Take a Walk Through Changing Times:

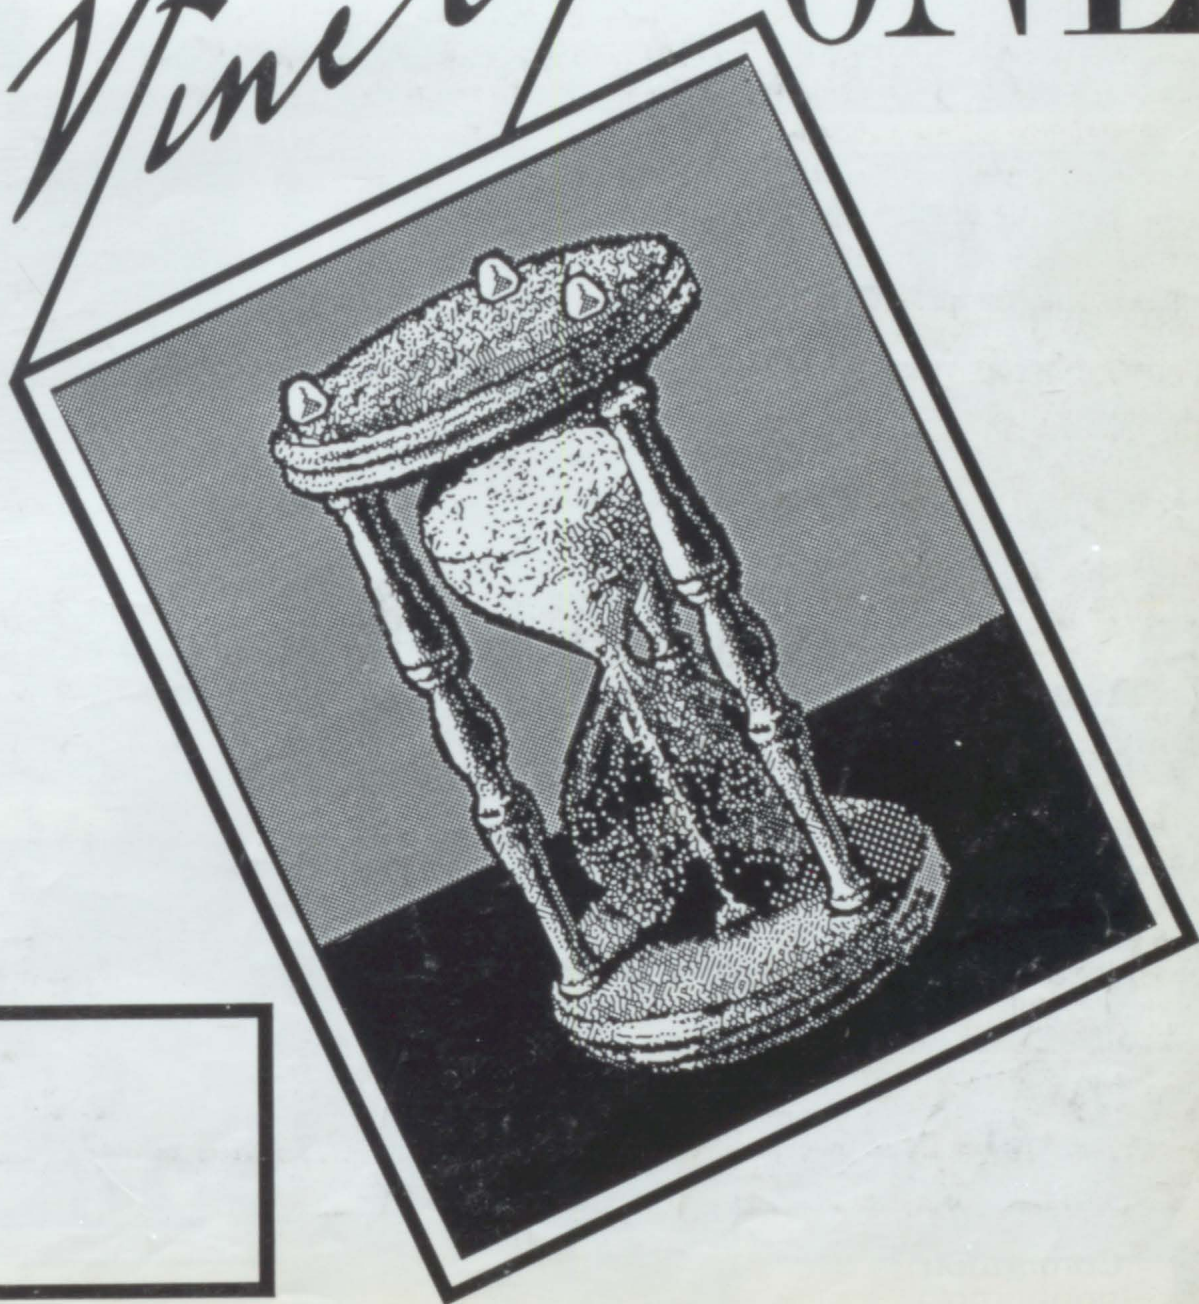

We live in an ever changing world, time rushing by as fast as we do. Things have changed so much over the years. We've all heard the stories from our parents; you know the ones about how they had to walk to school 5 miles, uphill both ways! Now we will have our own tall tales to tell. We start in Kindergarten and before you know it, we are saying our last good-byes as mighty Seniors. We have gone through the "Changing Times". Some of us "crawled", most of us "stumbled"; now we can "walk" and take our time admiring our many achievements. But there are more times ahead and more achievements to be made. Time can be a friend or an enemy. Start your "walk" through the Changing Times today.

Homecoming Coronation

The lights, the mood, the anticipation. Butterflies run rampant tonight. Six gleaming couples walked out in Heavenly white, one couple would reign over Home Coming. The Prince and Princess strolled around the gymnasium, seeking out their intended persons. Bong!! That person is out. The tension mounts as the field is narrowed to four. The handing of the rose decides our Royalty! Congratulations to Queen Tina Baker and King Mike Ferguson.

Homecoming Parade

1st Place Float - 8th Grade. The eighth grade certainly had "A Recipe for Victory!" as they clenched the first placespot with their float. Riding on the float are Jason Wright, Jonathan Schroeder, Troy Huntington, Matt Rodgers, & Matt Clemens

ABOVE: Think hitting a tennis ball is hard; try pushing it with your nose. Richie Manahan can really put his "nose" to the grind.

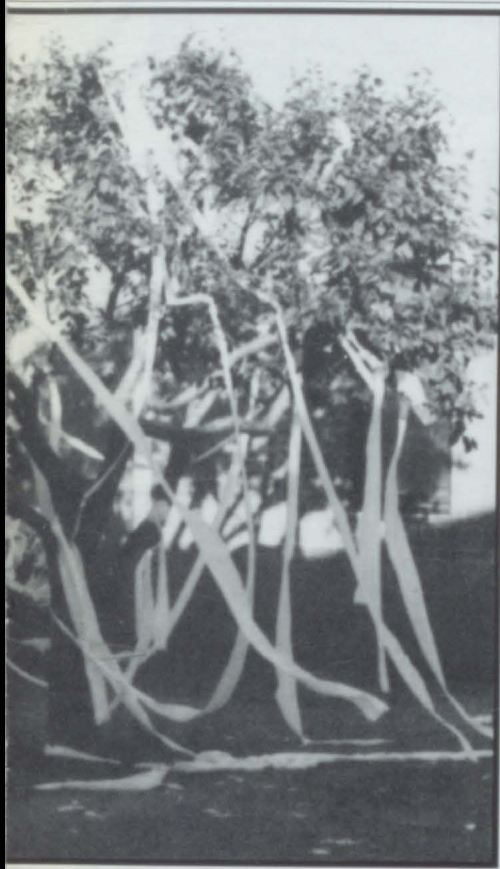

TOP: 2nd Place Float - 7th Grade. "Clean Up The Panthers". Gretchen Forbes and Jeremiah Bicknese got a "cold bath" from some tough Gopher guys. BOTTOM: 3rd Place Float - 9th Grade. "Prosecute The Panthers". "Judge" Alex Haagenson along with "Bailiffs" Jamie Meyer & Tony Johnson found "Panther" Brad Flies guilty of "Thinking he was good enough to beat the Gophers"!!

Homecoming Parade Grand Marshal - Mrs.

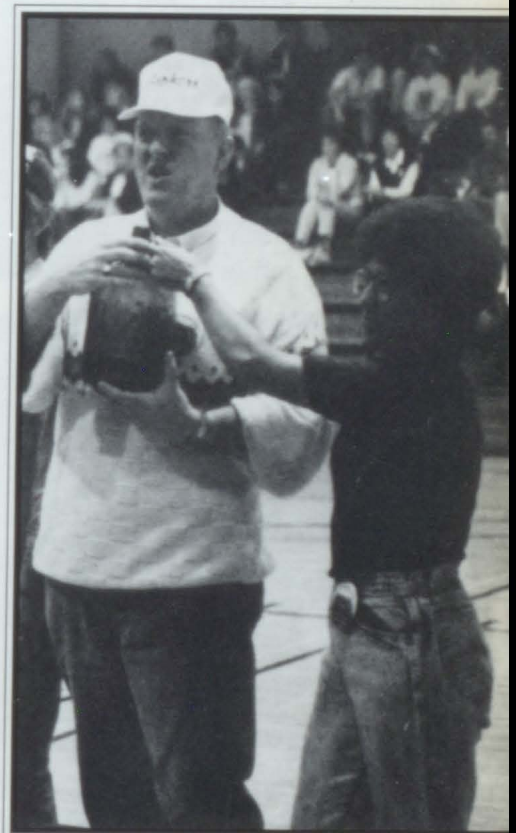

Sharon Huntley. As a school secretary for many years, Mrs. Huntley has touched the lives of countless CVHS students. It seemed proper and fitting to have her as Parade Marshal this year. A familiar face that says "Go Chatfield Gophers"!!

CENTER: The trees and houses at homecoming time, blossom with wonderful white streamers. Many say that it miraculously appears "overnight"! The growing seasons last about one week. In fact, if you clean the house or tree before the end of the week, the streamers just seem to grow back! LEFT: The CVHS band proudly marched down the street, performing in the homecoming parade.

Presenting The Making Of A Prom

What does it take to make a prom? A lot of hard work and imagination. On a Sunday afternoon, it starts out as an ordinary high school gymnasium. Slowly it undergoes changes; transforming it into fantasy / reality by Saturday night. Many people don't see this "behind the scene" work so we thought we'd share it with you on this page. A big round of applause for those Juniors who gave up work, dates, free time, etc. to come and build a dream!

Moonlight Memories

RIGHT: A forest to surround the tables helped to create a "park like" scene. BELOW: A gazebo and old fashioned ice cream cart. The gym was alive with color. BELOW RIGHT: The guys took a breather from the dancing to home in on the punch stand!

RIGHT: Old fashioned street lamps gave a soft glow to the dancing floor and an old city air. FAR RIGHT: Andy rocks his date, Sara Clemens to the tunes coming from Z-93 Music in Motion. Keep those hands up! Andy.

RIGHT: Wow!! Are these some hot looking girls or what?! The dresses this year looked from out of a Paris fashion magazine! Whoa!! BELOW: Jolene, what have you got on your mind?

A Night To Be

BELOW: Toni Jackson and Chris Musty lay down their order from Prom pictures. Guess they could also be "engagement" pictures as Chris asked Toni for her hand in marriage. And they say that romanticism is dead!

Remembered

BELOW: "Come on now Mickey, don't get fed up yet. We have the whole night ahead of us."

Spring Play

"THE DINING ROOM" is a unique play that takes place in - where else - a dining room! This one-set play captures a day in the life throughout the years, touching on the many aspects of family life.

Jesse Seegmiller lets his fingers do the walking. ABOVE: "Now, if you put this here, and that to there, then knock out this and add this, you'll have a wonderful new laundry room." "But that's the Dining Room!" Steve Daniels shows off his architect skills to Josh Nelson.

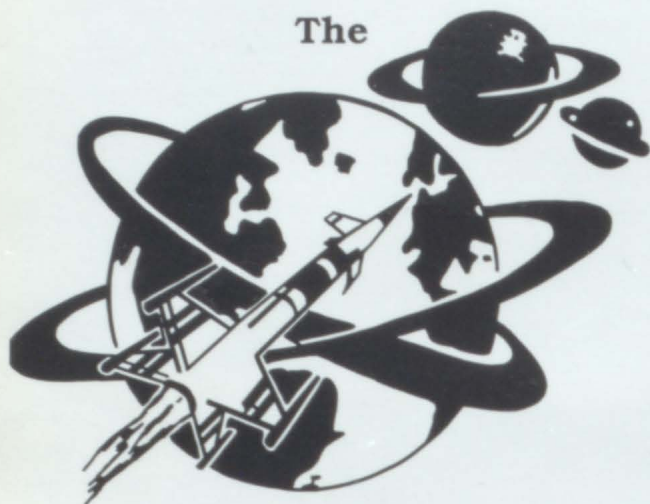

All School Carnival

A night of fun and excitement!

Journey Through

The

COSMOS

Chosen Valley School Carnival 1991

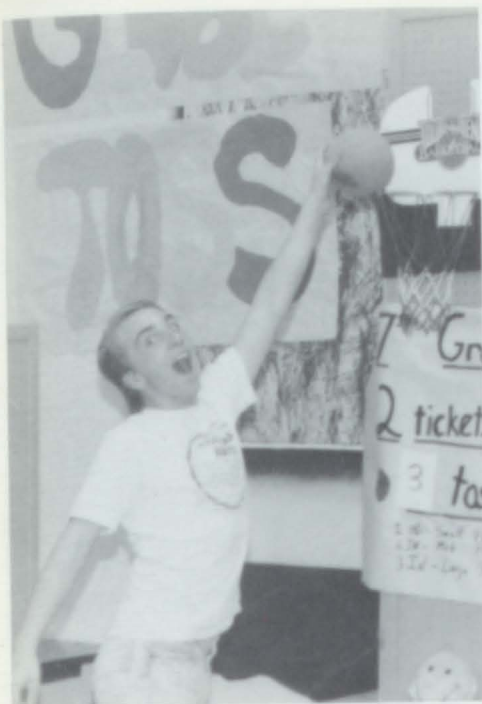

ABOVE: Shari Meeker plans on having a party and the drinks are on her; or rather around her! Dew and Pepsi is what makes the CVHS student tick!

Journey Through The Cosmos was the theme of this year's all school carnival. Comets and rockets lined the halls as well as portrayals of the crew of the star ship Enterprise. A large crowd attended this year and were treated to a variety of foods, games, a talent show, and the chance to win all kinds of prizes including a color TV.

LEFT: Mike Urban Goes up for the lay-up shot. Considering the basket is only 5 five off the floor, do you suppose he can make it?! BELOW LEFT: Numerous parents helped out this year. Here's Mrs. Berge servin up those scrumptious hot dogs. Moms are good at those things. BELOW: "Girls! What are you doing just sitting there! I told you to fire phasers! You can both consider yourselves on report. Mr. Spock, take over!" Kendra Kangas and Michelle Narveson helped man the raffle table. The Color TV (featuring Captain Kirk) went to Chris Schriever. Chris only bought 2 tickets. Some luck!!

ABOVE: "Come on folks, anyone want to play? Choose your ball!" Christian Ellis and Jason Meyer man the seventh grade tossing booths.

ABOVE: Ah Ha! I've got the furry little creatures and it's mine. I don't care if the little girl won it, it's mine and I'm going to keep it. Just try and take it away!"

MIDDLE LEFT: Foiled again. Mrs. Walker spent some time in jail after being carried in her chair to the 2x4 confines. MIDDLE RIGHT: And these are the two dudes who did it. Don't mess with the Brad and Shawn team.

ABOVE: The cafeteria was filled all night long with folks sampling the variety of foods that were offered. Rockets on the windows were used to keep track of which class candidates would be crowned the "Asteroid Anne and Meteor Marvin" for 1991.

Rick Thune was with us only for a short time but quickly became a friend to all. Rick came to Chosen Valley High in 1989 as Food Coordinator. Long will be remembered his home made sauces, multi-choice entrees, and the expanded Ala

Lloyd Lambert has been a custodian here in the halls (and rooms) of Chosen Valley High School for many years. At the end of this year he is opting for a well deserved retirement. Mr. Lambert has taken a lot of "garbage" from us in the past.

Good luck and best wishes for the years to come!!

A Man Remembered . . .

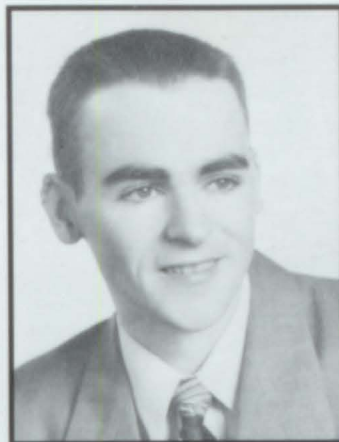

"When I grow up, I want to be a Biology teacher. Bio-Bob is the name!"

High School Graduation. Look out world, here he comes!

College Graduation: The face of a man that is going places (Chatfield perhaps?)

"And it will crank up to 35 mph going down a hill! Beat that! But don't get finger prints on it or I'll beat you!"

Mr. Hurley always made us do a lot of notes that we never used and always made us answer the questions at the end of the chapter in 10th grade in the big, new science book. He's a man that would always come track you down if you didn't have a pass or were "skipping" and he knew it.

Mr. Hurley is great guy! And he's really fun to gossip about - especially when he's eavesdropping at lunch.

Mr. Hurley is the best type of teacher, the one who involves himself outside of the classroom as well as in. It was always comforting to know you had a friend as well as a teacher.

Mr. Hurley is the only guy who can make my face turn 3 shades of red in a matter of 5 seconds and all he has to do is ask me what I had for lunch.

Mr. Hurley, I'll never forget how fast you moved when Kendra passed out in Biology. I never thought you could run or jump so high.

He would always stand in the hall and say "Come on people, the bells are working!"

...he loves it when people ask him questions in class, and even becomes a bit upset if you don't. A lot of the time we just started making up questions. But shh - don't tell him!

Mr. Robert Hurley - Bio-Bob - Teacher Extraordinaire

My tenth grade Biology class was one of my favorite classes I have ever been in, he always made class interesting. He was just a swell teacher and has one heck of a grip.

There have been so many fun times spent in school with him. Especially at lunch, where he would listen to all our conversations, and never be afraid to jump in. Not to mention all the talks we had while I worked in the office. I just want to say that growing-up with you has left me with so many memories that I will never forget. Thank you for everything and best of luck to you in the years to come.

Famous Bio-Bob Quote - "You have to be a disector, not a butcher"

Mr. Hurley alias "the claw" was actually a great guy. I remember one time when I was having some problems, he told me to talk to the counselor. I said I wouldn't, and he said "you mean you could talk to me, and not the counselor?" - I said "That's right" That's just the kind of guy Mr. Hurley (Bio-Bob) was. Easy to talk to, easy going.

One day in 10th grade Bio he was discussing the Punet Square (dealing with dominant and recessive genes) anyway he mispronounced Punet and said Penis Square. Of course the whole class laughed,

NOT Mr. Hurley - his face turned red - but he just kept on going with the discussion

Every time we take a test in advanced biology I say I'm going to flunk. He always says "you poor baby" with a pout. I always manage to get an "A" on every one. Also he always scares me to the point of tears. As the year has gone by I've learned to tell when he is just giving me grief. I think everybody is going to miss him. He's been a great teacher and taught me many things I'll always cherish

Senior Class Flower: White Carnation

Senior Class Colors: Emerald Green and Black

Senior Class Motto: The Lord gave you two ends - one for sitting and one for thinking. Your success depends on which one you use. Heads you win, tails you lose.

The train ride was a blast and many of us seniors found interesting ways to pass the time. Some played cards (illegal gambling), while others hung out in the observation car. Finally we arrived in Chicago and proceeded to lug our suitcases and coolers what seemed like ten miles.

Chicago itself was a stimulating city. Mike was stimulated enough to hang out twelve-story windows while Gabe, Andy, and Steve were stimulated (stupid) enough to hand out money to strange men in red sweat pants.

Le's Miserable's, a play some of us saw, offered us the opportunity to be cultured while others took in the awesome Black Hawks game in which he National Anthem was the loudest ever!

Another Senior Class Trip highlight was Biff, our lovable tour guide, who sang to us. Scott Johnson also provided musical entertainment with his version of "Bad to the Bone".

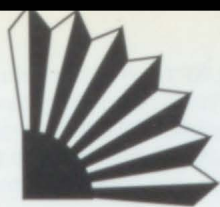

Other unforgettable moments: Mike's wipe-out in the hotel pool, Dayna's flushing her keys down the toilet, getting silver-ware thrown at us at "Dick's Last Resort", and the twelfth floor search for Kendra and Scott. - by Chrissy Rabe, Senior Class President

Chic

TOP LEFT: Here's the gang at Dick's Last Resort. We complain about the school food; try having your silver ware and food thrown at you! This place gave new meaning to the word's "Get it yourself". PS - that guy on the left is Chuck Jaeger, a past graduate of CVHS. He still acts as crazy as the seniors so he fit right in. TOP RIGHT: Looks like one tired bunch of seniors! Such desolation surrounded by such luxury. "Is my room ready yet? Carrie's head is getting heavy." ABOVE: Downtown Chicago. You could make a fortune here as a window washer. Anything you are looking for can be found in the boundaries of this old town. ABOVE LEFT: Dayna Hurley and Tina Baker "checking out"

rock star Kipp Winger. Right girls, like that was your only reason for buying the mag! ABOVE RIGHT: "UuuHHhh! Can anyone tell me the way back to Chatfield." "Just ask me Chris, I know everything". Chris Amundson and Kevin Baum. FAR LEFT: Martin Hansen says this is an traditional travel custom to bring good luck. They do strange things in Denmark! LEFT: Bring on the food. Kathy Kehret. TOP RIGHT CORNER: Justin Perkins and Mike Ferguson model their new fashion. RIGHT: "There's nothing to it, strike a pose, let's get to it...VOGUE!!!!" Chrissy Rabe and Kristina Hisey. FAR RIGHT: Looks like a crown on Chris' head. "It's good to be the king!" Dream on Chris.

Senior Class Trip

LEFT: We think Kim Blezek is about to explode! Kristina Hisey, Kim Blezek, and Heather Bjortomt practice their yoga. BELOW: "Ow Kendra, get off my arm!" Kendra Kangas finds it comfortable to lounge on Scott Johnson. We knew he was good for something.

RIGHT: That famous Chicago Skyline hazed over by some of that famous Chicago Smog!

BELOW: Heather Bjortomt must make a mean pot of coffee with her skill with coffee filters and all. Heather's tongue froze this way after the picture and she had to go around Chicago like this for the rest of the trip! BELOW RIGHT: Only Mike Ferguson would be gutsy (or stupid) enough to hang out of a 12th story window for a picture; and in those ugly booties!!!

ABOVE: What do you think of Chris' hand. Hope he's not trying for a full house! Kevin on the other hand appears to be his usual calm, cool, and collected. Is it a bluff, or is there really something up his sleeve! Only the Gambler knows!

BELOW: And this girl is going into a fashion career?? Margo Thieke when she just wakes up. RIGHT: Three Musketeers! Valerie Finley, Carrie Huntington, and Sherri Ille skrunch together for a tourist shot.

LEFT: "I'll give you 20 bucks Mike if you can hold up that wall." "Forget it Carrie, I'm worth much more than that!" BELOW: "Ah! It doesn't feel good to sit on a water balloon does it?!" Shawn Gardner gets a bit of a surprise when taking his seat.

Juniors

JUNIORS CHANGING WITH THE TIMES! In this day and age as never before, it is important to keep up with the times. Those who sit back and allow the waves of time to pass them by will soon find that they are unprepared for what lies ahead. In the sixties, these people were called "square". What will they be called in the future... We must grab time as it goes by us and bend it to our will, shaping it into things to come. Change does not always include latching on to every passing whim, but it does involve growth and learning, and making wise choices.

Time out for a snooze. These long school days really weigh heavily on we students. Grabbing an extra few minutes of sleep when we can is all that keeps us going. What with dances, parties, good times with friends, etc. we can't hardly be expected to stay awake in class; can we? Jennifer Hamann is out for the ten count.

SOPHOMORES GIVING IT ALL THEY'VE

GOT! In this world of changing times, many doors will be opened to you; many of them will be closed. Each of us is dealt a hand; every hands a winner, and every hands a loser. It's up to us to play the aces right, to open and more importantly, walk through, the right doors. For some doors lead to success and happiness; others lead to pain and misery. Think before you enter, weigh your choices carefully; only you can make the decision. GO-PHER IT!!!

EIGHTH GRADE LEARNING TO MOVE WITH THE TIMES!

In this world of changing times, nearly everything around us is changing; cars, jobs, technology, etc. Things that were once considered to be constant, now prove to be changing also. Change is good, and those who recognize that are those who move ahead into the years beyond. But we must never forget our past, our roots, for in these lie our basis; our very beings. To forget the past and all that it contains is to condemn oneself to reliving old mistakes!

LEFT: "May I have this next dance?" Derrick Allen skillfully maneuvers himself, trying to find a commanding position.

Chatfield fared better this year than any year since their state appearance in 1979. With '1 senior on the team (although a very good one) leaving by graduation, Chatfield's chances in the future look quite good. 2 Sophomores, Darrin and Derrick Allen made it to the state tournament this year, and both placed 4th. Their experience and expertise will be very helpful to our team in the next 2 years.

Words from Coach Viss, Voted "Coach of the Year" in the Three Rivers Conference.

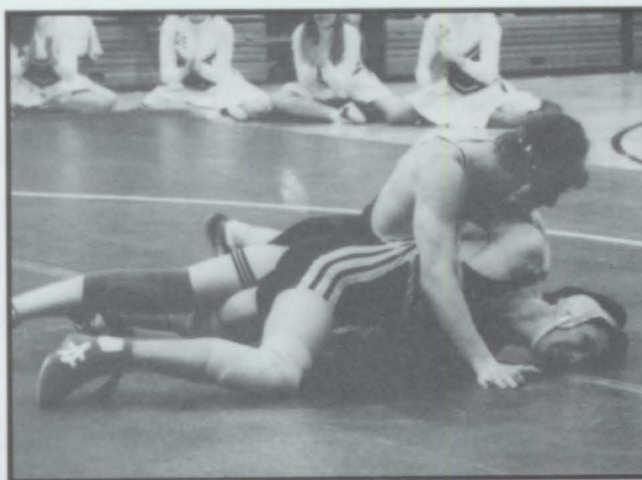

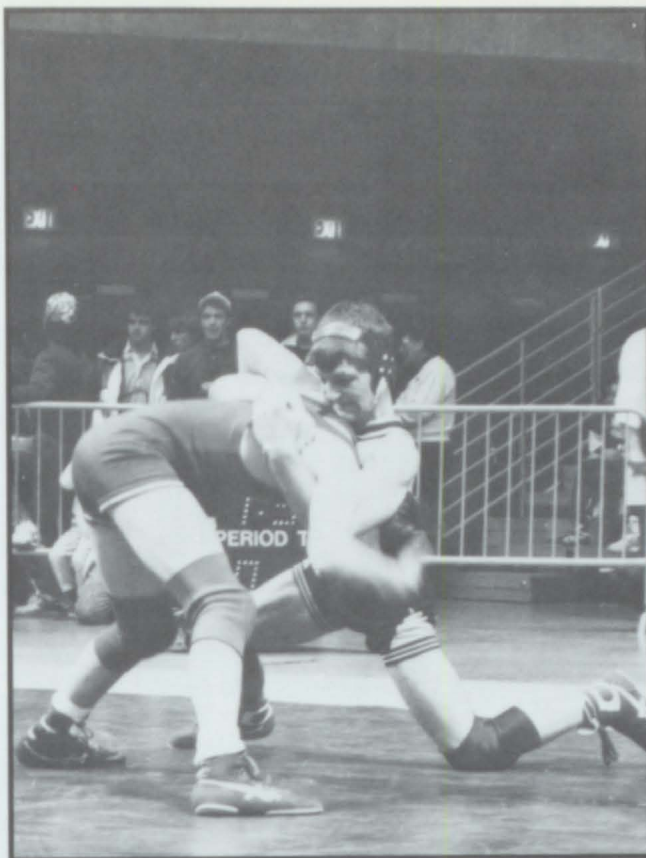

RIGHT: The big guy on the team is Chad Ferguson. Only in 8th grade, Chad is already showing great promise for future wrestling. "Ug, this band around my head is too tight, it make me do crazy things!"

BELOW: Jamie Meyer has his opponent going down and doesn't intend to let him back up. Or maybe he is helping him up; no he's putting him down; no, helping him up; no.....

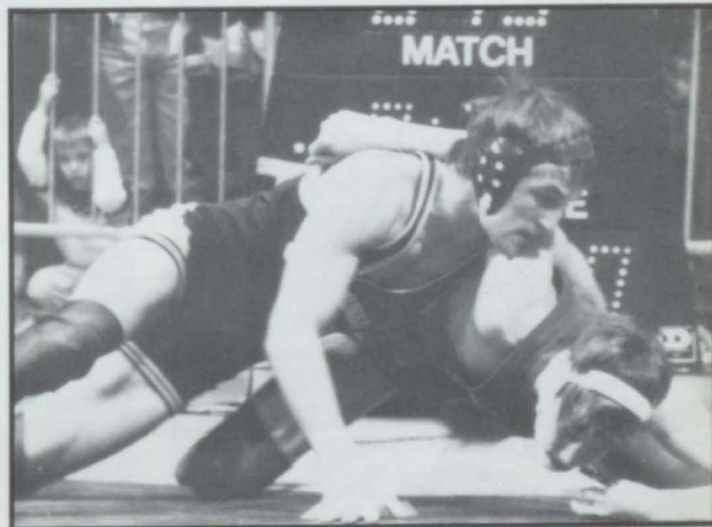

BELOW RIGHT: Andy Danninger. What can be said. The only senior on the team this year and a darn good one. It was hard to get a photo of Andy. Every time we went to take the picture, he was down on the mat in the disadvantage. But don't let that worry you, Andy usually always pulled it out and came out on top. We'll miss you Andy as you leave CVHS for "higher wrestling grounds".

RIGHT: Darrin Allen, grabs hard on his opponent, grinding him to the ground. "I don't ever want to hear that about my girl friend again! You understand punk!" BELOW: Tony Johnson is a bit tied up at the moment and can't come to the phone. Tony is a Freshman wrestler, improving with every match. CENTER PAGE: "Come on man! You're smashing my face into the mat!" "All you have to do is cry uncle." Steve Daniels wrestles hard and comes out on top. BOTTOM PAGE: Things don't always go the way we want. The team practices hard, each man learns his moves, but upsets do happen. A moment of reflection on what may have been a turning point in the match.

BELOW: Coach Viss sits in hard contemplation, watching his wrestler's moves. Sometimes it's hard to tell which one is more "into" the match; The wrestler or Coach Viss. BOTTOM PAGE: Derrick Allen throws his opponent down to the mat, striving for that win all pin. "I know my contact lens dropped down here somewhere!!"

ABOVE: "Watch me go up and eat the net guys!" Chris Amundson flies up to the basket for his shot. Believe it or not, it helps to open your mouth and stick out your tongue. You can actually jump higher than the guy with the Nike Pumps! ABOVE RIGHT: Notice that Greg does the same thing as Chris on a jump shot. If Greg LaPlante does it, there must be something to it. CENTER: Here's JD in the middle of the action. "You Can't Touch This!" Jason Daniels lines it up carefully to sink another. RIGHT: The Lone Ball Star, Kevin Baum, performed basketball marvels to the delight of the home town crowd. "Hey! Where did everyone go. I'm shooting here guys! Have some respect!"

FAR LEFT: "Oh Lord, Please let our team win, and please let me not make a mistake in the cheer routine. I have been so good and I really deserve this!!!" Amy Brogan knows every little bit helps. LEFT: Up and swoosh! Yes! Another 3 pointer! Kevin Baum may be small but what a terror on the ball court. BELOW LEFT: Brian Jones was a new addition to the team this year. Excellent ball player. Taste in hair cuts is questionable. BELOW: Here we see Amazon Greg foraging in the Basketball Jungle. He is about to pounce on his prey. Be careful Greg not to scrape your knuckles when you walk. Greg LaPlante decides that the free-throw rebound is going to be his!

What A Year! The basketball team took the conference and made it to districts. We all thought they would go on, we hoped, but alas the fates were not with us. But our boys were super and we wouldn't trade them for all the teams in the world. Congratulations guys on an excellent season. GOPHERS!!!!

Gopher Danceline

Danceline was a new creation at Chosen valley High this year, taking the place of gymnastics. Many were not sure if Danceline was really going to fly but the girls dug in and really made it work. They started by selecting really trendy outfits comprised of shiny black running tights, sequined head and wrist bands, and tie dyed T-shirts which they made themselves. Mrs. Tuohy put them to work on aerobics and dance maneuvers and the result was remarkable. Danceline has entertained the crowds at sports events many times now and we are sure to see much more of them in the future.

BELOW: Mrs. Tuohy really "gets down"! She made the girls work hard and their efforts paid off. "Down into position girls. On my signal, everyone balance themselves on just their finger tips."

B SQUAD

ROW: Tammy Bernard, Sue Cemens, Naomi Hoffman.

RIGHT: Renae Berge winds up to fire another one! "Try and hit this one!" Renae made it very hard to take pictures of the game. She kept striking everyone out so there was not much opportunity for "action" shots. Thanks Renae. BELOW: Of course every pitcher needs a fan club and who better to head that club than your own brother. 1990 graduates Brent Berge and Jeff Barnes formed the "peanut gallery" at the game.

Softball Seniors: Amy Hennings, Amy Heald, Heather Bjortomt, Michelle Narveson, Dayna Hurley.

ABOVE: "My feet are in place; My eye is on the ball; My form is correct. I'm ready! No! Wait! I'm not! My hair is mussed!!!" Amy Hennings ready to send it over the fence.

BELOW: "Back off ump, you're breathing down my neck!" Catcher Jolene Irish bags another one that the opponent missed.

This ball is outa here! Jolene Irish plowed that baby into the next state.

LEFT: The pitch. Look at that form! Renae Berge whips it in at speeds of 100 m.p.h. OK! So we exaggerate a little! BELOW: "That ball is coming in low and hard but I got it covered. Oops! I missed. Well, once in a life time isn't bad!" Dayna Hurley digs in as the pitch sails by, too low for the strike zone.

Gopher Baseball

- BACK ROW: Coach Brian Baum, Tyre Holscher, Lonny Horihan, Chris Amundson, Greg LaPlante, Brian Jones, Kevin Baum, Jason Timm, Head Coach Molly Baum. MIDDLE ROW: Kevin Haagenson, Chad Bjortomt, Steve Urban, Mickey Rowland, Derrick Allen, Matt Lammers, Darrin Allen. FRONT ROW: Shawn Burk, Luke Fratzke, Jeremy Sikkink, Rusty Neis, Alex Haagenson, Chris Ruskell, Eric Kreter. OUT FRONT: Managers Ryan Ruskell and Tim Walker.

RIGHT: Sally Jacobson winds up that extra amount of umpf to send the discus flying. Actually, she is posing here for a new statue of her to be done and put in the center of courtyard. BELOW: A perfect hand off from Melissa King to Tina Baker as team mates Sally Jacobson and Jill Walker look on. "Tina don't take off yet; my hand is caught in your hair!" BELOW RIGHT: Margo Thieke clears her hurdle with ease and rushes on to the next. Anyone that can wear cool lookin tights like that deserves to win a race!

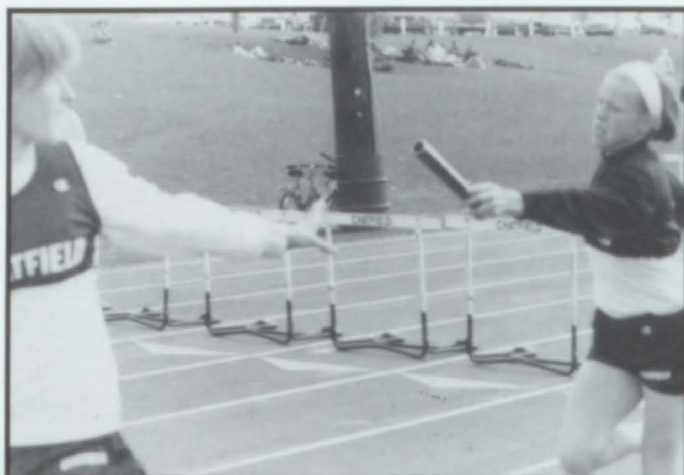

Go Go

BELOW: "Just a little further! Just a little more! Almost! Stretch!" Michelle Thieke goes for the hand off to Melissa King. RIGHT: Margo Thieke shows off her latest fashion creation. She calls it "Dino Wear". Guaranteed to keep you warm at any track meet.

BELOW: Tina Baker gives it that extra push to come across the finish line.

ABOVE: A final look at Margo, that high flyin hurdle jumping senior with the strange pants.

RIGHT: "Man, this little ball bearing is heavy!" Jason Wright gives it the ole heave ho. BELOW: Watch it Mr. Jacobson, the Boogie Man is about to get you! We think it's Jason Wright under that shirt but we have no way of telling. If we could see some muscle or something, then we would know it "wasn't" him! Keep laughing Jason! BELOW RIGHT: Jacob Drogemueller went to the Ginger Rogers Dancing School to pick up these neat maneuvers.

LEFT: Martin Hansen may look like he's behind in this race but we can attest to the fact that not only did he pull out ahead, but he stayed there! ABOVE: Here we go! Jacob clears the pole but unfortunately, we got the camera person for next year so that Mr. Nal doesn't have to take most all of the picture again!

Trying to have a track meet this year was like trying to dodge a load of buck shot. Maybe there would be one, maybe not! With rain and cold, sports events like track were postponed more often than not.

ADVISORS NOTE:

You may notice that the yearbook has a whole new look to it. This is the first year that the book is being designed on a Macintosh computer. Technology is everywhere and we have jumped on the band wagon as well. We still have some problems, but we hope that we have added a new dimension to the book that will continue to improve in years to come.

As you look at and read your book, I hope that you will take a moment to realize the amount of work and man hours that have gone into producing this. It's easy to criticize what you see and hear; harder to come and be a part of the improvements. It takes people to put a book like this together and people are only human; we make mistakes!

I would also like to mention that no malice was intended with any of the writings that you find in these pages. Our goal is only to provide you with a reference and memory that will last a life time.

A special thanks to Chrissy Rabe and Jason Miller. At times, I think they felt that they had not done much but believe me, they saved me hours of work!!!! Chrissy did computer work and typing and Jason whipped off page designs like mad. It's not as easy as you think.

Thank you to the staff for all their hard work; thank you to the student body for supporting the book; thank you to the local business for their donations of money for ads; thank you to the Athletic Club for bailing us out with the expensive equipment that we needed purchase.

Thanks and enjoy!

BELOW: In a touching moment, the last of the "Hurley Clan" graduates from CVHS. RIGHT: "Are we ready folks." "We have been ready all of our lives!!!" PAGE CENTER: "This is it! This is really it! I wonder what lies ahead. I wonder if we'll make it. I wonder if I'll get lots of money for graduation!"

ABOVE: "OK guys, my diploma didn't come with a plastic cover. I want my plastic cover!" RIGHT: Looks like we made it!! Congratulations Chris, you at least learned your finger numbers! LEFT OF CENTER: Ooo! Show us those legs Martin. Martin Hansen, a little to excited to start the graduation march!

LEFT: Exiting those doors for the final time feels like freedom to the max. Well guys, at least this time, you were "suppose" to be walking out the doors! BELOW: Give us those big graduation smiles girls. Incredible isn't it? So much knowledge packed into such a small space.

LEFT: "Yes! YES! YES! I'm out of here! FINALLY! Gosh, I'll miss the old place!" ABOVE: "Is yours signed?" "Is yours?" "Mine is! How about you!" "Yeah, but the signature is sure sloppy, I wonder if it still counts?!!!"

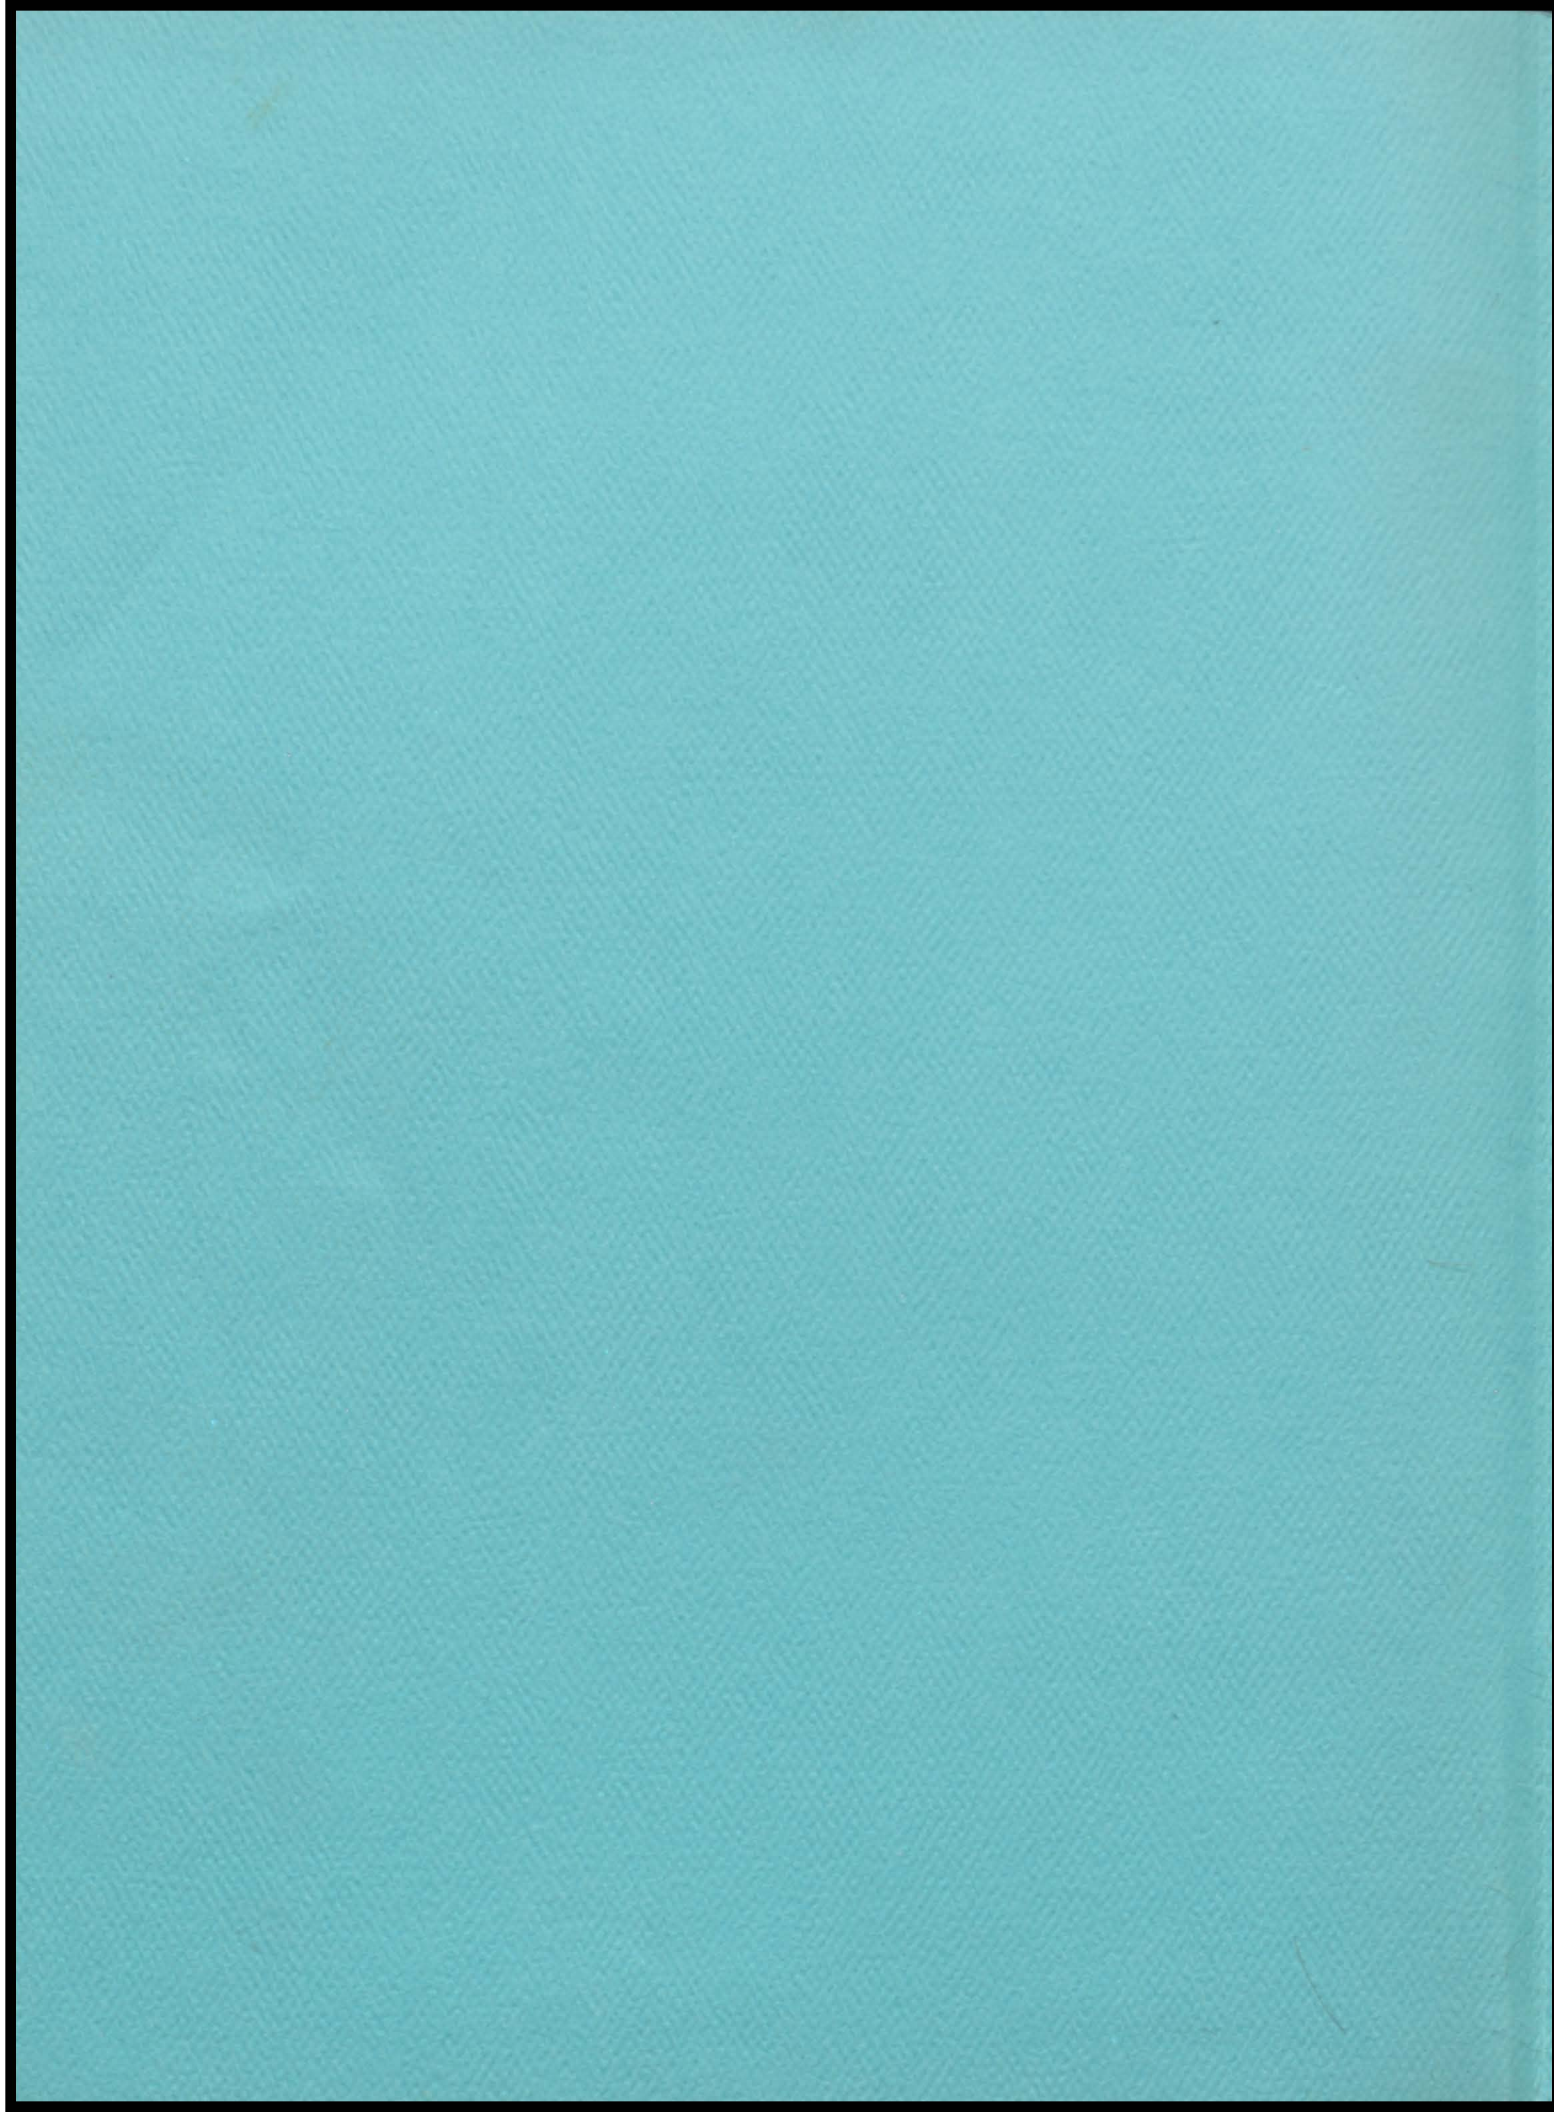

We hope that you have enjoyed your "Walk Through Changing Times". Time comes and goes so quickly and it is time for us to sign off. If you have ANY complaints about the book, the complaint department is open from 5:00 to 5:05 p.m. and only on foreign religious holidays. Better yet, come and work on next year's book and change that which you have a complaint about!!!!

This edition of the Burr Oak CVHS Yearbook was produced by the staff at Chatfield, MN and sold for $36.00 a copy. The book contains 128 pages in black and white and was designed in most part on a Macintosh computer using Josten's Yeartech program. The book is printed by Jostens in Topeka, Kansas. 200 copies of the book were sold with $1950.00 raised in advertising from local businesses. All photo work was done in the photo lab at Chosen Valley High School.
