Student Life

Above: The Lifetime Sports class is being entertained by Jared Borst, Tim Walker, and Mike Haagansen. Are you guys thinking about doing this after you graduate?

Above: Hey, Noloan, did you find anything good in there?

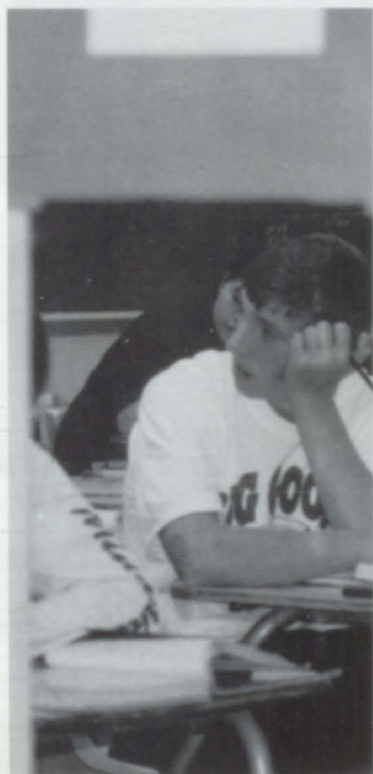

Bottom: Aren't you guys suppose to be playing your instruments? Kristin Opat stops to give us a cheesy grin, while David Severson gives us a dirty look.

Academics...

At CVHS learning is not only in the classroom but, also outside of it. We, as students, learn all we need to know from our books and teachers, while also learning the art of friendship. We are making memories that will last a lifetime. The education we get from CVHS will be something the graduating seniors will cherish forever.

Our Community

Our community, of Chatfield, is filled with smiling faces when you enter any of the many business in the town. This kindness goes from our community into our school, which makes us all better people. The things we learn from our community, we will take in to life and hopefully make other lives and communities better because of it.
