high class and one elected official from the junior high classes. Also every club or organization has a representative in the Senate.

The Student Senate's function is to make recommendations and take action for the improvement of our school. It sponsors all homecoming activities such as the coronation bonfire, pepfest, parade, and the selling of Homecoming Buttons. Other activities sponsored by the Student Senate are the Christmas parties and the all school party. The Senate also buys a useful object for the school from the profits obtained from the magazine drive.

The Senate elected Dave Harwood as president, Donna Borgen as vice-president, and Sue Jacobson as secretary-treasurer.

We, the students of Chosen Valley High School, are proud of our representatives and the good job the Student Senate is doing for us. We are looking forward to many improvements in our school.

HOMECOMING

QUEEN: JANET KEEFE
KING: DENNIS BAILEY

The homecoming festivities were as exciting as ever this year. They got under way by our fairy godmother, Nancy Brogan, crowning our Queen and King, Janet Keefe and Dennis Bailey. The attendants were Joyce Strande, as junior attendant and Penny Pease as sophomore attendant. John Emunu, our foreign exchange student from Uganda, Africa, was honorary Prince.

Preceding the coronation was a snake dance and bonfire and pepfest. The parade was held on the day of homecoming with all the grades participating. The tenth, ninth, and eleventh grades were winners in the parade competition.

Climaxing the festivities was the victory over Lanesboro and the annual Homecoming Dance with music provided by the Brother Burr Orchestra.

FOOTBALL

One of the finest football seasons in recent years ended when Chatfield overpowered Hayfield, 34-0. This game gave the Chatfield Gophers an undefeated season with a 9-0 record. Under the capable coaching of Mr. Wistrom, Mr. Converse, Mr. Ziebell, and Mr. Brown, the Gophers were ranked 13th and 25th in two separate state wide football polls. The team was ranked one of the finest football teams in southeastern Minnesota and they also walked off with the Maple Leaf Conference Championship.

Chatfield opened the season with a 14-0 victory over St. Charles. Houston was the next victim, 47-14. On September 31, the Chatfield-Harmony game was the game of the week in Minnesota. Harmony had a 30 plus game streak without a loss at stake. When the game was over the Gophers had a 37-6 victory. Preston, 19-0 and Wykoff, 31-0, were the next victims to feel the Gopher power. Lanesboro came to Chatfield on October 12th. This was Homecoming and also the Maple Leaf Conference title was at stake. A hard fought game ended with Chatfield winning 14-0 and in the drivers seat for the title. The Gophers closed the season by winning the remaining three games, Spring Valley, 32-7, Dover-Eyota, 41-0, and Hayfield, 34-0. The seasons total were 269 points scored for Chatfield and 27 points for the opponents.

The Chatfield players on the Maple Leaf All Conference Squads were Bill Rowen, Dick Tuohy, and Wayne King on the offense and defense squads. Dick Bradt made the defensive squad and Dennis Hanson was placed on the offensive squad.
