Mrs. Warneke got to kiss the pig in the "Kiss a Pig" contest by FLA. Thanks Art Club for the "large" donation!

"You met another and PPTHH, you were gone!" What a crew to meet on a dark street corner.

Left: It's the Spiney Clothes Pin Monster from Laundry Land!!!! Actually it's Luke Fratzke being his normal self.
Left Below: It's unfortunate how some of our students end up in life. Mike Urban was sent up the river for being taking one too many croutons at the salad bar. Below: "I don't know why your machine is blinking red and blue. Have you tried the F1 command?"

Left; "Sometimes I just have to sit and think. I'm a real thoughtful guy you know. I think about life. I think about the future. I think I see a bug!!!" Above: Nathan Schild with the help of Jason Miller is leaving his mark on the world.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

Florida is home of Mickey Mouse and the sight of the 1993 Senior Class Trip. How so much fun and sun can be packed into such a small space is a mystery. Here's hoping each class makes it too this paradise.

Right: Tony Baker tried to out do one of the "Hooter" girls in Hula Hoop. Sorry Tone, they've been practicing. Below: Typhoon Lagoon. A place with water, fun, and unfortunately for some "TOO MUCH SUN!". Many got fried. But what the hey; it's vacation!!!!

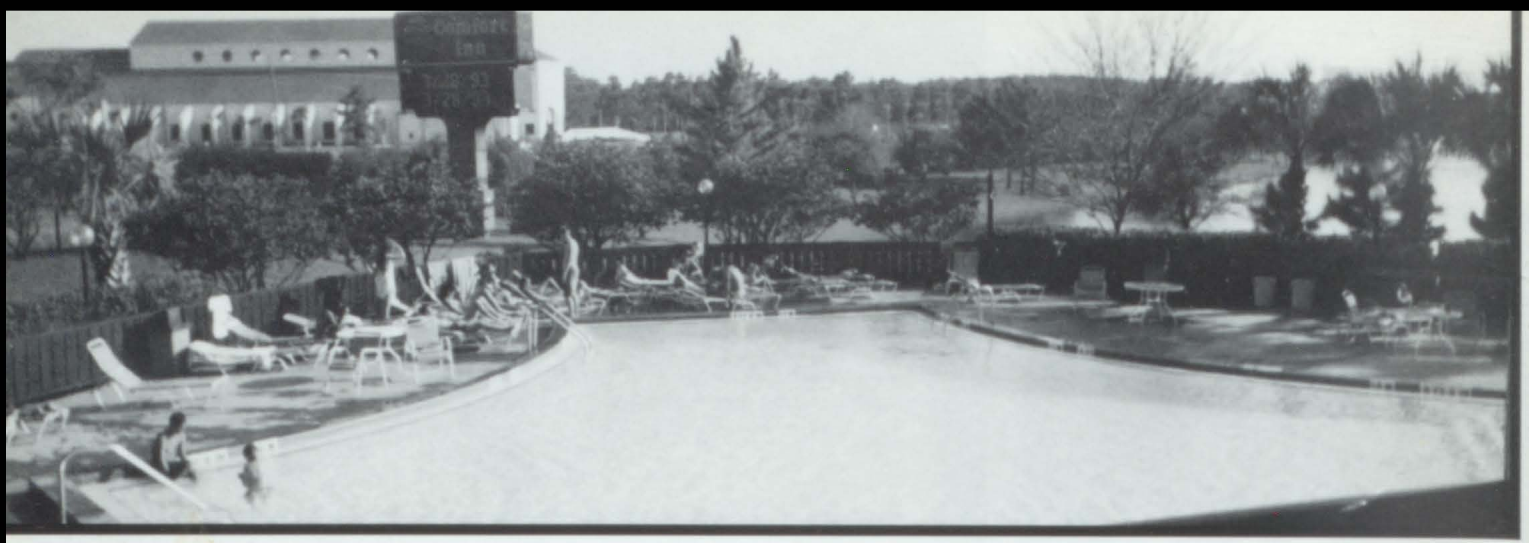

Above: Derrick Allen had this to say "I don't think it's funny guys to talk about the plane going down!". Hang in there Derrick, it's only a 4 hour flight! Above Right: Whose foot stinks? Right: "Yes! I am a beautiful shade of red but that doesn't mean that I am in pain. OUCH!" Sure Veronica, we believe you.

Above: The gang at "Hooters". In case you didn't know, we have Bryan G, Brian H, and Tony B on the left. Matt L, Mark H, Tracy F, and Steve W on the right. Steve U and Nathan S are in front. The other folks in the shot are Hooter Girls. Despite pleas from the guys they had to stay there and work and were not part of our group. Left: This picture was a must. And to think that this macho dude is going in to the service. Suppose Chris Spelhaug is showing another side?! At least he wears them well.

Above: The view from our hotel balcony. The pool was a welcome treat after a hot fun filled day. Right: More than one stopped to see this guy. The Western Steer Buffet had super food, all you could eat and most important - CHEAP!!! Below: Look girls, the genie to make all your wishes comes true. Must not have worked, they still had to come back to a couple months of school! Sally Jacobson, Sue Clemens, Genie, Tammy Bernard, Jill Walker.

Two Pictures Up: The crew. Bryan Guber, Brian Halvorson, Joe Vomhof, Damon Wilson, Kelly TeGantvoort. Above: It's either short girls or tall guys, however you wish to look at it. Brian Halvorson, and Chad Bjortomt rest on Jolene Irish and Jennifer Hamann.

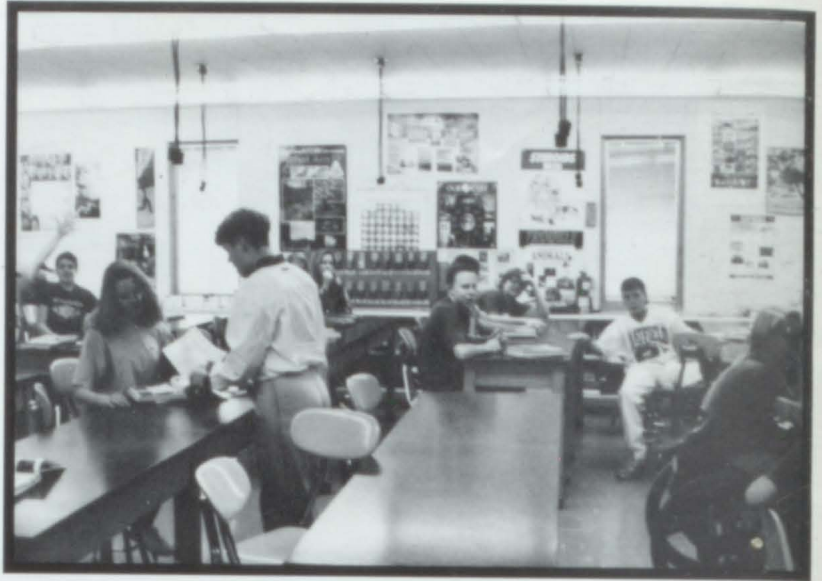

Left: The Electric Light Parade at Magic Kingdom was an awesome way to end the evening. Below: Long Hair, Sun glasses; must be movie stars in Florida. The Pointer Sisters?!. Jennifer French, Leslie Gunderson and Kari Urban on their way to stardom.

Below: Rusty Neis holding up the wall; and doing a good job of it to. You should have started studying the test Rusty! Right: Future scientific minds.

Above: You can tell that she doesn't watch her fingers when she types. She doesn't even open her eyes! Above Right: Wow that's nice Darrin. We especially like the masking tape. Do the guys around you have any idea how that tape got there?? Right: A quiet moment in the library.

Left: Earth Day 93 saw lots of action this year. Science projects were every where and the court yard came alive with new projects. Below: This was lunch the day after day.

Above left: Model office students show that they can count. Kyle can get to one. Jennifer is even more impressive with her two. Left: The High School Band. Yes! That is the entire band. One flute, one horn, and drums. They're nationally known you know! Above: And this is our entire choir! It may not be large but they have big voices!
