

Join us this summer for the 2019 Summer Camp season!

Quest Academy is pleased to offer several options for summer camps this year. See below for details about these options. Current Quest students should log into MyBackpack and look under "My Forms" for registration forms. For others - or should you have any questions - please contact Sharon Volny for assistance (Sharon.Volny@QuestAcademy.org).

AFTERCARE: Optional aftercare is available until 5 pm for $8/hour per child. Sign-up in advance is required.

NOTE: No classes will be held on Friday, June 21st; however, there is an optional field trip scheduled for that day. See details later in this packet.

FEES FOR QUEST CAMPS ARE VALID UNTIL 5/15/2019
AFTER 5/15/19 - IF SPACE PERMITS - FEES INCREASE BY $50 / CLASS

WORLD TRAVELERS: EXPLORING OUR WORLD THROUGH ADVENTURE

Join Quest Academy teachers Mrs. Tovar and Mrs. Hasty on a global adventure where together we will explore multicultural literature, music, art, history, and technology. As a class, we will fly to Asia, take a train to Europe, and sail the sea to South America! Whether you are able to join us for one week or two, we'd love to have you travel abroad with us!

Instructors:	Diane Tovar & Annabel Hasty
Offered:	Session 1: June 3 - 7 (M-F) from 9 am - 2 pm Session 2 : June 10 - 14 (M-F) from 9 am - 2 pm

PICTURE BOOK CREATIONS

Join Mrs. Shah for a fun-filled adventure creating one-of-a-kind picture books! First, students will study different types of picture books, examining genres, authors and even concepts. After learning about different types of picture books, students will brainstorm and draft their own stories, create final drafts, and add illustrations. Once students have bound and published their final works, we will have a celebration. Parents are invited to attend the Read Aloud Exposition on the last day of camp!

Instructor: Komi Shah
 Offered: Session 1: June 10 - 14 (M-F)
 from 10:30 am - 2 pm
 Session 2: June 17 - 20 (M-Th)
 from 10 am - 2 pm
 Grades: Students entering grades 3 – 5
 Cost: Session 1: $350
 Session 2: $350
 Min/Max: Min 9 / Max 15 students
 Other: Please bring a nut-free sack lunch

OUT OF THE BOX CAMP

Out of the Box Camp will instill creativity, problem-solving, teamwork, and performance skills in young students. Your child will learn to work with their peers and find a creative way around a difficult problem. Students will get to engage in fun activities while learning fundamental problem-solving skills which will aid them in their everyday lives. This two-week camp will culminate in a final group performance highlighting the kids' creative ideas and teamwork. Out of the Box Camp is led by two Quest alumni (Maddie Dickerson and Grace Park) who participated in Destination Imagination for 6 years. Their team attended DI Global competition and placed 4th in the world.

Instructor: Karen Dickerson
 Offered: June 10 - June 20 (M-F, M-Th; 9 days)
 from 9 am - 3 pm
 Grades: Students entering grades 3-6
 Cost: $630
 Min/Max: Min 6 / Max 12 students
 Other: Please bring a nut-free sack lunch

LEGO ROBOTICS

Join Mrs. Tuten for one or both weeks as teams design, build, and program a LEGO® MINDSTORMS® robot, then compete on a themed table-top playing field. Along their journey, students develop critical-thinking and team-building skills, build STEM self-confidence, and gain valuable perspective on the importance of failure in the learning process. This summer camp program is to gain a head start on the 2019-2020 season of competition in First Lego League Robotics. This is a great introductory class for students who may find interest in coding, robotics, and competition. This will also challenge students with previous Lego Robotics experience and gear students towards the First Lego League Robotics competition for the 2019 season.

Instructor: Julie Tuten
 Offered: Session 1: June 17 - 20 (M-Th)
 from 9 am – 12 pm
 Session 2: June 24 - 28 (M-F)

 Grades: Students entering grades 3 - 7
 Cost: Session 1: $300
 Session 2: $375
 Min/Max: Min 10 /Max 18 students
 Other: Bring a nut-free snack

SPANISH BOOT CAMP

Join Mrs. Kropp for one or both weeks for an action-packed camp where we will explore the Señor Wooly universe. Learn Spanish with the help of compelling songs and videos that are sometimes strange, sometimes hilarious but are always interesting. Students will experience a gamified classroom with fast-moving activities and oodles of Spanish language input. This class will appeal to Novice Low to Novice High Spanish learners.

Instructors: Lisa Kropp
 Offered: Session 1: June 10 - 14 (M-F)
 from 12:30 - 2:30 pm
 Session 2 : June 17 - 20 (M-Th)
 from 12:30 - 2:30 pm
 Grades: Students entering grades 5-8
 Cost: Session 1: $250
 Session 2: $225
 Min/Max: Min 5 / Max 25 students

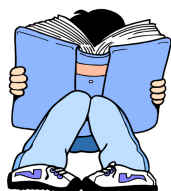

STOCK MARKET

Open to students entering grades 5–8 In this workshop-style course, you will learn the basic principles of stock market operations. This workshop is designed to provide a solid foundation for individuals who know little about stocks, bonds, mutual funds, IRAs, 401Ks, and other investment tools for the future. Students will have the opportunity to compete in a Stock Market competition through NationalSMS.com. They will learn how to research companies in order to make informed trades. The class will encourage students to build and maintain electronic portfolios and track market conditions with real-time quotes online. It will also show students how to budget money in a simulated checkbook with a modest salary. By the end of the class, students will understand market conditions, know what it means to invest for the future, and produce a financial report for prospective customers. Students will also watch the 2002 documentary “Commanding Heights,” the film based on the 1998 book written about economic philosophies by economist Daniel Yergin and financier Joseph Stanislaw. Students will also learn about the economic crisis of 2007 and why the market and economy crashed.

Instructor: Drew Shilhanek
 Offered: Session 1: June 10 – June 14 (M-F)
 from 8:30 am – 12 pm
 Session 2: June 17 - 20 (M-Th)

 Grades: Students entering grades 5 – 8
 Cost: Session 1: $375
 Session 2: $300
 Min/Max Min 10 /Max 20 students

MIDDLE GRADES/YOUNG ADULT (MGYA) LITERATURE, PROJECTS, AND AUTHORS

Because of the explosion of Middle Grades and Young Adult literature, students have myriad opportunities to read novels with characters and plot lines developed specifically for them. Young readers can identify and relate to characters’ experiences, which can provide an understanding in and around their world. Choose and read at least one MG or YA novel each week. As students read, they will participate in book discussions and literature circles, lead book talks, write and publish in a variety of ways. Students will write more detailed summaries, book reviews, and literature analyses with specifically-cited passages. Students will produce a weekly project about the book they are reading each week. Students can create a book trailer, produce a book cover with an inside cover description, or write a letter to an author. Students will benefit from at least one visit from a Middle Grades or Young Adult author who will discuss their latest novel and read a passage from that novel.

Instructor: Drew Shilhanek
 Offered: Session 1: June 10 - June 14 (M-F)
 from 12:30 – 2:30 pm
 Session 2: June 17 - 20 (M-Th)
 from 12:30 – 2:30 pm
 Grades: Students entering grades 5 – 8
 Cost: Session 1: $250
 Session 2: $225
 Min/Max Min 9 / Max 15 students
 Other: Lunch break will be supervised for students also signing up for Stock Market class

ROLE-PLAYING GAME DEVELOPMENT: Nation Creation, GameCraft, and As the World Turns

Imagine YOU are one of the leaders of a country. What advantages and disadvantages does your country have? What are some issues your country is facing? What’s happening in the world beyond your country? How prepared are you for the possibility of a natural disaster or a declaration of war?

This two-week course is comprised of three parts: developing a role-playing game, constructing the game board and pieces, and testing the game. During Part One, Nation Creation, you design imaginary countries, each with its own geography, government, economy, history, and culture. All students also contribute suggestions for global issues that the imaginary world will face. Part Two, GameCraft, is manufacturing the game. Possible activities are gathering materials, drawing, painting, building, molding and 3D painting. In Part Three, As the World Turns, you test the game through play, taking turns to attempt solving each national and global issue.
