- Secret Santa Shop: Numbers aren't correct on the handout. The profit was about $3,000, Joaquina estimates. The shop made $800 Friday evening.
- Cookies and Cocoa with Santa: Profit should be about $1,800. It went well and we had a great turnout. Snowy the Snowman was new and popular addition. Vendors said they had a pretty good evening.

New business

- Bingo Night: From 6-8 p.m. Friday, 1/11, in MPR.
- Talent Show: Friday, 2/1. 6-8 p.m. We'll help with food and ticket sales. About 50 acts. Presale for $3; at the door for $5. Two previews during the day for kids at school.
- Field-trip budget: Two teachers have asked if the field-trip budget could be raised. It's $16 a student. Joaquina will ask at SPAC to see what other schools contribute. After that research, the topic may come back to the group for further discussion and consideration.
