

Mosley Performance Learning Center

"Where Effort Meets Opportunity"

Student Contract

Because Mary S. Mosley Performance Learning Center is a unique learning environment, completing coursework independently is essential. The following practices are considered cheating by faculty and staff and may result in a failing grade and, perhaps, failure of a course:

- Copying another student's notes or sharing notes with other students. This includes sharing flash drives, sharing printed notes, or sharing notebooks.
- Completing another student's online coursework. This includes helping another student excessively, completing another student's tests or quizzes, or giving students answers to quiz or test questions.
- Copying or completing another student's offline coursework. This includes copying or allowing another student to copy any class work, homework, projects, or handouts.
- Plagiarizing when completing research assignments. This includes copying and pasting information off of the internet or paraphrasing without properly citing sources.

I, _____, understand that the examples listed above are considered cheating and could result in a 'zero' for the assignment and, possibly, failing the course. Therefore, I pledge to complete my coursework, myself, and will not share my work with other students.
