Sub Committee Reports

PBIS

- ISS and OSS numbers are higher this month than the same month last year
- Students with 3 or more office referrals: 52
- PBIS will be reviewing the cost of gotcha gators
- HR teachers should be halfway through Touching Spirit Bear
- Concerned with the amount of teachers not participating in morning meeting
- Having an anonymous box for students to write tips for upcoming fights, etc.

MTSS

- Make sure your core instruction is meeting kids where they are
- Our percentages for Tier 2 and Tier 3 students is pretty good
- 6th grade is struggling with tier 2 and tier 3 behavior
- Mr. Oesterbo will start having a Mastery 3rd quarter to do behavior groups for tier 2 and tier 3
- Ms. West is looking for clients. She currently has 15 and can do double that.

Parent Involvement

- Use nights like STEAM night and newsletters to remind parents that they should not call their students during instructional time. And to get their kids to school everyday.
- Yonder- a way to keep cell phones away during instructional time
- Cell phones seem to be an issue in class. Parents feel that last year we were more strict as a school
- Maybe add a game night with pizza for parents to come out
- Upcoming events
 - STEAM night 2/7
 - Pastries for Parents 2/28
 - Parent Survey Night 3/7
 - Off to MS 3/28
 - Houston Moore Cookout 4/11
 - Royal Palms Cookout TBD
 - EOG Skate Night 5/2
 - Volunteer Breakfast 5/16

Morning Meeting Data

- Data is not very good. The percentage of teachers doing a correct morning meeting is very little.

- Teachers might need more instruction on how to conduct a morning meeting correctly. Berg attached links to the powerpoint
- Suggestion- practice morning meeting enough so that the students can run it
- Make videos to show how a morning meeting is run, for students and staff

School Climate Updates/Action Steps

- Students, Parents, and Teachers all involved
- Conversation needs to happen with students before they take the survey
- All multiple choice
- Different survey for staff, parents, students, etc.
- Parent survey can be done on mobile phones
- Parent and student survey can be in spanish
- Take the handout Mrs. Bliss gave you and share the talking points with your people.
- Need to have a plan to share the results after the survey

If you want to come to the EYES meeting, let Mrs. Bliss know so that she can get you a sub
