A touch of Fall

*Twisting and turning,
 Fluttering and swaying -
 Flying to find its way
 To the ground.
 A wisp of wind carrying it farther
 Away from its home.
 Gently falling to the brown grass,
 The bronze and auburn leaves
 Symbolize fall - winter's neighbor.
 An end - yet a beginning.
 An end to summer haze
 And the sun's scorching rays.
 But a beginning to school bells,
 Crowded halls filled with laughter,
 Classrooms filled with working minds.
 Football games and cheering crowds,
 Volleyball matches and encouraging fans.
 Every fall is a time to enjoy life,
 A time to get reacquainted.
 And a time to cherish*

Touch of Class

Classy People

RIGHT: Speaking of class.....Todd Staily trying his best to achieve "class"! Has he succeeded? BELOW: Being near sighted can come in very handy in a case like this. The trumpet master, Brian Jones. PAGE BOTTOM: It was unforgettable toilet papering this year! This industrious group of Seniors was so proud of their creations that they took a camera with them in the wee hours of the morning to capture the dastardly deeds on film. Please note: Tom Knutson, Kevin Haagenson, Stephanie Manahan, Steve Daniels, and Jason Hare should report to the principal's office immediately!!!!

LEFT: "I don't want to hear your lame excuse; you are exactly 1/2 minute late for my class and I'm not a happy camper!" Ms. Schroeder guards the doorway to the world of English. ABOVE: The cheerleaders did a "Chicken" dance for a football pep fest. Actually they were suppose to be Cardinals from Lewiston. We think the big beaks look good on them. They should consider wearing them all the time. TOP: What a studious class. Do you suppose they are studying quantum physics? NOT!!!! PAGE CENTER: A girl and her bear. Lisa Fogarty contemplates the philosophy behind "Goldy Locks and the Three Bears".

1991 Gopher Football - "A season to be remembered"

The 1991 football season was one that will stand as probably the "oddest" season that the Gophers have had in many years. The season had its ups and downs, ins and outs (in to the Domes and out of the cold, that is), and definitely much excitement.

The Gophers were picked as pre-season contenders for the Three Rivers Crown but some key injuries put those hopes to rest as they started out the season 0-4. Playoff chances were getting smaller after each loss, but the Gophers kept at it. They managed to win 3 out of their last 4 games and took the final playoff spot with a 3-5 record.

Their first playoff game was against the top-ranked Harmony Cardinals. The Gopher's offense exploded and the defense tightened up as they went on the defeat Harmony 22-7. The following week Chatfield took on Mabel-Canton. The offense continued to be on fire as the racked up 48 points and defeated the Cougars quite handily. At this point, everything was looking great for the Gophers, except the weather. An early snowstorm left the team and its fans not knowing if, where, or when the next game would be held. But the excitement continued as they were off to the Uni-Dome in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to take on Rushford-Peterson for the Section title and a state playoff berth.

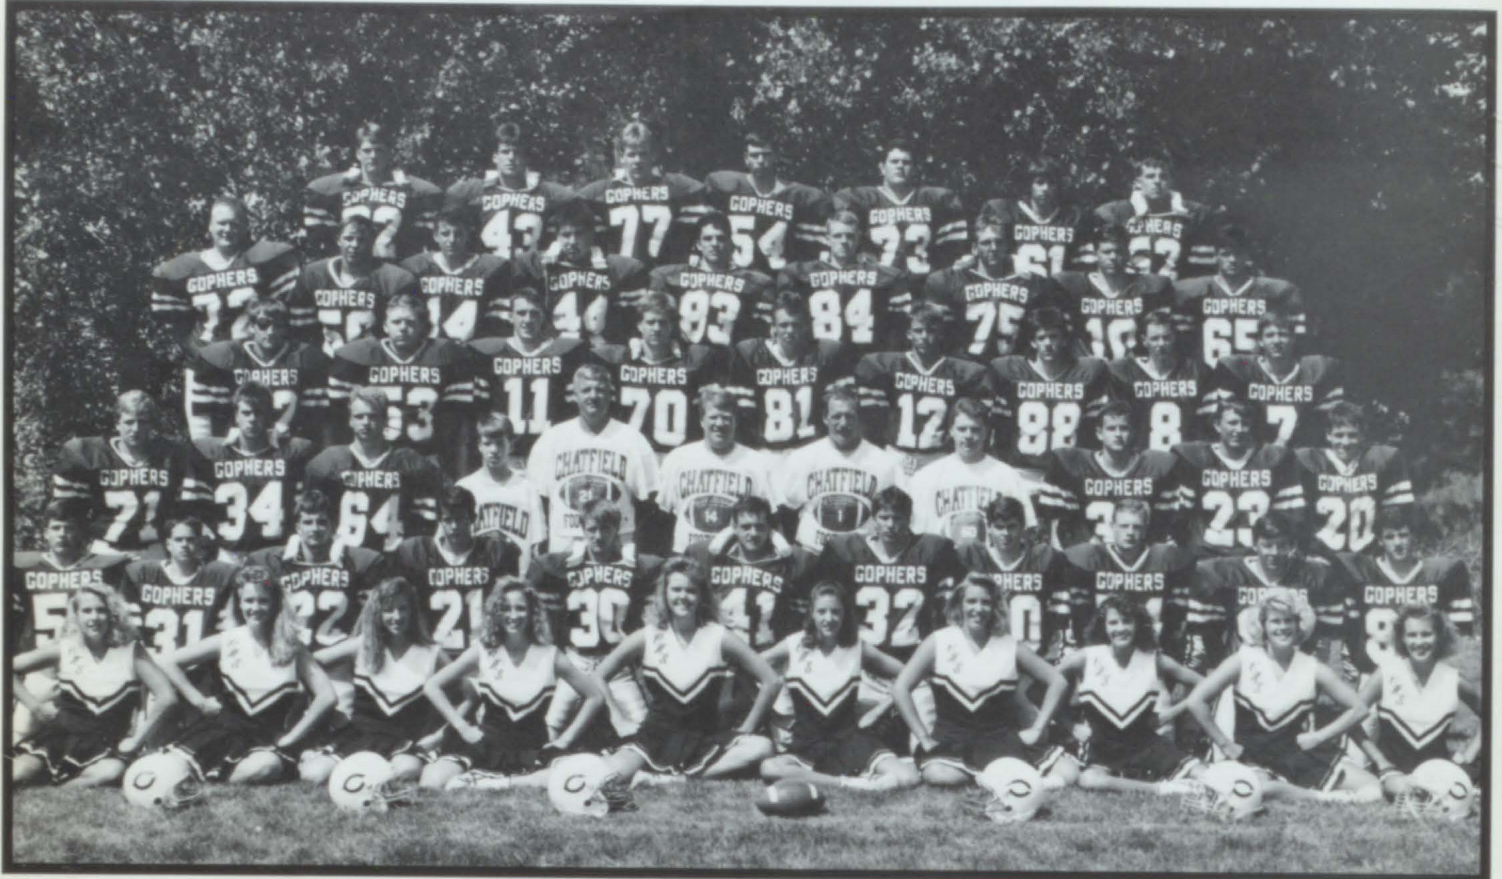

It was a hard-hitting, exciting ball game that was punctuated by a 22-play, 90 plus yard drive that gave the Gophers a touchdown with little time remaining. The Trojans couldn't score and the Gophers won the Section title 12-7.

The state playoffs were held in the Metro Dome in Minneapolis because of the weather and fans poured into the Dome to watch the Gophers take on Mankato-Loyola. The two teams were evenly matched and Gopher fans cheered on as their team took an 8-6 lead with a little over 7 minutes remaining. But, the Crusaders made a final dive that put them on the 2 yard line with 24 seconds remaining. They were able to successfully kick a 19 yard field goal that ended the game and the Gopher's season. What a year! Thanks for the memories! - Greg LaPlante ABOVE: Juniors took Second Place with this float entitled "Gophers Are King Of The Jungle". This is the first time in all their years of building floats that this class even placed. Great job folks! Better late than never!!

His and Her Majesty, Queen

Renae and King Jason

What an excellent day for a parade. The sun was shining bright and the floats hosted a multitude of color. It was perfect. Main Street was still in shambles and so the parade made it's way down Twiford Street instead. Did that stop folks from turning out to watch the procession? No way!!! People lined the streets cheering each float as it cruised on by. Renae and Jason waved to the throngs of adoring fans as the cheerleaders "pepped" up the crowd for the game that night.

Volleyball Teams

F L A S H B A C K

The 1991 Volleyball Season brought much success and fun. They increased their winning record for the third year in a row. They ended the season with a 13-5 record and a loss in the district semi-finals. The Gophers finished third in the conference. The season had its ups and downs with an unvisualized loss to Dover-Eyota and an exciting comeback game against conference-leading Plainview. Some great memories were made that will never be forgotten. Beth Branum

WINTER

March of

*Cold envelopes the land,
 Twisting its icy fingers deep into the heart.
 A chill that reaches to the bone,
 petrifying the soul within.
 Darkness and death; they walk hand in hand.
 Lying beneath its blanket of white
 Nature awaits the dawn of new life.
 Drifting slowly to earth,
 One stacks upon another -
 Reaching higher and higher to the sky.
 But warmth is just inside
 Waiting to be partaken of.
 Laughter and friendship,
 A cup of hot chocolate and
 Good basketball game.
 Class work is tough and furious,
 Is it warm in here or just me?
 The winds continue to blow
 Outside, frosting the world.
 Inside is the wealth of human love,
 With more than enough warmth

Jesse Seegmiller goes head over heels on his way down to the mat. "My, this is a whole new perspective of the mats from this angle."

BELOW: Jamie Meyer displays his coolly neat totally rad hair cut. NOT! Wrestles are strange people. They have these rituals where they carve things into the backs of their heads. This number is said to represent the weight class. We think it may perhaps be a secret code of some sort! The mystery lives on. RIGHT: This isn't professional wrestling Joe where all you have to do is cover the guy, You have to turn him over and "pin" him. Joe Ellis (we can tell from the hair) gets his man into position.

A touch of... SPRING

Indeed there is something magical about spring,

*Perhaps it's the blue sky, or the birds
beginning to sing..*

*The tawny sun shines upon the earth -
Thus, giving sacred and renewing birth.*

*And as the winds gently blow-
They take away the winter snow.*

Thankfully, the earth has lost

The chill of winter's frost

The trees burst to life in shades of green;

At last the fruits and leaves maybe seen.

And the violets bloom in blue

As they catch the sun's yellow hue.

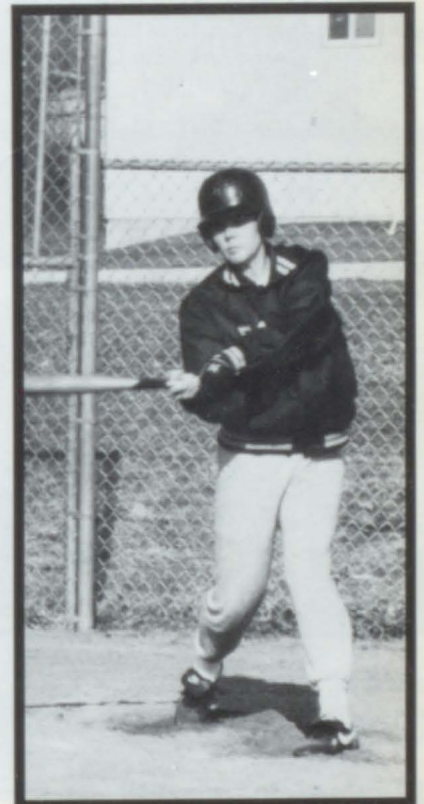

The bubbling brooks are overflowing;

Yes, happily, as it is not snowing.

There certainly is no time like spring-

Life is alive in everything!

CREWS:

TOP LEFT: "Oh father, I'm sorry I picked out such a hideous wall paper but it was on sale." Leslie Gunderson and Jeremy Nelson discuss the losing of the farm. ABOVE: "Stop tickling me before I wet my pants!" Eric Bicknese, the youngest of the play cast, is consoled by the lovely Nell (Leslie Gunderson). LEFT: "Oh I don't know. I think It's been too long of a year and I don't care if "the show must go on"! Tammy Kester and Sara Westrum. BELOW LEFT: Jason Miller as Mr. Murgatroyd. "Help! I have a kink in my back. I've fallen and I can't get up!" BELOW RIGHT: "Bartender! Bartender, there's a worm in my bottle!" Tom Vomhof staggers to the table looking for another drink.

LEFT: "Hhhmmm. How do I get Josh to put some action in the singing?" Gabe Perkins and Josh Sullivan. BELOW: "Say what you will but I have the best feathers in town." Amy Harold. PAGE CENTER: "Yeah! Well your mother wears combat boots." BELOW CENTER: "Are you out there. I say; ARE YOU OUT THERE!!!" Jason Miller spent a few moments looking out over the audience to be sure his fan club was still present.

ORLANDO, Florida

Above Left: Journey into Imagination. Wonder what "imaginings" are on the minds of these girls?!! Creativity is only limited by the mind of the creator. OOOooo!! Scary thought!! Above Center: Crazy shapes and crazy girls. Renae Berg and Nicole Schriever fit right in the geometric craze. Above Right: The electric light parade was a fascinating sight. Thousands of colored lights brought Disney characters and scenes to colorful life. Tom Knutson fell in love with the fairy in red but they wouldn't let him bring her home. Right: Goofy, Goofy, and Goofy!

HOOTERS

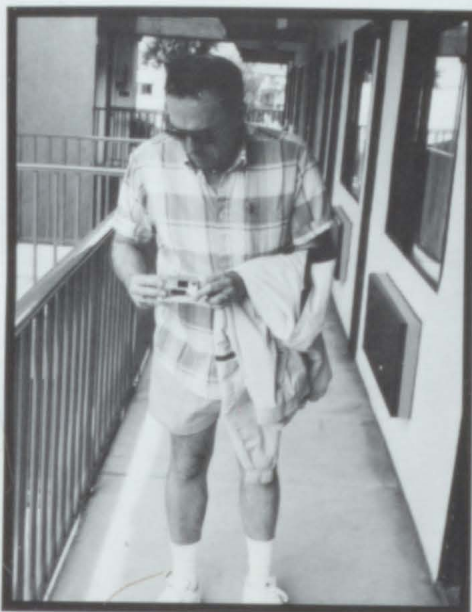

in Orlando

Left: One of the many food stops. Everyone else is full but Sarah needs to order two more cheese burger whoppers! Below: Tyre Holscher and Pluto got into a match of muscle. Each was trying to impress the judges (the girls) to score points for a win. Tyre figured he had it in the bag but our sources tell us that Pluto made a surprise winning finish by licking one of the judges faces. Better luck next time Tyre! Page Bottom Left: Gee Tara, are we about to "Blow Chunks"? Bottom Right: Just sittin around with not much to do. "I give her a 7.5". "Naw! I'd only go a 6".

Right: Check out the hot flamingo impressions from Dan Meyer and Tim Goldsmith. They will be appearing on "Wild Kingdom" next week. Below: What lurks amongst the beautiful flowers? 6 "shady" senior guys. Below Right: Welcome to Rachel's place. Rachel Gunderson and Prince Charming have been expecting your arrival. They had the castle cleaned especially for you. Bottom Left: Jason, stop smelling the dirty clothes and get cleaned up! Bottom Right: Sleep??!! Why would anyone sleep when there is money out there to be won. Late night card games are the favorite hotel past time.

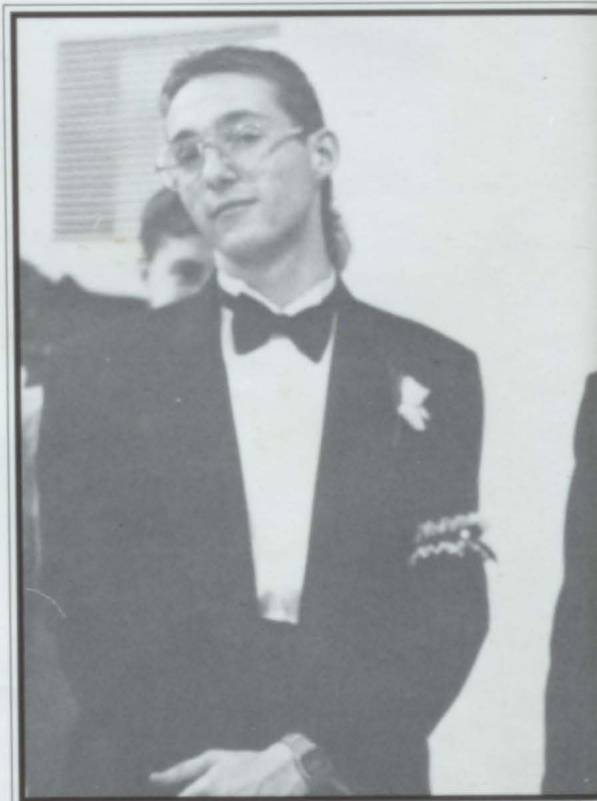

Top Left: Tractor and shades! Lonny Horihan lookin cool dude in his nifty shades. Luckily we caught him right before he stuck his tongue out. Top Right: What do you think? Looks like Nicole has it won by a long shot! Pat Ryan, Dan Meyer, and Brian Nelson try to flex the muscle but Nicole Schriever, gets an extra 10 points for enthusiasm. Far Left: "How do you work these crazy things work? Can't be as hard as a computer to figure out!" Mr. G! You build huge play sets and have problems figuring out a cardboard camera. Left: Rachel Gunderson and her date, Vivacious Red, taking in the Disney sights. Below Left: "Ah! Look at this space cadet I found Minnie! Her head is just about the right size to fit in a soft drink cup." Sarah Tuohy being "terrorized" by Mickey. Below: Would the class trip pages possibly be complete with the inclusion of the time honored traditional picture of one of the GIRLS looking at a dirty magazine. Notice it is always the girls! The guys are smart enough to not get caught on film.

Left: Leslie Gunderson and Brian Jones. Leslie was afraid to go to prom with Brian at first, fearing that he would like her hair style so much that he would try that next. Below: Jolene Irish, Pat Ryan, Jill Walker, Dan Meyer. There is always a thousand pictures to be taken long before you reach the prom.

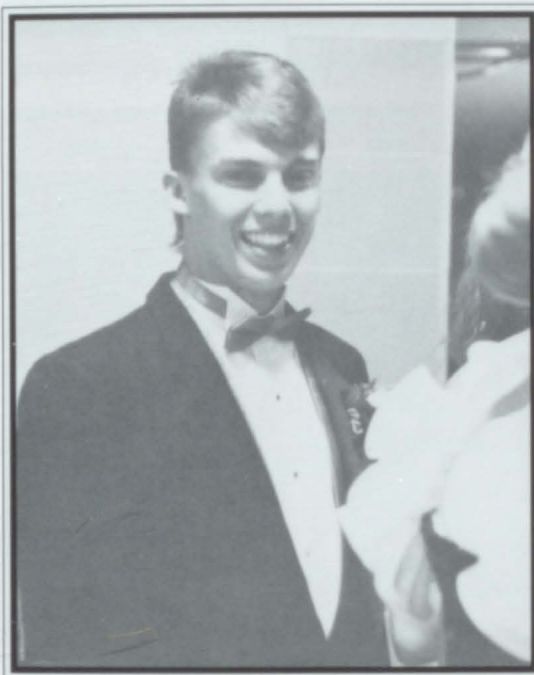

A silhouetted city street; the lights of thousand bulbs on a bridge spanning the oceans; glistening fireworks fill the sky; it is the night of the Midnight Masquerade. Black and Gold create a romantic shadow where the magic of the night takes place.

Page Top: Two of our servers for the evening were Amy Daniels and Chris Ruskell. These people were chosen from the Sophomore class to perform the kitchen tasks and keep the refreshment tables well stocked. Above: The second set of servers were Kari Rabe and Chris Schriever. Above Left: Steve Urban is having too much of a good time! Left: This was new! We've seen guys with two dates; girls with two dates; but never a couple and child. Welcome to the 90's.

Above: The song "Friends" was sung by Tammy Kester, Rachel Gunderson, and Cassie Allen. Many friendships in the class of 92 will live on forever. Above Right: Sara Clemens receives her coveted graduation packet from Mr. Robert Brogan. Right: Tyre Holscher was overwhelmed to take the big walk across the stage. All wondered if their diplomas were signed.

Left: "Did she just say that this was only the beginning and not an end??!!!!!!" "I can't handle any more senior math." "Anyone have a large spoon?" Below Left: First ones out the door. At least this time they're using the front door in plain sight rather than the kitchen or back doors!! Below: Graduation smiles. Christa Urban and Angie Amundson flash the pearlies.

Left: JD keeps a smile as he shakes hands, hugs, and is mauled by every person in Chatfield. The graduates couldn't wait to get to their open houses and graduation parties.

Left: Tony Baker and Chad Bjortomt playing soldier boys. Chad looks a little too interested in that rifle! Below Left: Larry and Larry. Sorry, no Moe or Curly. These are the kind of things that can happen when seniors find out when your birthday is. And Larry Bird thought it was bad to have his head shaved in the potato chip commercial; he ought to see this! Below: "Yes! You are the proud parents of a 5 lb flour baby!" Mrs. Zimmerman cradles the newborn just after delivery.

Editor's Corner

"The 1991 - 1992 school year has been a very eventful one. We, the yearbook staff, have tried to capture as many of these events as possible. We hope you are able to look at your yearbook and remember many of the great times you had during the school year.

To the seniors, this book is a symbol of the best year of your life. We hope, when you glance at the book, all the memories come rushing back. As Editor, I would like to say Bon Voyage to my fellow classmates and to Mr. Nass I'd like to say "Get a real bike". Thank you."

Greg LaPlante

Advisor's Corner

"What a year! It's hard to believe that another edition of the Chosen Valley High School Yearbook is completed.

Thank you to the staff members for such a good job and memorable year. Many of them gave up their after school time to take photos, sell ads, etc. All those little things necessary to produce this kind of a book.

My special thanks goes to Greg LaPlante for taking on the Editor job and all his hard work (even though he did eventually get Senioritis). To him I would like to say "You can only hope to have as real of a bike as mine". And thanks to Chris Spelhaug who I sort of just drafted into the job but who jumped in with both feet and came through with shining colors."

ABOVE: "Ah, this is the life; rest, relaxation." Here's Mr. Baum taking it easy. He says it's because of his crutches. We asked what his excuse was before. "No comment!" For awhile, you had to be real careful walking in the halls. If you didn't get run down by Mr. Volz; chances are you did by Mr. Baum. The halls were more like a race track with TWO men on electric carts! Boogie On Dudes!!!

Torrey Michelson

February 11, 1975 - November 11, 1991

We won't forget you, Torrey, and what you've meant to us.

You taught us how to laugh and how to face reality at the same time.

What could we have given you in return? Friendship? Somehow, that doesn't seem to be enough, now.

Love? Maybe. But how much love could equal the happiness you have given to us?

Out of all the gifts in the world, no matter how brief, happiness is the best.

Your smile and twinkling eyes were a symbol of love and friendship to everyone.

Each of us will remember you in our own personal ways.

C 1991 - 1992 CURRENT EVENTS

1 Los Angeles Lakers' basketball star Earvin "Magic" Johnson addresses a press conference to announce his retirement from the team due to testing positive for the HIV virus.

2 Michael Jordan shows his Conference MVP trophy to Chicago fans. Jordan led the Chicago Bulls to an NBA Championship and was later named Sports Illustrated's Sportsman of the Year.

1 At age 39 Jimmy Connors surprised lots of people by making it to the semi-finals at the U.S. Open before being defeated.

2 Freed U.S. hostage Terry Anderson waves to journalists at the Syrian Foreign Ministry in Damascus after almost seven years' captivity in Lebanon.

3 Clarence Thomas answers questions before the Senate Judiciary Committee after his nomination for the U.S. Supreme Court. He replaced retiring Justice Thurgood Marshall.

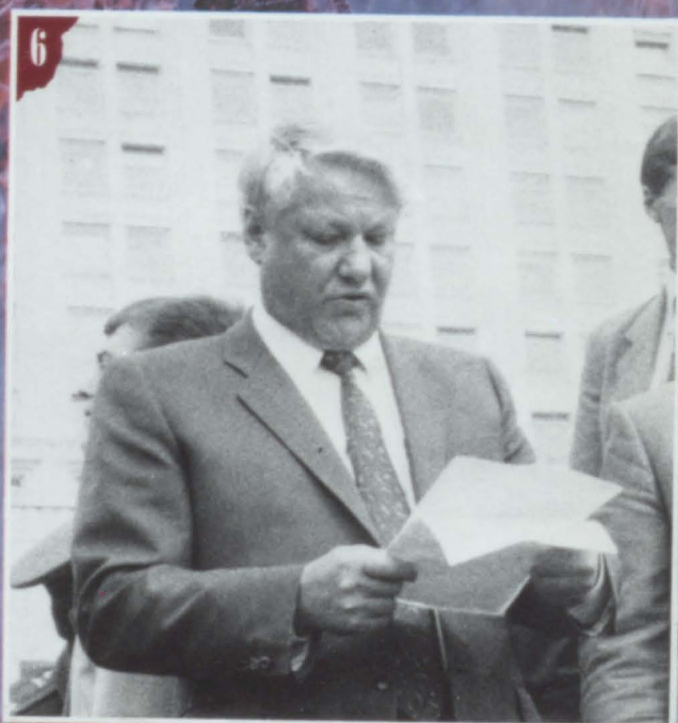

4 After winning an Oscar in 1989, Jodie Foster scored big in 1991—starring in Silence of the Lambs and then in Little Man Tate, her first picture as director.

5 Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev speaks with a Soviet TV reporter on his return to Moscow in August after a right-wing coup failed to overthrow him. However, by year's end he had resigned.

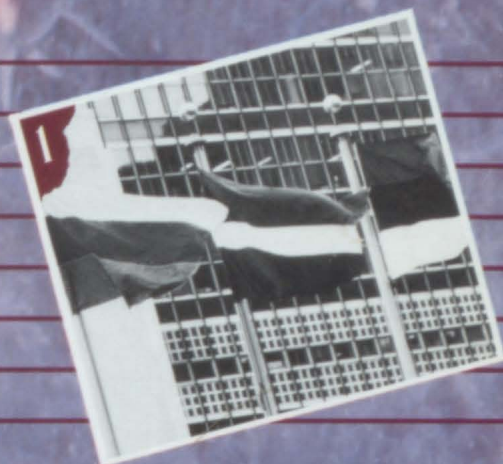

6 Boris Yeltsin speaks to a crowd in Moscow. The popular elected President of the new Russian republic assumed leadership after Gorbachev stepped down.

7 Michael Landon dies. His TV credits include Bonanza, Little House on the Prairie, and Highway to Heaven.
