Difference between a BOSS and a LEADER :

BOSS says :

Go

LEADER says :

Let's go

A great one of a kind...

This series of workshops gives the students the skills to succeed in presenting themselves with assurance, asserting and arguing their point effectively, finding solutions quickly, taking initiative, understanding how to negotiate and delegate harmoniously. This class is structured around fun projects and games that encourage the exploration of inquiry, initiative, adaptability, critical thinking, negotiation, delegation and proper presentation through improvisation games, engineering projects, lego activities, physical activities, science experiments and more. While cultivating the skills, students build strong, successful relationships. They learn how to find their voice and showcase themselves and their work in the best way. The following are the components of the program:

LEADERSHIP Students will learn and apply valuable leadership skills like Negotiation, Delegation, Initiative, Adaptability, Conflict Resolution, Communication, Time Management and more.

PUBLIC SPEAKING & DEBATE They will learn how to address and present their views in a persuasive, compelling way while learning how to address and negate their opponent's argument. Debate aligns with Common Core reading, writing, and English Language Arts standards. It is an excellent way to build a child's confidence and teach them how to advocate for themselves.

COURT TRIAL A court trial is a fun and exciting way to experience the Judicial process. Students will utilize age-appropriate resources provided by the American Bar Association. Court trial combines the energy and excitement of debate with the drama of the Theater. Students will take part in a simulated trial (criminal or civil) and play the roles of Attorney, Defendant, Plaintiff, Witness, Bailiff, Judge, and Jury. Student attorneys will learn how to craft and deliver opening and closing statements, examine, cross-examine and re-direct witnesses, present incriminating evidence and more.

AMANDA SAWYER

The instructor of this class is Ms. Amanda Sawyer (Founder & Director of "Dodimus Potestatem"). She has taught students at the Lemay Preparatory, Ecole International, the Hudson School, Packer Collegiate, Dalton, St. Bernards and Horace Mann. Her program is focused on social skills, public speaking and presentation. It was developed in conjunction with The University of Cambridge. Their findings showed that after several months of activities and exercise in communication, delegation and presentation the children's literacy, arithmetic and reasoning scores improved significantly.

How do you become a strong leader? This innovative class teaches students the traits of effective leadership and uses real examples of leaders in business, sports, the military and other areas to illustrate what makes a successful leader. Students choose a leader, work on a mini-project about that person during class and make a short presentation to the class on the last day.

Week #2 Sports Management Camp J3-J4 & M1-M4

For the sports lover, future team General Manager (GM), sports team owner or ESPN analyst, this unique class will “show you the money” in sports!

Students will learn the business side of various sports and actively discuss and analyze a different “sports money” topic every class, including:

- Which sports teams have the highest dollar market value?
- How do teams in the NFL, NBA, MLB and NHL make money?
- Endorsements: From Michael Jordan to LeBron James
- How should Under Armour compete against Nike?
- How do collective bargaining agreements determine player salaries in pro sports?
- What’s “the money picture” in individual sports like golf or tennis?
- Why do some pro athletes go bankrupt after making millions?
- How much money do top college football programs raise for the school?
